Great things are not accomplished by the dreams, but by years of patient study.

The Produce Exchange and the Bank will be closed to-morrow. The offices at the City Hall will also close their doors during the day.

A couple of very handsome bridges are being built over the Lumber river near Lumberton by the Carolina Central Railway Company.

The badges for the members of the Ladies' Memorial Association can be obtained at the school room in rear of St. James' Church, to-morrow morning, as early as 9 o'clock.

The members of the "Association of Officers of the Third N. C. Infantry" are requested to meet promptly on the corner of Third and Dock streets to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Many lose their beauty from the hair falling or fading. Parker's Hair Balm applies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness and is an elegant dressing.

John Brown, charged with stealing a key from the store of H. E. Scott, on Saturday, was committed to jail to-day under a writ of habeas corpus to await the next term of the Criminal Court.

The municipal election at Magnolia resulted in an election of the following ticket:
Mayor—Jas. T. Carroll, Esq.
Commissioners—H. E. Newberry, G.
W. Brinkley, A. H. Morriss, J. D. Wilson, Dock C. Brilen and J. H. Heath.

The Bazaar.
The managers of the Bazaar to be held this week has purposely refrained from personal solicitation for contributions, as is customary, but they take this method of letting all friends interested know that they will be gratified for anything in the way of eatables or flowers, cut or in pots, to be sent to the Hall on any of the three days of the Bazaar.

A Church's Debt Cancelled.
The church debt of the First Baptist Church of this city was eradicated yesterday morning. The usual service of the church was had with the exception of the sermon. The pastor, Rev. J. B.
Taylor, spoke of the indebtedness of the church and the importance of wiping it out. Several of the members made suggestions as to the best means of so doing, and a special subscription was asked for.
The congregation responded nobly and in less than an hour $6,100 was subscribed.

The firm of Mansell, Birnbaum & Co., New York, conduct the largest sponge business in America; the senior member, Mr. A. Mansell is a strong endorser of St. Jacobs Oil. He suffered for years with Rheumatism; induced by a friend, he procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil and was cured.

The Sinking of a Steamer.
The steam tug Orlando sank at her moor at the foot of Orange street, in this city, yesterday morning about 4 o'clock. The supposition is that her gunwales caught under the wharf at low tide and as the tide rose the steamer listed to such a degree as allowed the water to flow over her which filled her hold and caused her to sink. At the time of the sinking the watchman was asleep and was awakened by the listing of the tug.
He hurried out on deck in time to save himself. A favorite pet cat went down with the steamer. The Orlando is the property of Mr. W. H. French and is used for towing rock from Rocky Point to the New Inlet. Mr. R. H. Berry, who has received the contract to raise her, thinks he will have her afloat by Saturday.

Death of Mr. Meghinny.
Mr. L. Meghinny, an old and esteemed resident of this city, died here yesterday morning at 15 minutes past 3 o'clock.
His death was not unexpected. As he had been ill for some time and it was for some last week that his end was near.

Mr. Meghinny was a Baltimorean and came to this city during the year 1845, as a teacher, to take charge of a school which had a few years previously been inaugurated here by the Old Fellows' Association. He came as the successor of Mr. McLaughlin, who had resigned the charge. It was located on the corner of Fourth and Princess streets, in the same building in which Mr. Meginny has lived ever since he came to Wilmington and in which he died. A few years after his location here Mr.
Meghinny purchased the school and not long afterwards the house and grounds, from the Association. For many years previous to the war he conducted a very flourishing school, but has not taught, we think, since the earlier days of the war. There was an interval of a year or so, however, during the year 1852, during which Mr. Meghinny retired and the school was conducted by Hon. Geo. Y.
Strong, now of Raleigh, and Rev. Lucien Holmes, now a minister in the Episcopal Church.

There were many of the boys of Wilmington of the period running from 1845 to 1860 who are indebted to Mr. Meginny's teachings for much of the sound principles of their education. Indeed, so many were they, that a good memory could probably recall a hundred of them now living. We have gone over the list, mentally, and can recall such names as those of Gen. Wm. McKee, Maj. Robert McRae (deceased) of the gallant 7th N.
C. Regiment; Red McRae and Walter G.
McRae; Asa K. Walker, Cashier of the First National Bank in this city; Wm.
A. Walker, formerly Secretary and Treasurer of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R.; Capt. Wm. Smith, of the C. C. R. W.; Col. H. G. Flanner (deceased) and his brothers, Andrew and Bennett; Frank H. Mitchell, Esq., of B. F. Mitchell & Son, this city; R. B.
Wood, bookkeeper at Messrs. Williams & Murahison's and his brother Dr. Thos.
F. Wood, Secretary of the State Board of Health; Col. Roger Moore, of Paterson, Downing & Co.; Wm. M. Poisson, bookkeeper with Messrs. Adrian & Vol-lers; Dr. Fred. Thompson, of Point Caswell, and his brother, Simpson Thompson; W. A. French, Esq., of Messrs. Geo. R. French & Sons; Jno.
T. Williams and his brother, Capt. R.
D. Williams, of Co. I, 18th N. C. T., both deceased; Jno. Kent Brown, Surveyor, and his brother, Thos. A. Brown; Chas. R. Banks and John Banks, his brother, and the Editor and Associate Editor of this paper. We write entirely from memory, and these are all of the names that we can recall at this moment.
There was also a female department of the school, and there are many ladies resident here now who were Mr. Meginny's pupils.

The remains were interred this morning from St. James' Church, thence to Oakdale Cemetery.

Mr. Meghinny was born Sept. 5th, 1812, near Baltimore, and was educated at Dickinson College, Penn. He was consequently in the 69th year of his age at the time of his death.

Memorial Day.
While our mind was dwelling upon the thought that to-morrow was the anniversary of the day upon which the spirit of the immortal Stonewall winged its flight, a day made sacred in the eyes and hearts of all true Southrons and consecrated and hallowed by the solemn memorial services of each returning year, our eye chanced to rest upon the beautifully expressed thoughts upon the subject in the Newbernian, which is so in harmony with our own feelings and sentiments that we reproduce it entirely. Our cotemporary expresses himself thus: Tuesday, the 10th inst., is Memorial day, a day hallowed and made almost sacred in the Southern heart by the memories of that still glorious that cluster around it; it is the day set apart to do honor to noble deeds and heroic sacrifices.
The Confederate Mausoleums are each a Southern Mecca and are sacred to the memory of high resolves and deeds of daring. Years may come and years may go, but the deeds of these sleeping heroes, whose blood ensanguined all the fields and whose bones whitened all the southern hills-tops and plains, will live in song and story till valor ceases to challenge the admiration of the brave and heroism is no more accounted a virtue.
But their sun has set, and the flag which waved so bonny and so brave, and which carried so long victory in its fold is fur-led.

"On fame's eternal camping ground Their silent tents are spread, And glory guards with solemn round The bivouac of the dead."

To Citizens Interested.
The ladies of the Association will be designated by badges and none will be allowed to enter the enclosure without this distinctive mark except the members of the different organizations forming the procession. Through the efforts of the Chief Marshal carriages will be provided to bring those ladies of the Association back to their homes who may have walked out, and have no means of riding back. This is a kindly consideration that is appreciated. The public are earnestly requested to fore-go for this one day in the three hundred and sixty five, the decoration of private lots, and give the flowers thus used to the adornment of the graves of those who fought and bled and died for them. The ladies of the Association do not think they are asking too much, or more than is due the heroic dead. Those, therefore, who have flowers are respectfully urged to devote them too this cause either in special tribute or by sending them to the school room in the rear of St. James Church, where the ladies of the city—one and all—who are in sympathy with the objects of the Association are invited to meet and assist in arranging garlands for the soldiers' graves.

LADIES' MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.
The Ladies of the Memorial Association wish it understood, and we are so requested to state, that no lady need be excluded from membership who has ever contributed in interest or money. Membership to the Association can be obtained by handing name and subscription (fifty cents) to the President, Vice President or Secretary and Treasurer.

A Body Servant's Testimony.
James H. Jones, the jailor, has two pistols which were given him by ex-President Davis. One is a Colt's pistol, the other a highly finished duelling pistol.
Jones was ex-President Davis' body servant for three years and was with him when he was captured. He denies the often repeated story that Mr. Davis had a dress when he was captured, and only a few years since published a denial of this current story.

The foregoing is from Saturday's News and Observer, and no doubt, caught the eye of the gentleman mentioned in the following paragraph which we clip from Sunday's News and Observer: Professor Frank M. Smith, of Knoxville, Tennessee, is stopping at the Yarborough House. He was a member of the last body guard which President Jefferson Davis had, and on yesterday had an interview with James H. Jones, who was mentioned in yesterday's paper as the body servant of President Davis.
Professor Smith found Jones to be in possession of much valuable information in regard to the trying times immediately preceding the downfall of the Confederacy. The trusted body-servant spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Davis, and thinks he has no superior anywhere.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1
Where, the infinitely wise and merciful Creator, to whose divine will we humbly submit, has seen fit to remove by death from earthly scenes and associations our beloved brother, fireman and worthy T. Searer, Henry Olandt, and whereas it is proper that we give expression to the feelings of the sad dispensation of Divine Providence has inflicted, that in the death of Henry Olandt, his friends and associates of this Union realize the painful truth that a seat he has been vacant in our company that he has fled to the entire satisfaction of every one, and that a memorial of the sad event our feelings and griefs a mourning, and that we resolve that the books shall be printed in honor of the death of his death and that his name and the name of the company wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.
Resolved, That we share in the affliction that has thus overtaken the relatives of the deceased, and offer them the assurance of our sympathy and condolence in this hour of their bereavement and distress.
Resolved, That a copy of this tribute of respect be sent to the family of the deceased as a token of our respect and veneration for the excellent character of a good man gone to his rest, and of the interest felt by his brother firemen in those he loved and cherished, and that a copy be sent to the daily papers for publication.

Driving a Lucrative Business.
ENERGY, PERSEVERANCE and square dealing are three great characteristics which go far towards the substantial laying of the foundation stone of success. The acme of Otterbourg's triumph has been reached. His labors for the past four years have not been without their reward. Otterbourg's CLOTH-ING is talked of in words of high commendation. Four years of steady, close observation to the tastes and desires of his large army of patrons, with the satisfaction of knowing that they were entirely pleased, was his reason—sufficient to cause the very needful decline in Clothing and Men's Wear in general. Otterbourg has sold goods close, very true, but friends, you have not the slightest conception of the amount of Stylish Ready Made Garments this popular House sends annually to the market. Take Wilmington, for instance. Two-thirds of her citizens, old and young, are supplied from the handsome "Iron Front Store." These features—Honest Goods, Fair Dealing, SMALL PROFITS, with TREMENDOUS sales, have established for Otterbourg's Men's Wear Depot a popularity as solid as ad-mant, and we wonder not at the lucrative business this House is now driving. THIS A GOOD TEAM—Dunbar's Report for April.
