C W YATES—Pianos

The cotton receipts at this port to day foot up 117 bales.

At 3 o'clock to-day the thermometer in this office stood at 74°.

Don't catch a cold. If you do, let it go as quickly as you can.

The whizzing and sizzling of the soda fountain is heard in the land.

In onion there is more strength now than at any other season of the year.

Excursion managers are gathering up their energies for the summer campaign.

High-toned people are those who converse at the top of their voices.

The road to wealth is open to all, but it is a narrow gauge, and rough riding.

You can now buy Improved Heating and Cook Stoves at factory prices at JACOBI'S.

Our friends visiting Smithville tomorrow can get a good fish dinner at Mrs. Emma J. Davis'.

There seems to be a general looking around for summer quarters; even the fly has put on his specks.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

Rev. Dr. Patterson, of this city, is to preach in Christ Church, Raleigh, this evening on "Christian Education."

The Passport resumed her regular trips this morning. The hour for leaving has been changed from 9:30 to 9 o'clock.

The members of the Wilmington Light Infantry are requested to meet at their armory in full uniform to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock sharp.

Phillis Moore, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millis this morning upon the charge of assault, and in default of payment of fine and costs was committed to jail.

Those who are so fortunate as to be the owners of past due city bonds are notified to present them for payment at Capt. Savage's office as interest on them will not be allowed on and after June 1st.

Pistol Shot

Last evening, about 8 o'clock, some one fired a pistol at a window in the residence of Mr. Turner, on the corner of Eighth and Castle streets. The ball lodged in the window sill in a room in which the family were seated. The inmates became very much alarmed and left the premises. Was it an attempt at assassination?

The Colored Republicans.

The colored Republicans of this State were in council in Raleigh on Tuesday. Geo. W. Price, of this city, called the Convention to order and came very near being elected Chairman. He was one of the speakers, as was also Geo. L. Mabson and Jos. C. Hill, of this city. The proceedings will be found in full on the fourth page of this issue.

How to def your own painter: Buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at JACOBI'S.

Pic Nic and Prohibition.

We are informed that the pic nic and prohibition meeting appointed to take place at Long Creek on Wednesday next, the 25th inst., promises to be large and interesting. Pender county, we are assured, will turn out handsomely. Good speaking, social enjoyment, and good eating, will be the order of the day. A considerable number from the city are expected to go up by steamer. The ladies of Pender are warmly giving their countenance to the proposed meeting and will be on hand in large numbers.

District Conferences.

The District Conferences of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist E. Church, South, convene as follows for the present year:
Hillsboro Dist., at Hillsboro, July 7
Wilmington Dist., at Elizabeth-town, July 7
Fayetteville Dist., at Carthage, July 14
Raleigh Dist., at Cary, July 21
Charlotte Dist., at Monroe, July 28
Statesville Dist., at Newton, July 28
Greensboro Dist., at Kernersville, July 28
Salisbury Dist., at Tabor, Aug 11
Helby Dist., time not yet appointed.

The Wilmington Light Infantry will form ranks, ready to march, at 8 o'clock in the morning; so says the Captain commanding.

Bro Bonitz, the Census Bureau at Washington, D. C., has published the population of Goldsboro at 1933. Has not the Census Bureau made a hades of a mistake?

A Fire

The roof of the stable on Captain Joo. T. Rankin's premises, corner of Front and Walnut streets, caught fire this afternoon about 3:30 o'clock, and would possibly have ended in a large conflagration, but for the timely aid of citizens, among whom were some of the Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, who rushed to the scene of danger, and mounting the shed, had the fire soon under control, and extinguished it in a few minutes. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been a spark from Mr. Alex. Oldham's mill, situated across the street from the scene of the accident. The damage amounts to little or nothing.

City Court.

An unsophisticated individual from the rural districts was arrested yesterday for being D. and D. He slept in the Guard House, but was released with a word of warning.

Lewis Green was arraigned for an assault upon Frank Hargrave, a depraved woman, with a white skin. His Honor Mayor Smith, for this offence, passed sentence of $1.00 fine—or, five days in the City Prison.

The same defendant was then arraigned upon the charge of resisting the police. Five dollars fine—or ten days in the C. P., was the sentence in the last named case. In default of payment of fines in each case, the defendant was escorted below.

Assault with a Deadly Weapon.

Last night, about 8:30 o'clock, George Davis, colored, knocked Josh Rush, also colored, in the head with a club or stick. The following are the particulars as near as we can get them: Rush is engaged to be married to a sister of Davis' wife but for some reason Davis dislikes Rush and tried to prevent the marriage. Last night Rush called on his fiance who lives at the house of her brother-in-law, on Fourth, between Hanover and Brunswick streets, when Davis walked up to him and struck him with the stick. Rush was carried to his home and medical assistance summoned. We understand that Rush's skull is fractured and that he is in a very critical condition. Davis was arrested and gave bond of $50 this morning for his appearance before Justice McQuigg's Court when Rush is able to appear and give evidence against him.

The Simon Gregg Case.

The examination of the witnesses in the case of Simon Gregg, colored, charged with being an escaped convict from the South Carolina penitentiary, was continued in Justice McQuigg's Court to-day. The two men who were guards at the penitentiary at the time that Gregg is said to have escaped, identified the prisoner as the escaped convict and one of them described him accurately before seeing him. When Officer Bryant read the requisition to Gregg before arresting him he tried to escape. He is said to have been convicted of the larceny of a cow in 1877 and at the time of his escape was on a detail near the penitentiary cutting wood. During the examination of the case this morning a little passage of words was had between the Justice and Mr. M. Bellamy, Gregg's attorney. Mr. Bellamy thought the Justice discourteous and resented the language and manner used towards him.

Mr. McQuigg threatened a fine for contempt, whereupon Mr. Bellamy told him that he could enter the fine, if he chose, and notified the court that he would have the man tried in a legal way under the writ of habeas corpus, and that he (the Justice) had no warrant of law for the trial or examination of a prisoner who was arrested under a requisition from the Governor. Justice McQuigg committed the prisoner to the Sheriff to be turned over to special officer James Spann, who has the requisition for him. Spann says he will leave with his man to-night.

The New Catholic Church.

The dedication of the new Catholic Church at Laurinburg will take place on Sunday next, on which occasion a special train will be run from this city to Laurinburg, leaving here at 6:15 A. M., arriving at Laurinburg at 10:30, leaving Laurinburg 4:15 P. M., and arriving here on the return at 8:30. Tickets may be had of Messrs J. H. McGarity, L. Brown and Dan O'Connor and it is probable that there will be a large attendance.

The Church has been built by the members of the Roman Catholic Church resident at Laurinburg and is now ready for dedication to the worship of God. High Mass will be held in the Church at 11 o'clock, the celebrant being Rev. Father Gross, of this city, and immediately thereafter the dedicatory services will be held. In the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, there will be vespers. The Laurinburg Enterprise tells us that the new Church has been handsomely finished and suitably furnished with all the conveniences for the proper observance of the forms and ceremonies peculiar to the Catholic mode of worship, and reflects credit upon the small membership residing in that town upon whom the expense of constructing and equipping has almost entirely devolved. The building inside measures 32x50 feet between the front doors and the partition separating the vestry from the church. The vestry measures 10x20 feet inside. Both rooms are well ventilated—the front room having three large windows on either side and two in front while the vestry has three large windows and a door opening on the South side.

The Twentieth.

To-morrow will be the glorious 20th day of May, a day made memorable in the annals of North Carolina history, by the fact that a brave band of Carolinians, inspired by a love for liberty, and imbued with a Spartan heroism and determination, assembled in the county of Mecklenburg one hundred and six years ago, and then and there on the 20th of May, 1775, declared with a boldness unknown in the history of this country—that time that the people of America, the white men of this favored land, who were the citizens thereof, should and of right ought to be free and independent of the British yoke. Their glorious example was followed one year and two months later by another band of patriots who made a similar declaration, signed and issued it. To this last document, however, the movers and signers thereto no doubt caught their inspiration from the Carolina declaration, which was the first movement of the kind in the land. And now the Legislature of North Carolina, one hundred and six years after that important event, has declared that the anniversary of that ever memorable day shall hereafter be considered a legal holiday, for which the small boys, the banking institutions and the members of the Produce Exchange are very thankful in that it affords a pleasant day of rest and recreation. We wish we could include in the above category editors also—but then there is no rest for the wicked.

In this connection we will mention the fact that the gallant boys of the old W. L. I. will celebrate the twenty-eighth anniversary of their organization to-morrow by an excursion on the steamer Passport down the river.

The Excursion To-morrow.

Those who want a mouthful of salt air can get it to-morrow on the excursion to be given by the Wilmington Light Infantry to Smithville and the Forts on the steamer Passport. We are assured that the gentlemen of the committee have made every arrangement which has occurred to them for the benefit of their guests and we trust that the attendance may be large. Ortman's string band will furnish music for the occasion and there will be excellent opportunities for dancing. At Smithville the Wilmington Light Infantry will have target practice. The boat is to leave her wharf, foot of Market Street, at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. John Lohse, 51 Degraw street, S. Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: For quite a long time I have been a sufferer from rheumatic pain, which increased in spite of all remedies that I tried. Having heard very high praise of the St. Jacobs Oil, I concluded to make a trial. My left arm feeling too painful to endure a severe rubbing, I took a piece of flannel, soaked it well with the St. Jacobs Oil, and put it around my arm as tightly as I could bear it. After the first night of this trial, I commenced to experience relief, and after two days all pain vanished, leaving a permanent cure.
