

THE DAILY REVIEW.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r. WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1881.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as Second Class Matter.

A San Francisco dispatch states that the latest steamer from Hong Kong brought 930 Chinese, the steamer before that brought over 600, and the next to arrive will bring 800.

Moving day in New York comes this year on Sunday, and as a consequence tenants generally will perform that unpleasant work the following day.

Mr. Edwin G. Booth, a wealthy Philadelphian, but a native of Virginia, is illustrating his patriotism by having prepared a map of Yorktown, Va., at the date of the surrender.

The signs grow, says the Philadelphia Times, that the Republicans in Washington are coming to their senses and that at least some of the public business will be attended to.

A MAL GRANT CHARACTER. If there is a bitter, mean, vindictive, unrelenting and malignant hater in these United States of America, that man is Charles A. Dana, managing editor of the New York Sun.

The musician who recently serenaded a Wisconsin statesman, now want him to pay them for it. As he refuses, the neighbors say he's a band-dunned character.

The entire Bible has been translated into the language of the New Hebrides, a group of islands in the Pacific Ocean, and the natives have paid the whole expense of printing it.

law Reid, to a young heiress in New York city. The hate developed by Dana for the young editor of the Tribune, as he calls him, is in some part due to it is thought, to a spirit of jealousy, ridiculous and singular as it may seem, because the new Tribune building some seven or eight stories high, over towers the little Sun building along side, and dwarfs it into insignificance.

Mr. Whitelaw Reid's fact is the thing that has made his fortune, and that characterizes his Tribune. We do not there behold any mental force, or original genius, or shining quality, any moral grasp, or any vital faith, but in rely deportment, mediocrity, pretensions, respectability, toudyism, venality, and stock jobbery.

But what can be expected from a man who is mean and coward enough to strike a prostrate foe. It was by Charles A. Dana's orders as Assistant-Secretary of War, that the manacles were put upon ex-President Davis while a helpless prisoner in Fortress Monroe.

The man who goes into business with the Devil, soon finds that his partner is soul proprietor. The Government sends agents to take care of the Indians and the latter take care of the agents.

Lemoyne's crematory market report—Corpses stiff, with an upward tendency. Philadelphia Evening News.

The following epitaph, respectfully dedicated to the reckless, is worth remembering: "Here lies a man whose crown was won by blowing in an empty gait."

Culture—The Boston girl does not say, "What are you giving us? Taffy?" She remarks, "Of what do you wish to make me the recipient? a confection whose main ingredient is molasses?"—Boston Times.

The musician who recently serenaded a Wisconsin statesman, now want him to pay them for it. As he refuses, the neighbors say he's a band-dunned character. Sad case, isn't it?—Boston Post.

Och, let me alone, Says Mistle Mahone, If you don't sure it's trouble ye'll borner; It's true I sowl out, Av that there's no doubt, But ain't it the fashion, begorra?

The entire Bible has been translated into the language of the New Hebrides, a group of islands in the Pacific Ocean, and the natives have paid the whole expense of printing it.—Exchange. Won't those natives swear when they find their Bibles haven't the latest improvement?
