LONDON, April 19 .- One of the late Lord Beacentfield's medical attehdants gives an account of the last hours of the distinguished statesmen. The drowsiness which was apparent in the latter part of last evening gradually deepened toward midnight into stupor, from which His Lordship was with difficulty aroused. He still, however, took nourishment up to half past one o'clock this morning. About two o'clock the stupor deepened into come or complete insensibility, and toward three o'clock the breathing became very much embarrassed.

Farmer Mechanic: Dr. Grissom's testi-mony in the Defaruelto murder trial fills five or six columns of the Danville News, and is both interesting and instructive; showing how deceptive are appearances in cases of dejusional insanity. He cites instances of ladies who have been at our Asylum, whose intelligence and culture in all ordinary transac tions would deceive the most skillful, yet who are crazy as loons in certain points. - Dr. Grissom declared to the court that he came at the suggestion of his Directory, (DeJarnette being a North Carolinian); and that he would not accept a dellar for pay or expenses for his testimony as an expert.

Newbern Nut Shell: We are pleased to learn that active steps are now being taken towards the establishment of a canning factory in this city.
