Mrs. Person—Dear Madam: I think your medicine is the best that is now before the public for the cure of blood diseases. I feel great confidence in it, and believe that it will do all that you claim for it. I have personal knowledge of the condition of myself before I commenced

It is asserted positively that Robertson's nomination will not be withdrawn by the President. Garfield seems to have inscribed upon his banners, "No comp."

The rush of emigrants to the New World shows no signs of abatement. It is rather on the increase. Two steamers from Liverpool for New York, sailed on Saturday with about 1,800 emigrants, most of whom are Scandinavians.

Anti Jewish riots are still the fashion in Southern Russia. It is stated that the whole Jewish quarter of the city of Kieff, known as Podol, has been burned and that the damage is estimated at $30,000,000(?). Crowds of Jews are fleeing into Austria. It must be a queer sort of Christianity, that of the Russians.

A dispatch from Washington states that Stanley Matthews was yesterday confirmed by a vote of 22 to 21, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.
Of the Democratic Senators Beck and Pendleton spoke in favor of his confirmation. A reconsideration is talked of.
We must confess that we do not understand the situation when such Democrats as Pendleton and Beck labor for Matthew's confirmation.

The unveiling of the Cowpen's monument was a grand affair. It took place on Wednesday. The crowd present is reckoned at 20,000. Senator Hampton spoke for the Southern members of the original thirteen States and Hon. T. W.
Higginson for the Northern States. The music was furnished by the Fifth U. S.
Artillery Band and there was a grand review of the South Carolina troops by Gen. Hunt, U. S. A., with several distinguished Southerners as his aides for the occasion. The Charleston News and Courier, with its usual enterprise, publishes a full report (ten columns), all of which seems to have been furnished by telegraph. It tells us that eight young ladies, descendants of the Cowpens heroes, assisted in unveiling the statue.
Gov. Jarvis, as the Governor of one of the old thirteen, was one of the Vice-Presidents.

The city prison is empty.

Paper collars are at a discount to day.

We have only two seasons now, Winter and Summer.

The thermometer climbed up to 95° in this office at 3.15 this afternoon.

Among the list of unmailable letters held for postage in the Raleigh postoffice is one addressed to Mrs. Charlotte Evans, Wilmington, N. C.

The soda fountains and ice cream saloons are doing a flourishing business today. Deep Rock is threatening to supercede iced lager as a Summer beverage.

A little son of Mr. Hansom Bowden fell from the limb of a tree day before yesterday and broke his collar bone. The little fellow though is getting along very nicely under the circumstances.

A camp meeting is in progress at the Camp Grounds about 12 miles below the city and is conducted by Rev. J. G.
Frye, pastor of St. Stephen's A. M.
E. Church. The steamer John Dawson makes regular trips to the Grounds.

At last the ornamental paving stones, which have been occupying considerable space on the sidewalks on Front street for the past few weeks, are being gradually removed and replaced in their original position.

A rain storm passed over the city this morning about 5 o'clock. There was thunder and lightning with it, although only about enough rain fell to lay the dust. We trust that the truckers were, however, benefited by it.

The Fish Case.
Justice Gardner did not render his decision this morning in the case of G. W.
Herring against F. M. James, a Health Officer of the city, which was tried yesterday. The Justice has withheld his decision until he can look up the law relative to the matter.

Injured Cow.
Yesterday afternoon a fine milch cow, the property of Mr. J. H. Grotgen was knocked from the railroad track at the foot of Harnet street. The cow was not killed but was so badly injured as to be unable to walk. The owner was notified by the city authorities to take the cow off the streets which he did this morning.

City Court.
Three half-grown colored boys were arrested by the police last night in the southern part of the city, for loud and boisterous talking and swearing. This morning they were arraigned before Mayor Smith who after a severe reprimand dismissed them. The Court then adjourned.

Masonic Matters.
Worshipful Master W. R. Kenan and Past Masters H. H. Munson and C. M.
VanOrsdell, of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, F. & A. M., have been invited by Worshipful Master W. H. Chadbourne and Past Masters Samuel Northrop and Charles H. Robinson, of Wilmington Lodge, No. 319, to assist them in conferring the Master Mason degree tonight.

Got His Man.
Sheriff Wallace, of Duplin county, arrived in the city this morning with a capias for Andrew Judge, colored, a fugitive from justice, from that county.
Judge stole an ox some two years ago and made his escape to this city. He was recognized about two weeks ago by a gentleman from Kenansville, who was cognizant of the theft, and who took steps to have him arrested and detained until the authorities of Duplin could get him. Sheriff Wallace left with his man for Kenansville this afternoon.

Shipped Foreign.
The Dr. schooner Carlton cleared today for Nassau with the following cargo shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Sons, to-wit: 33,145 feet of lumber and 33,550 shingles.

The Portuguese brig Mariana I, cleared for Lisbon with 800 barrels rosin shipped by Messrs. J. R. Blossom & Evans.

The Swd. barque Carin cleared for Hamburg with 3,230 bbls. rosin, shipped by Messrs. DeRosset & Co.

Another Wilmington Boy.
Rev. Jos. H. Foy, D. D., is a native of this city, and will be remembered by many ante-bellum residents. He was the son of Hiram Foy, Esq., now deceased, who was for a number of years Deputy-Sheriff under Sheriff Fennell.
We find in the Tarboro Southerner, in which section Dr. Foy resided for many years, the following complimentary notice, taken from the Kansas City Times:
"Among the many notable persons who are visiting the Capitol now, your correspondent yesterday met Rev. Dr. Jos. H.
Foy, the able, eloquent and popular pastor of the Central Christian Church in St. Louis, who is spending two or three days on a visit to Gov. Crittenden and family. Dr. Foy has recently had a testimonial at the hands of his congregation, which has seldom been given by his denomination to their ministers—having been called to the permanent pastorate of his congregation. During his stay in St. Louis he has established himself in the front rank of the ministers of that great city, as an original thinker, and a most eloquent and versatile preacher. The Doctor is a native of North Carolina, a State which has contributed much to swell the moral and intellectual forces of those States, which affect to look down upon her, and find him imbued with that pride of his native State, which is characteristic of North Carolinians, although he has won his largest honors in the West. He has been invited to deliver the annual address before the graduating class at Abingdon College, Illinois, in May, and the Christian College, at Columbia, Missouri, in June, and the students, friends, and patrons of these institutions, may expect a literary treat of rare excellence."

To acquaint suffering humanity with the fact that St. Jacobs Oil is the most beneficial remedy ever introduced, I consider a duty; this I have practically tested. For the past sixteen years I have suffered with rheumatism, and so severely that I was often robbed of my night's rest. A change of weather would have the most painful effect on me, for then I could move neither hands nor feet. I tried every known remedy, but of no avail; at last somebody recommended St. Jacobs Oil, and I concluded to try it, but with little hope for relief.
Having used hardly half a bottle, the pains diminished, and to-day I am well and hardy once more. The small sum of fifty cents had cured me.

THOMAS OTT, Boniface, Pa.

The Wilmington Light Infantry.
At the annual election of officers of the above named company held last night at the company's armory, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

Captain—Jno. L. Cantwell.
First Lieutenant—W. J. Gordon.
Second Lieutenant—J. C. Munds.
Junior Second Lieutenant—R. H.
Berry.

Ensign—W. H. Goodman.
It being understood that Captain Armand L. DeRosset would not allow his name to be put in nomination again, Col.
Jno. L. Cantwell was impetioned to consent for his name to be placed before the meeting as a candidate for the position of Captain. This Col. C. at first objected to, but his love for the old company of which he was the first Sergeant in 1853, now twenty-eight years ago, and afterwards the Captain from 1855 and until he resigned the position on the 4th of July, 1856 or 1857, overcame him at last when he finally yielded to the entreaties of "the boys," and is now once again the commander of the old corps of the W. L. I.
Col. Cantwell's name was placed in nomination by Captain DeRosset and he received the unanimous vote of the company. This veteran organization, we understand, contemplate an excursion on its regular Anniversary, the 20th day of May on the steamer Passport down the river. We hope they may have a jolly good time and realize all they expect from the trip. We are proud of this old organization; we only wish it could receive the proper encouragement from our citizens generally, and that more tangible evidence of the well wishes of the community could be seen than has been shown for the corps for some time past. In the language of "Old Rip" all we can add now is, "may it live long and prosper."

Many lose their beauty from the hair falling or fading. Parker's Hair Balsam supplies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness and is an elegant dressing.

The Bazaar and Festival.
The Bazaar and Festival was well patronized last evening and the many beautiful articles offered for sale were much admired. There are still left many exquisite toilet articles which are the handiwork of some of the ladies of this city. These articles attracted to-day the admiration of every one who saw them. The voting continues and stood at the close last evening as follows:

Toilet set—for the most popular young lady in Wilmington—Miss Josie Myers 41, Miss Loula Parsley 18, Miss Jamie Parsley 10, and so on scattering down to one vote.

Pair of vases—for the most popular married lady—Mrs. J. E. Lippitt 53, Mrs. G. G. Thomas 16, Mrs. Chas. H.
King 5, and several scattering.

The jewelry case was awarded to Miss Lettie Greene last evening, she having received the greatest number of votes.
The ballot was as follows: Miss Lettie Greene 183, Miss Josie Myers 103, scattering 12.

The Bazaar will close this evening and we would advise all of our citizens who desire to spend a pleasant hour or so to visit it.

Editors' Troubles.
If an editor omits anything he is lazy; if he speaks of anything as it is, he is mad; if he smooths down the rough places, he is bribed; if he calls things by their proper names, he is unfit for the position of editor; if he does not furnish his readers with jokes, he is stupid; if he does, he is a rattle head, lacking stability; if he condemns the wrong, he is a good fellow, but lacks discretion; if he lets wrongs and injuries go unmentioned, he is a coward; if he indulges in personalities, he is a blackguard; if he does not, his paper is insipid. In short, if he edits a paper properly, and sticks to truth and facts, he is a fool and doesn't know how to edit a paper half as well as his readers could.

Changes in the Mails.
The hours for opening and closing the mails will be changed, commencing on Sunday, the 15th instant. The Northern through mail will then close at 5:30 p. m.; Northern through and way mails and mails for Raleigh, at 5:40 a. m., and mails for the N. C. Railroad and the A.
& N. C. Railroad, at 5:40 a. m. The Southern mails will be ready for delivery at 7:00 p. m. The general delivery will be open from 5:30 a. m. to 7:00 p. m., and on Sundays from 8:30 to 9:30 a. m.

The Water Works.
The Water Works Company are pushing their work with all possible speed. For the past three days in the streets where the 6 and 8 inch pipes are laid the hands have averaged five squares per day. Tomorrow night the time allowed the company for excavating will have expired, and all work on the works within the city limits will cease for the summer.

Sunstroke.
The cause of sunstroke is, says the Practical American, an overheating of the blood which usually is the result, not so much of exposure to the sun as to an insufficient perspiration; many cases of sunstroke happen among laborers not exposed to the sun. If a man, whether in the sun or in the shade, is exposed to a temperature of say ninety degrees, and does not perspire freely, his blood becomes overheated, and he is in great danger of being attacked by that kind of prostration which is called sunstroke; because perspiration is, as it were, a safety-valve, which carries off superfluous heat; in fact, the amount of heat which, as it were, disappears in the act of perspiration is something startling when calculated in figures, according to the theory of latent heat of vapors.

When a man who feels oppressed by heat does not drink moderately cold water, but takes recourse to beer or something worse, he does not promote perspiration, but checks it; water is always the very best drink for men working in hot surroundings; a little oatmeal mixed in it has become very popular, and we advise to accustom it slightly, not with sulphuric or other mineral acids, as we have seen recommended—such acids check perspiration, while vegetable acids promote it. Best of all is lemon juice, citric or tartaric acids, and, if these are not obtainable, ginger, for want of better.

The Sunday Magazine for June Is peculiarly attractive in its literary and artistic departments, and brilliantly closes the ninth semi-annual volume. It is a publication which should be found in every household, for its literature is pure and healthy; it is always vivacious, and edifies while it entertains and instructs.
The 128 quarto pages are crowded with good things; among the most prominent articles are "A Peep at the Mormons"; "Country Church Architecture," by Joel Benton; "Experiences in Australia and Ceylon," by Philip Phillips; "The Modern Sunday-school Movement," by Charles B. Stout; "Adoniram Judson," by Rt. Rev. W. Pakenham Walsh, D.
D.; "The Methodist Ecumenical," by Rev. O. H. Tiffany, D. D. The above are profusely illustrated. "Out of the World," a charming serial, is continued and there are admirable short stories, sketches, essays, etc., etc., and poems of great merit. The miscellany is abundant and exceedingly comprehensive. The Rev. Dr. Deems contributes "Hard Places in the Bible," and "The Home Pulpit" contains a sermon, "Salvation to the Utmost," by the late Rev. W.
Rudder, D. D. There are also "The Invalid's Portion and Thoughts for the Afflicted," "Temperance Talk," "Glimpses at the Religious World," etc., etc. The engravings are excellent and very numerous. The annual subscription is $3, a single copy 25 cents, sent post-free. Address, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.
