Dr. Joe Person, Carter Co., N. C., July 17th, 1879.

Dear Madam:—I think medicine is the best that is now before the world for the cure of blood diseases. I have great confidence in it, and believe that it will do all that you claim for it. I have personal knowledge of the condition of my son, before he commenced your medicine, and I see you have remedied that he is cured. Go on, my dear friend, and see how you can comfort the condition of mankind, and all in your power for you among my friends. Yours respectfully,
Dr. W. H. BARKER.

No City Court to-day.
You can now buy Improved Heating and Cook Stoves at factory prices at Jacobs's.

Vegetables are getting cheaper and more abundant. Four days ago green peas sold for $2.40 per bushel and to-day they were off-red at $1 per bushel.

Many lose their beauty from the hair falling or fading. Parker's Hair Balsam supplies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness and is an elegant dressing.

Miss E. Karrer has just received a new supply of millinery, Tuscan and fancy straw hats, etc. Miss K. selects her goods with much taste and can offer as neat, stylish and fashionable a stock as there is in the city.

For General Cowan in General Lane's account of his return to command and duty with his old brigade in yesterday's editorial column, read General Conner. It was so written at first, and afterwards corrected in the proof, but the type seems to have preferred it the other way.

At the close of the Bazaar which will be in progress at the City Hall during the remainder of the week, a very handsome Afghan for a child's carriage will be raffled. The Afghan is the handiwork of a very charming little lady, and is a marvel of neatness and taste.

The steamship Regulator, after an absence of six weeks or two months in Philadelphia, undergoing repairs, put in an appearance yesterday morning thoroughly equipped for the summer campaign, with the addition of comfortable passenger accommodations.

Can't be Left Out.
Included in the catalogue of the most wonderful articles of the period is St. Jacobs Oil. The Hon. Leonard Swett of Chicago, pronounces it the most thorough conqueror of pain he has ever known.

Tripets.
Mrs. Joseph Chadwick, of Scott's Hill, Pender County, gave birth, on Friday last, to three well developed male children. The babes have since died but the mother is doing well.

Fine Opportunity.
The stock and store furniture of the millinery and white goods establishment kept by Capt. N. H. Sprunt at Exchange Corner is offered for sale. The stock is mostly new and will be sold together with the good will. See advertisement elsewhere.

Prohibition Meeting and Pic Nic.
We are requested to state that there will be a prohibition meeting and grand picnic at Long Creek, in Pender, on Wednesday, the 25th inst. A fine time is expected and a large crowd will be in attendance. Popular speakers will address the meeting. Basket dinners and music will add to the interest of the occasion.

Grand Commandery Knights Templar.
The meeting of the State Grand Commandery Knights Templar are in session this afternoon, [Right Eminent Grand Commander H. H. Munson presiding. There is very little to be done and it is thought that the Commandery will adopt a Constitution and a set of by-laws and then adjourn. It may be that a short session will be held this evening.

The Excursion To Day.
A large party, filling five cars, made up the excursion to-day to Flemington under the auspices of the First Baptist Sunday School. More than an hour before the time of the departure of the train they began to assemble, and they continued to arrive until the last moment at which time the cars were completely crowded. All seemed happy and in the best of spirits, and we sincerely hope that no accident may occur during the day to mar the festivities of the occasion.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States and Gulf States, fair weather, winds mostly southerly, stationary barometer, stationary or higher temperature.

The Correct Dates.

The Medical Society of North Carolina will meet in Asheville on Tuesday, May 31st, the Board of Examiners on Monday the 30th, and the Board of Health on the 31st. One of our Asheville exchanges has fallen into an error in stating that the Convention is to be held on the 23rd inst.

How to be your own painter: Buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at Jacobs's.

Henry Berry Lowery Again.
We hear it from good authority that Henry Berry Lowery, the outlaw chief, still lives and that he is now a Sergeant in the U. S. Army and is stationed some where on the plains in the far West. He left the Scuffletown section, about the time of his reported death, in a tool-chest and was taken out of the State by the way of Charlotte.

All of the outlaw band have either been killed or pardoned and if Henry Berry Lowery should decide to return to his old haunts there would be no legal hold on him. It is hardly thought however that he will ever return to North Carolina, for there are many citizens within her borders who owe him a little private grudge and who might take the first opportunity to square their score against the once powerful and dreaded monarch of Scuffletown.

A Little Girl Shot.
Yesterday afternoon, at Oakdale Cemetery, during the firing of the Wilmington Light Infantry over the graves of the Confederate dead, a small ball, about the size of a pistol-ball, struck little Eliza, the seven-year-old child of Mr. Jas. C. Munds, in the right thigh. The little one was with her mother, and as soon as the fire had ceased complained that she could not walk, when an examination disclosed the fact that she had been shot. She was immediately conveyed home and a physician summoned, who pronounced it as merely a flesh wound and one that would heal in a short time. The ball had become deeply imbedded in the thigh and will be left there, as it is thought it will cause no trouble.

The ball was undoubtedly fired from a pistol or an air-gun, and was most probably discharged by some thoughtless person, most likely a boy, in the crowd gathered around the enclosure. An attempt is being made to ascertain who fired the shot.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

The Art Gallery.
One feature of the Bazaar, the Art Gallery, is deserving more than a passing notice. The greatest pains have been taken by competent persons to render it attractive and pleasant in various ways. In one corner is a cosy old fashioned fireplace, surrounded by many old things of interest, and near by may be obtained ice-cold soda water. Here may be seen and heard the organ, which has been donated to be voted to some fortunate person. There is also, on one side, a tree of goodly proportions, from which, for a consideration, one is allowed to gather marvellous fruit, as tempting, doubtless, to youthful humanity as the old, old tree of knowledge, but the consequences resulting from this fruit, be they good or evil, let us hope will not all be laid on the woman.

An enticing stand of confectionery, of the best quality, occupies one corner of the room, and there are various comfortable seats scattered around, where one may carry sweets to the sweet, and enjoy both together.

In addition to this, the room is decorated with numerous engravings, &c., some of which are for sale, and a large collection of pictures, statuary, and curiosities numbered and catalogued for exhibition. The number of objects of interest gathered together show a thorough research, in all available sources, far and near, and the zeal which brought them together is to be commended. Some of these objects are genuine antiques of Attic origin, and bear plain and evident marks of ancient Greece; and others have as surely lain for long years beneath the earth's surface. Altogether, the Art Gallery is well worth a visit.

Go to JACOBI'S for Doors, Sash and Blinds, pure White Lead, Oils, Varnishes, Window Glass, all sizes. All at the lowest prices.

Personal.

Mr. George M. Smedes, of Raleigh, Mr. B. Cameron, and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Cameron, of Hillsboro, Col. H. B. Short and Mr. H. B. Short, Jr., of Flemington, and Miss Placide Englehard, of Raleigh, are in the city on a short visit.

Spoken at Sea.
Captain Patterson, of the Br. Barque Geo. Walker, which put in at Smithville on the 9th inst., reports having spoken in latitude 26° 36' North, long. 61° 06' west, the ship Golden Sea, of Southampton, bound from St. Thomas to Greenock.—All well and asked to be reported.

Shipped Foreign.
The foreign shipments to-day include the German brig Cremarty, hence for London, with 969 casks spirits turpentine and 889 barrels rosin, shipped by Messrs. Chess, Carley & Co., and the Norwegian barque Cito, for Rotterdam, with 3,100 bbls rosin, by Messrs. DeRosset & Co.

G. S. D. 390.
The braves of Wyoming Tribe, No. 4, Improved Order of Red Men, will celebrate the birth of their patron saint, St. Tammany, on the sleep of 12 sun of 11 Sun Flower Moon at the 8th run. The above Red Men nomenclature means that the Wyoming Tribe will celebrate the birth of St. Tammany, their patron saint, to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. All the Tribes in the United States and Sandwich Islands meet to-day and to-morrow, in commemoration of the virtues of St. Tammany, an Indian brave who fought under George Washington during the Revolutionary War.

Convention of Knights Templar.
Last evening P. E. C., A. Martin, by authority of warrant from M. E. Grand Master Benjamin Dean, of Boston, organized a State Grand Commandery of Knights Templar. There was no business of interest, except the election of officers, transacted. The following are the officers elected for the ensuing term:
Right Eminent Grand Commander—H. H. Munson, of Wilmington.
V. E. Deputy Grand Commander—Lee W. Battle, of Durham.
Grand Generalissimo—Geo. H. King, of Charlotte.
E. Grand Captain General—S. S. Everett, of Wilmington.
E. Grand Prelate—Rev. Dr. George Patterson.
E. Grand Senior Warden—James Southgate, of Durham.
E. Grand Junior Warden—F. H. Glover, of Charlotte.
E. Grand Treasurer—William Simpson, of Raleigh.
E. Grand Recorder—J. C. Munds, of Wilmington.
E. Grand Standard Bearer—W. R. Kenan, of Wilmington.
E. Grand Sword Bearer—D. J. W. Bain, of Raleigh.
E. Grand Warden—T. E. Bond, of Wilmington.

This morning P. E. C., A. Martin installed the officers elect after which the Convention adjourned.

Needed Action of Some Kind.
In addition to the accident elsewhere mentioned as happening to Mr. James C. Munds' little daughter yesterday, we have heard also, since our other article was written, of a lady, the wife of one of our highly esteemed citizens, having been struck with a pistol ball or missile of some kind, while standing on the platform within the enclosure of the Confederate lot, which penetrated three folds of the lady's dress, and inflicted a slight though painful contusion on her body. Now, this conduct calls for the most determined and energetic efforts on the part of the police authorities to investigate these outrages, and we hope the Chief of Police will make it his duty to investigate the origin and cause of such an outrage promptly, and not sleep until he finds out the daring perpetrator of this infamous act. If the hand of the law is not sufficient to take hold of the scoundrels let summary punishment be meted out in some other way. The people in this community are a law-abiding and long suffering people, and have submitted to outrages and indignities in the past, which no class of people with any manhood would ever endure again. We write as we feel, and are willing to go our individual length, and take the consequences, whatever they may be, in seeking out and bringing to punishment the scoundrels, who yesterday dared to invade the sanctity and solemnity of the place and the occasion, to perpetrate the devilish outrages referred to above.
