The steamer Passport is laid up for repairs. When she comes out again to resume her regular trips she will have her summer clothes on and "Capt. Johnny Harper" will be as proud of her as a hen with one chick.

Many lose their beauty from the hair falling or fading. Parker's Hair Balsam supplies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness and is an elegant dressing.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States partly cloudy weather and occasional rain, southerly winds in the southern portion and northeasterly winds on the N. C. Coast, stationary and lower barometer and temperature.

Dr. Deems.
Rev. Chas. F. Deems, D. D., LL. D., is expected to arrive in this city on Thursday morning and will be the guest of Mr. B. G. Worth. Dr. Deems will rest on Thursday, lecture in the evening and receive his friends on Friday.

The Thalian Amateurs.
The "Comrades" was produced at the Tileston Upper Room last evening by the Thalian Amateurs; to a large and appreciative audience. The play is a strong one, and is well calculated to test the mettle of the performers. As usual the Thilians handled the piece with artistic skill and were vociferously applauded. We are glad to know that our Amateurs, in whom the city feels a just pride, will give two or three entertainments during the next six weeks.

To-morrow Night.
The character of the talent employed to participate in to-morrow evening's entertainment at the Opera House is a sufficient guarantee of the pleasure in store for those who may attend. The well known vocal powers of the esteemed lady who is the beneficiary, will draw no doubt, many persons thither. It is all or nearly all native talent, that is to say, the performers are residents of our city, and are well known to the musical world in Wilmington.

How to see your own painter: Buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at Jacob's.

Small Strike.
Dr. Cloud seems to have some trouble in getting hands to work on the water works. He offers 80 cents a day task labor of 10 yards per day. He says if hands will work they can easily make in this soil $1.50 per day, but the laborers refuse to go to work unless they have a guarantee of $1.50 per diem. This the water works company refuse to pay and Dr. Cloud says he will send north and get labor if hands here will not work at the 80 cents per diem task labor.

Fell Down a Hatch.
Sunday afternoon a seaman on board of the schooner Jessie Hart 2nd went aboard of the schooner Irene E. Meserve, loading with lumber at Messrs. Northrop & Camming's mill, to visit a brother, when he tripped on some loose scantling and was precipitated down the hatch. The unfortunate man was brought on deck and medical aid summoned. Dr. Bellamy, the attending physician, found him suffering very much from concussion of the brain and very badly bruised. The sailor is doing as well as could be expected.

Advise our friends to call at Jacob's for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

City Court.
His Honor Mayor Smith had only two cases before him this morning. Two persons, a white woman and a colored man, were arraigned charged with selling spirituous and malt liquors on Sunday last. The two cases were tried under a city ordinance. These being the first charges against the defendants both cases were dismissed.

His Honor took occasion to say that he was determined to put a stop to the selling of liquor on Sunday in this city.

Go to JACOBI'S for Doors, Sash and Blinds, pure White Lead, Oils, Varnishes, Window Glass, all sizes. All at the lowest prices.

The Festival Last Night.
There was a good attendance at the City Hall last night at the festival given by the ladies of St. Thomas' Roman Catholic Church for the benefit of the Sisters of Mercy of this city. His Honor Mayor Smith, at 9 o'clock, made a formal opening of the bazaar, which continues through to day, to-night, to-morrow and to-morrow night, in a neat title address. He made a warm eulogy upon the quiet heroism of the Sisters of Mercy, who so bravely faced the pestilence that scourged our city some years ago, everywhere ministering as they did to the afflicted and dying, by which acts they won the esteem of all classes and for which, if naught else could be said for them, they deserve the most liberal charity of our citizens. He said that he felt this would certainly be extended them during this festival, and in his official capacity respectfully called upon our people generally to patronize it. His speech was short but appropriate and was warmly applauded at the close. To give a minute description of the many attractions which grace the Hall would fill our entire local space but we are pleased to note some of the leading and general features: The art gallery, arranged, catalogued and under the direct management of Mrs. John Sweeney, assisted by Miss Mary Darby, is a rich and rare exhibition of genius and art. The candy tent, in charge of Miss Lizzie Darby and the Misses Sweeney, did an active business throughout the evening. There are two refreshment tables, on either of which might be found vivands that would make a feast for any royal epicure. The one on the rostrum in the Hall is under the management of Mrs. Kerchner and Mrs. Darby, assisted by Mrs. Sweeney and Mrs. O'Connor. The other on the left of the entrance of the Hall is in charge of Mrs. Madden, Mrs. Barry and Mrs. Tim Donlan. The prices for either substantial or delicacies are quite reasonable, much more so than is generally the case at such entertainments. The tables for miscellaneous and fancy articles are three in number. As the auctioneers would say, each table is crowded with goods, wares and merchandise, too numerous to mention. For our own convenience only in designating, we will say that table No. 1, the first to the right on entering was arranged and is in charge of Miss Josie Deans, assisted by the young folks. She may well be proud of the general admiration her table called forth. Table No. 2, the next on the right, was gotten up and managed by Mrs. Price and Mrs. Frank Darby, assisted by Mrs. Corbett and Miss Annie King. There are quite a number of articles on this table that were contributed by friends in other States. The taste displayed in arranging them rendered them particularly attractive. Table No. 3 is on the East side of the Hall and closes the list. The general impression made by those who visited this table is that taste and experience are displayed in a marked degree in its arrangement. The many beautiful articles which adorn it, are only to be excelled by the bevy of fair attendants. The management is: Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Jno. Reilly, Mrs. Fulton and Mrs. Bauman assisted by the Misses Divine, Bauman, Connor, Mary Powell and Alice Queen. All of the tables were liberally patronized. The "grab bags" though minor in their claims, were driving a thriving and profitable trade among all in attendance. One very marked and commendable feature was the fact that while articles for raffle were on each and every table, there was no undue solicitation for chances. The congregation of St. Thomas' Church generally have exerted themselves to make this bazaar a success, and all are more or less entitled to credit for their efforts in that direction.

Wild Cat.
The Patriarch of the Fox Club of this city took the dogs out for a little exercise yesterday afternoon and after a sharp race and plenty of fun and "music" the dogs ceased to "give tongue" and the said Patriarch rode up and found that he had caught a very large wild cat. The cat is enormous for its age and can be seen at the new Market.

Disgraceful Conduct.
We insert elsewhere to-day a communication signed "Churchman," which we intended for yesterday's issue, but inadvertently left out. We call the attention of those interested to the purport of this publication, and we would like to remark here for the benefit of those to whom this communication refers, that if the young men, and over-grown boys, who conducted themselves so disgracefully in St. James' Church on last Sunday afternoon, and in St. John's Church last Sunday night, ever repeat the ungentlemanly conduct, they were then guilty of, they will not only feel the heavy hand of the law upon them, which

Horse Overboard.

A horse attached to a dray backed off of the wharf at the foot of Princess street this morning into the river. The water at the end of the wharf is about twelve feet deep, and the animal with the dray attached to him, swam into the dock, but seemed to become confused and swam out in the river again towards a timber raft. After the horse had been in the water about twenty minutes and was very much exhausted the dray and harness was cut from him and he was with much difficulty taken ashore. The dray sank in about 18 feet of water and was being dragged for during the day. The animal does not appear to be injured in any way.

is particularly severe for disturbing church services, but they may perchance see their full names in print, so that the public may be well assured who the guilty parties are. Young men and boys who have been properly reared and taught good manners at home, deserve, and should receive greater censure than those whose opportunities for proper instruction have been proscribed. A person who misbehaves, and is guilty of indecent conduct at church is pretty certain to receive the severe condemnation of all respectable people in a community whether they be church-goers or not, and irrespective of faith or creed.

We hope we shall never have to recur to this matter, but if the occasion should arise again, let these young gentlemen beware, for we shall deal with them mercilessly.

For the Review.

A Word of Warning.

MR. EDITOR:
The undersigned desires to say to these young men who by their talking and noise disturbed the congregation in that part of St. John's church nearest the doors and did other disorderly things during the service Sunday night, both inside the church and outside at the door, that a repetition of the offence will cause them to be placed in a most embarrassing position. We trust it may not occur again.

CHURCHMAN.

A CARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 18, 1881.
EDITOR OF THE STAR:
Sir—I see in your paper of the 17th instant, that I am spoken of as the successor of Mr. W. P. Canaday, as Collector of Customs at this port. This is being done, not by those who wish me well, but by bitter enemies of Mr. Canaday, on account of the friendship and support he has given my race. I positively decline to allow my name used against Mr. Canaday, and as long as he desires the place I shall support him with all the influence I can command and his enemies must not try to use any colored man in North Carolina to strike him down.

Very respectfully,
GEO. L. MABSON.

Given up by Doctors.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"
"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters; and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die!"
"Well—a day! That is remarkable! I will go this day and get some for my poor George—I know hops are good."—Salem Post.
