 The Democrats have carried the cities of Raleigh and Charlotte in the municipal election. In the latter city, however, the principal issue in the canvass was prohibition or no prohibition. The former carried the day, but we think the advocates of prohibition were principally Democrats. Mayor DeWolfe being re-elected on that ticket.

Twisted Trouble.
 Receive for that Golden Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, a thousand thanks. I suffered for many years with rheumatic pains in my limbs, my legs were drawn together, and people called me "crooked Maertel." I used St. Jacobs Oil, and was cured, and now feel so well that I think I could dance as in my young days.

A Mistaken Star.
 Yesterday a young lassie who could not have numbered a great many summers, but who possibly had arrived at the tender and charming age of sweet sixteen, was seen crying and sobbing as if her very heart would break, on the corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets, and was kindly approached by a gentleman who gently endeavored to render the distressed young damsel some assistance. But, he failed; his consolatory words fell on the heedless ears of the sobbing maiden and the kind-hearted gentlemen was non-plussed. He now epitomizes the interview as follows:
 I saw a maiden weeping dear,
 And in her eye was many a tear.
 I softly touched her marble brow—
 "Maiden," I asked, "why weepest thou?"
 She answered not; yet still the tears
 Gently trickled into her ears.
 "Maiden," I said, "oh tell me now
 Your secret sorrow—why weepest thou?"
 She gently raised her noble head,
 And showed to me her wet cheeks, red.
 "Why weepest thou?" I once more said.
 Replied she in a voice of lead:
 "None of your business!"

A Pugnacious Striker.
 Sol. Nixon, colored, one of the hands who had been employed by the Water-Works Company in digging the trench for the pipe-laying, but who was one of the leaders of the strike yesterday morning, got himself into considerable difficulty during the day. He went to where those who refused to strike were employed and used violent, abusive and threatening language to the workmen, to such an extent that some of them signified an intention to quit work, alleging as a reason, that they were afraid he would put some of his threats into execution. Dr. Cloud, hearing of the disturbance, went to Nixon and warned him to keep away from the hands and not disturb or interfere with them in their work, when the latter turned upon him with the most villainous and abusive language at his command, adding threats to abuse. Upon this the doctor had a warrant issued for Nixon, who was arrested and taken before Justice Gardner for an examination, where he was ordered to give bond in the sum of $100 to keep the peace. At the trial Nixon claimed the privilege, to which he was entitled, of conducting his own case, and he conducted it in such a manner that he came very near being conducted to jail for insolence to the court.

U. S. District Court.
 In the case of the U. S. vs. J. C. Wright, of Columbus county, for the alleged failure to remove stamps from tobacco boxes, which was on trial when our report closed yesterday, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.
 There was no session of the Court today in consequence of His Honor, Judge Brooks, being confined to his room by sickness.

Hail Storm at Whiteville.
 We learn that a terrific hail storm visited Whiteville and vicinity yesterday. The wind blew violently, uprooting trees and overturning fences in its path. Hail stones of considerable size and quantities could have been gathered from the fields in the country around, at least, so says our informant. We presume and hope, the crops are not far enough advanced to have sustained any serious damage from the storm.

The Last of the Strike.
 The strike, which we alluded to yesterday, had but a brief existence indeed, and resulted in but little loss save to the strikers. This morning a much larger force than was employed before the strike, presented itself for employment, and among those who presented themselves were nearly all of those who struck yesterday. The force is now considerably augmented, and the work is being pushed vigorously on Fourth street. There was a rumor that the former price—$1 per day—had been restored, but this, we learn, is not the fact, the hands working for eighty cents per day.

Further Arrangements for Memorial Day.
 We understand that the Ladies' Memorial Association of this city have selected Colonel B. R. Moore as the orator for the occasion on Memorial Day, and that that gentleman has accepted the invitation and will deliver the Memorial address. We congratulate the ladies upon their selection of an orator. The choice, we think, is a good one, and Col. Moore every way competent to fill the position. An orator of no ordinary capacity, Col. Moore is at the same time one of the most erudite scholars for his age to be found in our midst. In addition to these necessary qualities, Col. Moore has also the other quality of having been a Confederate soldier and having shed his blood in the cause of the Confederacy. We also learn that the Rev. Dr. A. A. Watson, Rector of St. James' Church, has been requested to act as Chaplain on the same occasion and that the reverend gentleman has signified his intention of accepting the invitation, and will serve the ladies in that capacity on Memorial Day.

Caswell Memorial Association.
 To all North Carolinians at Home or Abroad:
 The General Assembly of North Carolina, at its late session, passed an act appropriating five hundred dollars to build a monument to the memory of our first constitutional Governor, Richard Caswell. This sum is entirely inadequate for the purpose, and was only intended to assist the patriotic citizens of the State in their efforts to build a monument commensurate with the great deeds done by him whose memory it is intended to perpetuate.
 We know that every true citizen of the State, adopted as well as native, will be glad to have the privilege of assisting in raising the legislative appropriation to a sum that will more nearly meet the requirements of the case.
 Therefore we have issued this circular, hoping that every one whose eye it may reach will forward to the treasurer of the association any sum which may attest his admiration of the great, many and noble services to the Old North State by that sterling patriot, intrepid soldier and wise statesman, whose memory we wish to hand down as a rich legacy to our posterity.
 His Excellency Governor Jarvis is in full accord with this object, and has notified the Caswell Memorial Association of his intention to further its ends.
 This association is permanently organized and now vigorously at work. The citizens of Lenoir are already coming forward with their contributions.
 It is earnestly requested that the vice-presidents of the Caswell Memorial Association will push the work of collection, so that, if possible, the monument may be ready for the ceremonies of unveiling on the fourth day of July next.
 It is proposed to locate the monument on the public square, in the town of Kinston.
 All contributions should be forwarded to James A. Pridgen, Treasurer Caswell Memorial Association, Kinston, N. C.
 Committee on Correspondence—F. B. Lottin, J. P. Bryan, J. S. Midyette, Wm. A. Coleman, Richard H. Lewis, Kinston.
 Donations will be received by Mr. T. B. Kingsbury.
