There were two interments in Bellevue cemetery this week, both adults.
There was only one interment in Oakdale this week—that of an adult.
You can now buy Improved Heating and Cook Stoves at factory prices at JACOBS'S.
There was one interment in Pine Forest cemetery (colored) during the week—an adult.
The Register of Deeds has issued five marriage licenses during the week, three white and two colored.

The market is bountifully supplied with ton timber and the daily receipts are far in excess of the demand.
Handkerchief dresses" prevail among the new suitings for spring. They are shown in light wool muslins of a creamy tint, with borders of exceedingly delicate hues.
Dr. M. J. DeRosset's condition, we are pleased to learn, has decidedly improved during the past two days. We have the authority from one of his physicians fostating that he is better to-day than he has been in a month past.
The remains of the late H. Ohlandt, will be escorted from the Commercial Hotel in the morning at 9 o'clock by the Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1 to St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church where the funeral services will be held and from thence to Oakdale Cemetery.

Remarkable Incident.
The Fayetteville Examiner notes the remarkable fact that the late Col. Samuel T. Hawley, of that town, who recently died at the advanced age of 85 years, departed this life in the same room in which he first breathed the breath of life.
Singular and remarkable fact.
Big Decline.
We learn from timber inspectors that common mill, fair mill, and extra mill timber has declined from $1.50 to $2.00 per thousand feet. We would advise our friends in the country to hold their timber back until the present stock is somewhat worked down and there is some demand for it.
Shipped Foreign.
The foreign shipments to-day include 1,326 barrels rosin and 2,750 barrels of tar on board Nor. barque Norge hence for Liverpool by Messrs Paterson, Downing & Co., and 1,913 casks of spirits and 236 barrels of rosin by Messrs Williams & Murchison on board the Nor. barque Kobe for Liverpool.

City Court.
This morning His Honor Mayor Smith interviewed John Henry Johnson, colored, brother of Zachariah, who was up for stealing hoops from Mr. Straus the other day. The charge was impertinence to a policeman on duty. His Honor remanded the young culprit to a cell until Monday morning when he is to be turned over to his mother, who has promised to administer a good dose of raw hide to the young hopeful.
Captain Harry Brock, Chief of Police of the city, received yesterday morning from Magnolia, a postal card informing him of the murder of a colored man near that place named Adam Bass. The horrible deed, the postal went on further to state, was committed by his half brother Handy Bass, a young man some 20 years of age, short of stature, being only about five feet high, and who carries a sullen and downcast look. The escaped murderer is supposed to be making his way for this city where he has relations or to South Carolina where he has other kinspeople. It is to be hoped he may be caught and brought to justice.
An old lady writes us: "I am 65 years old and was feeble and nervous all the time, when I bought a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic. I have used a little more than one bottle and feel as well as at 30, and am sure that hundreds need just such a medicine." See advertisement.

Death of Henry Ohlandt.
We regret to announce the death of Mr. H. Ohlandt, a prominent German citizen of this city, who departed this life at the Commercial Hotel in this city this morning about 7 o'clock from an attack of erysipelas in the head. Deceased came to Wilmington from Charleston, S.
C., about the year 1854, and has resided in this city for the past 27 years. During the war he volunteered in the Confederate army and served his adopted country in Howard's cavalry, and afterwards in the Third N. C. regiment of cavalry.
He was an honorary member of the Howard Fire Engine Company, but was serving the Company as Treasurer at the time of his death. He was an active member of this Company almost from its organization to within a few years since.
The deceased was born in Wuldorf, in what was then the Kingdom of Hanover, in the year 1839 and was consequently at the time of his death 42 years of age.
Henry Ohlandt was a genial and companionable person, and a man of considerable intelligence. He lived a quiet and unostentatious life and could boast a large circle of friends, both among our native as well as our German fellow citizens. His nearest relative in this country was his sister, Mrs. Vollers, the wife of our fellow-townsmen, Hanke Vollers, Esq. Mrs. Vollers, however, is unfortunately absent on a visit to New York and will not be able to be present at the last rites over the remains of her dead brother, which takes place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock at St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, and from thence to Oakdale Cemetery. May he rest in peace.

Picked Up at Sea.
Capt. Julius Newton, master of the pilot-boat Henry T. Westermann, while cruising off Frying-Pan Shoals, a few days ago, picked up seventeen barrels of kerosene oil and fifteen boxes of soap. Capt. Newton gives notice to parties interested in another column of this paper.

A Contract Secured.
We understand that the Cape Fear and People's Steamboat Company and the Express Steamboat Company, whose steamers ply between this city and Fayetteville, have taken the contract for the transportation up the river of the iron which is to lay the track of the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad between Egypt and Greensboro. This will give the river steamers plenty of business during the dull season, provided water is plentiful, and the river not too low for navigation.

Easter Morn.
To-morrow is Easter day, the Queen of Festivals; so recognized because it is regarded as the anniversary of the glorious Resurrection of our Lord and Saviour after His Crucifixion. The Sunday after the first full moon after the Vernal Equinox is the anniversary of the Resurrection otherwise known as Easter day. Under the new dispensation this is why Christian people celebrate Sunday, the first day of the week as the Lord's day, instead of Saturday the Seventh day, which the Jews were commanded to observe as God's day in the Old Testament.

Military News.
Under this head we glean from the News and Observer some items which will be of interest to our friends in the State guard:
Companies are preparing in all parts of the State to go to Yorktown. It is understood that twenty-seven companies will attend. These will be organized into three regiments and one battalion of infantry, and a battery of artillery.
One band, and only one will be allowed to each regiment, and only one, State color and one national color will be allowed to each. The carrying of flags by various companies will not be permitted.
A series of encampments, as required and provided for by the new militia law, will, it is understood, be held during the coming summer. The First Regiment will encamp at Kinston, the Second at Wrightsville, on the sound below Wilmington; the Third at Greensboro; and the Second Battalion at Cleveland Springs. The First Regiment will be a grand feature of the unveiling of the monument to Gov. Caswell at Kinston, on the 6th of August, probably.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

Observing the Day.
Yesterday, Good Friday, was observed by the Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran Churches of this city by morning and evening services. At the Lutheran Church there was confirmation at night when six persons were confirmed by the pastor, Rev. G. D. Burnheim, D.
D.
Several of our most prominent commission houses on the wharf were closed during the day as well as a great many other business places in different parts of the city. Nearly all of our German fellow-citizens closed their places of business during the entire day. The Produce Exchange and the banks were also closed.
BURGAW, N. C., April 4, 1881.— Major Charles M. Stedman, Wilmington, N. C.: DEAR SIR:—The heated contest over your supplemental bill for the relief of farmers and fishermen has excited much interest and wide-spread attention. It marks you anew as a man of the people and for the people. The bold stand you have taken for this measure of deliverance, the very efficient and signal service you have rendered in breaking down the monopoly of the new Market House organization of Wilmington, and thus standing by the rights of labor and securing for farmers and fishermen the benefits of a free market, endears you still more to the producers and industrial classes, and excites the thanks of the people of Pender. As some evidence of this grateful appreciation we are authorized to tender you a public dinner at Burgaw at an early day. Please notify us of your acceptance of this cordial invitation to meet, socially and around the festive board, the people of our new county.
Very truly, your friends,

Superior Court in Brunswick.
Brunswick Court, His Honor Judge Gudger presiding, which has been in session since Wednesday, will probably adjourn this afternoon and Judge and attorneys return to this city on the steamer Passport. The case of Brink vs. Black, which excited some interest and carried a good many of our Court House officials down the river as witnesses, is reported to have been compromised. The case of a colored woman charged with infanticide has been continued. The civil docket we hear was small.

Experiences with Storms and Other Disturbances.
An especially useful and valuable officer of the U. S. Government is most widely known under the title of Old Probabilities. But quite as well known is Prof. J. H. Tice, the meteorologist of the Mississippi Valley, whose contributions to his favorite study, have given him an almost national reputation. On a recent lecture tour through the Northwest, the Professor had a narrow escape from the serious consequences of a sudden and very dangerous illness, the particulars of which he thus refers to:
The day after concluding my course of lectures at Burlington, Iowa, on 21st December last, I was seized with a sudden attack of neuralgia in the chest, giving me excruciating pain and almost preventing breathing. My pulse, usually 80, fell to 35; intense nausea of the stomach succeeded, and a cold, clammy sweat covered my entire body. The attending physician could do nothing to relieve me; after suffering for three hours, I thought, as I had been using St. Jacob's Oil with good effect for rheumatic pains,—I would try it. I saturated a piece of flannel large enough to cover my chest, with the oil, and applied it.— In one hour, I was entirely free from pain, and would have taken the train to fill an appointment in a neighboring town, had my friends not dissuaded me. As it was, I took the night train for my home, St.
Louis, and have not been troubled since.

DIED.

Germany, but for the past twenty-seven mercial Hotel, at 9 o'clock, on to-morrow
