Mayor Smith gave us no item again today.

Nothing is as good as it seems beforehand.

It's easy to find reasons why other people should be patient.

Let every man try to add a good name to his other capital.

Only one interment—that of a child—in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

We always find wit and merit in those who look at us with admiration.

In Oakdale Cemetery there was but one interment—that of an adult—this week.

Gloves are worn very long now—by people who cannot afford to buy new ones.

Go to JACOBI'S for Doors, Sash and Blinds, pure White Lead, Oils, Varnishes Window Glass, all sizes. All at the lowest prices.

There were three interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week—two adults and one child.

The Rev. Dr. George Patterson will preach at St. James' Church to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

There have been but two marriage licenses issued by the Register of Deeds this week, both of which were for colored couples.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

The Swedish barque Oriente, Winck, was cleared to-day for Glasgow, with a cargo 3,010 barrels of rosin by Alex. Sprunt & Son.

We will wager as good a hat as any one will pay for that there is not a city in the South of the same number of inhabitants as Wilmington, that can boast of so many fine-looking, healthy, bouncing, bright-eyed, lovely babies, all less than a year old.

Affray at Laurinburg.

A serious affray took place at Laurinburg on the evening of the 5th inst., which will probably prove fatal to one of the parties. The quarrel was between John McRae and Harrison McQuigg, both colored, during which McRae stabbed the latter, inflicting a severe wound just above the heart. He then took to the woods and is still at large. Whiskey was the cause.

Testimonial.

Maj. Chas. M. Stedman has been made the recipient of a handsome testimonial from his friends in this city as an acknowledgment for his services in securing the passage, by the last General Assembly, of a bill supplemental to the act known as the "Farmer's and Fisherman's Bill." It consists of a solid silver fruit dish, with knife and fork, the former bearing the following inscription: "Presented to Major Charles M. Stedman, by Citizens of Wilmington, N. C., for his signal and unselfish services in destroying a monopoly. May 2nd, 1881." The whole were enclosed in a neat case of Russian leather lined with satin.

The Lecture Last Night.

Col. McRae was greeted by a good audience last night to listen to his "Phantasmagoria" theme. The subject was a novel one, and excited wonder and curiosity in the minds of his auditors to know exactly what would be made of it. The lecture showed great familiarity with French history and philosophy and exhibited an amount of culture which we believe few there are in this or any other section of the country who can surpass it. The lecture was rather Frenchy, though, and for this reason was beyond our ken. There was wit, humor and satire in abundance; this we enjoyed in common with the rest of the audience, very much indeed. We were sorry to notice that the distinguished gentleman was quite unwell during the delivery of the lecture, and was compelled, on account of his indisposition, to cut short his discourse much to the regret of many who were present.

The route will be up Fourth street to Campbell, up Campbell street to the Cemetery. As the head of the procession reaches Campbell street the Cape Fear Light Artillery will begin to fire a salute of 36 guns from the hill overlooking the Cemetery.

At the close of the ceremonies a salute will be fired by the Wilmington Light Infantry.

The Memorial Services will be opened with a dirge by the Cornet Concert Club. Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Dr. A. A. Watson.

Owners of carriages are requested to direct their coachmen not to allow their horses to stand in the circle surrounding the Confederate Lot.

JAS. REILLY, Chief Marshal.

W. C. T. U.

We are requested to state that the regular weekly meeting of this Association will be held at the Hook and Ladder Hall on Wednesday afternoon next punctually at 5 o'clock. All Christian ladies, who are interested in the cause, are heartily invited to co-operate. The presence of the young ladies and girls is particularly desired, in order to form a Society among that most influential portion of the community. As soon as the organization is perfected the names of officers will be published. All those members, both male and female, who gave their names to Miss Willard are requested to send their annual fee 50 cents to the Treasurer, Mrs. Seth Davis, before the next meeting, or to the Hall on Wednesday afternoon. The Society needs funds, with which to commence its work, and hopes this request will find a prompt response.

Mr. Matt. McDermott, I. C. R. R. Shops, Waterloo, Iowa, writes: I was taken with an acute attack of Rheumatism last fall, and confined to bed. At first employed a physician, without benefit; then sent to Wangler Bros. Drug Store, and obtained a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, the use of which soon gave me relief, and cured me of the attack. I can safely recommend it to all suffering with Rheumatism.

A Card From the Ladies.

The ladies of the Memorial Association in this city make an eloquent appeal in the subjoined card to all who feel an interest in the object of the Association, which we doubt not will be greeted with the same ready and cheerful response that has characterized the liberal minded and patriotic citizens of Wilmington on similar occasions in the past.

TO THE CITIZENS INTERESTED:

The ladies of the Association will be designated by badges and none will be allowed to enter the enclosure without this distinctive mark except the members of the different organizations forming the procession. Through the efforts of the Chief Marshal carriages will be provided to bring those ladies of the Association back to their homes who may have walked out, and have no means of riding back. This is a kindly consideration that is appreciated. The public are earnestly requested to forgo for this one day in the three hundred and sixty five, the decoration of private lots, and give the flowers thus used to the adornment of the graves of those who fought and bled and died for them. The ladies of the Association do not think they are asking too much, or more than is due the heroic dead. Those, therefore, who have flowers are respectfully urged to devote them to this cause either in special tribute or by sending them to the school room in the rear of St. James Church, where the ladies of the city—one and all—who are in sympathy with the objects of the Association, are invited to meet and assist in arranging garlands for the soldiers' graves.

LADIES MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.

The Ladies of the Memorial Association wish it understood, and we are so requested to state, that no lady need be excluded from membership who has ever contributed in interest or money. Membership to the Association can be obtained by handing name and subscription (fifty cents) to the President, Vice President or Secretary and Treasurer.
