The change of schedule on the Carolina Central goes into effect to-morrow, the 25th. The day train will leave hereafter at 9:45 a.m. and arrive at 6:45

The state of things in this vicinity now would suit one of Wilkins Micawber's temperamentand habits very much. But a local can't always wait for something to turn up. If something doa't turn up he is expected to turn things up and get an item of some kind anyhow.

Relics of the ar.

The Schooner Wave has been wrecking the wrecked blockade runner Georgiana McCall, which went ashore near the bar during the war. The Wave ar rived in this city yesterday with a portion of the Georgiana McCall's machinery and is unloading at the foot of Orange street.

Medico-Legal Report.

We understand that the medico-legal report made by Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Raleigh, in the DeJarnette trial, will be published in the next issue, the June number, of the North Carolina Medical Journal. We shall look for this paper with much interest, confident that in the eyes of those who are able to judge of the subject it will maintain Dr. Grissom in his views as regards DeJarnette's sanity.

The Purceil.

We are glad to learn that Mr. B. L. Perry, the enterprising proprietor of the Purcell House, who a few months ago took charge of the property temporarily, has succeeded so well that he has purchased the business, and has become the permanent proprietor. He contem-
