Mrs. Person—Dear Madam: I think your medicine is the best that is now before the public, for the cure of blood diseases. I have great confidence in it, and believe that it will do all that you claim for it. I have known Mr. Stokes, before he commenced using your medicine, and I see you have restored him to health. I see you have restored the condition of mankind, and restored to his comfort and happiness. I will do all in my power for you among my friends. Yours respectfully, to adorn a table.

Now is the time for the man with a make his appearance.

Men who are their own enemies would find it a great deal more profitable to be enemies to somebody else and friends to themselves.

be said of editors.

It is not true that a married man can ever become a bird, although when he comes home at 2 in the morning his wife very often makes him quail.

The Bernhardt will leave one legacy to our countrywomen in the shape of her poke bonnet, which it is evident will be generally followed this summer.

May is one of the unlucky months for marriages. The other unlucky months are January, February, March, April, June, July, August, September, October, November and December.

If you do not like Spanish lace you had better pack your trunk and go to only that a woman will dare to appear this summer without her gown trimmed with Spanish lace, and plenty of it.

We learn that Rev. J. B. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist Church, in this city, has been requested to deliver the address at the Sunday School Convention, under the auspices of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, which will be held at Asheville, commencing June 23d and continuing three days. We are not informed whether Mr. Taylor has signified his acceptance of the invitation or not.

Killed by Lightning.
Mr. Lingard Best, living about six miles from Lumberton, Robeson county, was killed by lightning on the evening of the 3rd inst. Two of his children were severely stunned by the same stroke and the dwelling house was very badly damaged. Mr. Best leaves a wife and five children.

Commencement Exercises.
Our thanks are tendered the Marshals for the courtesy of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the University of North Carolina, which will take place at Chapel Hill on the 1st and 2nd days of June next. Hon. Matt. W.
Ransom will deliver the address before the Societies on that occasion, and Rev.
Wm. P. Harrison, D. D., D. C., will preach the Baccalaureate Sermon.

[Galveston News.]
Essaying to doctor the scars received by the candidates for the presidency the Madison, (Wis.) Democrat, wisely prescribes St. Jacobs Oil. Of course we could not expect our worthy contemporary to do otherwise than recommend that famous Old German Remedy—which "heals all wounds but those of love" and soothes all pains,—save those of political disappointment.

City Court.
Hattie A. Churchwell and Louisa Henry, two damsels of the colored persuasion, were arrested, and arraigned before the Mayor this morning upon the charge of disorderly conduct. After listening patiently to the evidence in the case his Honor Mayor Smith discharged the first named, while the woman Louisa was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or be confined in the C. P. for ten days. In default of payment of fine, defendant was forced to accept the alternative and went below.

U. S. District Court.

There were no cases tried before the jury to-day. Several cases were submitted without trial, and some others were continued. All the cases were of minor importance.

Bazaar and Festival
It will be seen by advertisement in this issue that the ladies connected with St. John's Church will give a Bazaar and Festival at the City Hall, commencing at 8 o'clock on the evening of the 11th inst. and continuing throughout the week. The price of admission is within the reach of all, the entertainment will be just such as the indefatigable energy and excellent taste of the ladies know so well how to arrange. We bespeak for them a generous house on each and every evening.

Directors' Meeting.
The Board of Directors of the Duplin Canal Company held a meeting in this city yesterday, at which they elected the following officers to serve for the ensuing year:

President—Wm. Larkins.
Vice-President—W. T. Bannerman.
Superintendent—W. L. Young.
Treasurer and Collector for New Hanover County—J. L. Boatwright.
Collector and Paymaster—David Far-rifer.

On motion of Mr. Wm. Calder, the Treasurer and Collector were ordered to collect the monthly instalments of five per cent, up to the 1st of May, inst.

tion. There you get the lowest prices. †

Tried and Re-Tried.
'Squire Millis tried a case of disorderly conduct or nuisance this morning, in which the nuisance complained of, consisted of the defendant using profane and obscene language. Quite a serious charge and one that needs the heavy hand of the law to regulate it—as there is too much of this same sort of nuisance practiced on the streets here constantly, day and night, but more particularly at night. The 'Squire, however, has granted the defendant a re-hearing and the case will be re-opened this afternoon.

North Carolina Medical Journal.
The April number of this valuable magazine is at hand. As a scientific periodical, devoted to the dissemination of knowledge useful and valuable to the profession and to sick and suffering humanity, it is an honor to North Carolina literature. The editorial columns of this number contain the "North Carolina Pharmacy Act of 1881," which is an important piece of legislation, not only to pharmacologists, but to the people at large, as it prescribes, among other things, the way, manner and by whom poisons may be sold in this State and fixes a penalty for a violation of the act.

There is also a paper on "Medical Education" in the State, from which we learn that during the past two years seventy-five applications have been made to the Board of Medical Examiners for license to practice medicine in the State.
Of this number sixty-three were granted and twelve refused. "At this rate the standard of examinations was by no means so high as the Board wished to make it. It was painfully evident that if a higher standard had been maintained, twice as many would have failed."

Many lose their beauty from the hair

Personal.

We had the pleasure of a short visit this morning from the young silver-tongued orator of Harnett, Elector for this district in the late Presidential campaign—Dan. Hugh McLean, Esq.
Mr. McLean, we are glad to see, is looking well and happy. Harnett should be proud of her gifted young son.

Col. McRae's Lecture.
Col. Duncan K. McRae is announced to deliver a lecture under the auspices of the Library Association to-morrow evening at the Opera House at 8 o'clock.
The mere announcement that Col. Mc-Rae is to lecture, it seems to us, is all sufficient to draw a large audience, for he is by heavy odds, the best lecturer in our humble judgment, that has ever appeared before a Wilmington audience—in our day. The theme, "Phantasmagoria," is a sort of magic lantern business, subject to contraction or expansion, and principally made up of illusions. We expect, however, on this occasion to learn—as we always do when we listen to this distinguished gentleman, something interesting—and to hear things that are rich, rare and racy.

LUMBERTON, May 3d.
The Spring term of the Superior Court is in session at this place, his Honor Judge Gudger presiding, and Mr. Solicitor McIver representing the State's interest. The court is well attended though most of the cases are of a trivial nature. The case of D. W. Thompson charged with the murder of J. W. Mc-Leod, at Abbottsburg, on the 11th of last March, creates much interest and is the all-absorbing theme. The evidence in the case is substantially as follows: On March 10th Mr. Thompson was in Wilmington and purchased nearly a carload of merchandise. The railroad authorities told Mr. Thompson that the car could be side-tracked at Abbottsburg and used by him to send shingles in to Wilmington. Mr. McLeod, it seems, was under the impression that he was to have the use of the car to send his freight in. He was in the car when Mr. Thompson approached and told him to get out of the car as it had been promised to him (Thompson) to send his shingles in. A heated altercation followed when Thompson shoved Mc-Leod, who fell out of the door striking his head on the railroad track, fracturing the skull, from the effects of which he died on March 12th, the day following the occurrence. Thompson disappeared but surrendered himself to the Sheriff of Bladen county, at Abbottsburg, on yesterday. At the last term of the Superior Court of Bladen the Grand Jury found a bill against Thompson, charging him with murder. Witnesses in the case were examined to day under a writ of Habeas Corpus in order to ascertain whether or not the prisoner can be released on bail. The case is now (Wednesday May 4th) being argued.
The supposition is that Thompson will be allowed to give bail.

One of the handsomest little churches to be found in the State has just been completed here, and is the property of the Baptists of this town. The building is made of brick and the best of heart timber, and is stuccoed and penciled to represent marble. It is 40x70 feet, with a clear pitch of 40 feet. The spire is 100 feet high, and is beautifully finished with an appropriate finial, and is supplied with a clear-toned bell. The erection of the church is due to the unflagging energy and liberal donations of our former townsman, Mr. J. McD. French, now of the firm of B. Godwin & Co., of this place.
The church will be dedicated about the 29th of May. Rev. Dr. Pritchard, President of Wake Forest College, has been requested and has consented to deliver the dedicatory sermon. The Rev. W.
T. Jordan, the pastor of the church, is doing much good work and is universally liked by his congregation. He is a young man of great promise, and will some day be among the acknowledged theologians of the country.

The burial-ground near the depot, where repose the mortal remains of some of the best of Robeson's citizens, which has so long been subjected to the ravages of cattle, has been snugly enclosed by a substantial wooden fence. Farmers generally are planting and using very much guano. The young crops look well and there is every reason to expect a good yield this season. More anon. II.
