Shrimps in market yesterday.
Strawberries five cents per basket.
The regatta season is fast approaching.

The cotton receipts at this port today foot up 185 bales.
The Passport will resume her regular daily trips to-morrow.
A young man in pressing his own suit should be careful not to wrinkle that of the girl.
'A bird in the hand is worth two' dollars and a half, if it happens to be a canary.

Men love chances so well that they would rather win fifty cents than earn two dollars regularly.
A spring overcoat would not have been uncomfortable to the wearer at an early hour this morning.

Eighteen hundred and eighty-one does not resemble a pair of lovers on a sofa, because there is one at each end.

Model wives formerly took "a stitch in time;" now, with the aid of a sewing machine, they take one in no time.

Somebody is quoted as saying that an apt quotation is as good as an original remark. In many cases it is better.

The old lady who mended her husband's trousers with a potato patch is now smoothing her hair with the comb of a rooster.

To-morrow being Ascension Day, there will be services in the Lutheran Church at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the German language.

Gen. R. E. Colston has so far recovered from his recent attack of sickness as to be able to appear on the streets, we are pleased to note.

Criminal Court, His Honor Judge Meares presiding, convenes in special session at the Court House in this city on Monday next, the 30th inst.

Captain Guilford L. Dudley, private secretary to His Excellency Governor Jarvis, and Col. Paul Faison, of Raleigh, arrived in the city this morning.

We are glad to see Major Jno. W. Dunham, who has been confined to his bed from sickness for several weeks past, once more at his post in the clerk's office of the Criminal Court.

About one hundred of the good people of Smithville came up on the Passport this morning. Some of them spent the day in the city shopping while others picniced in the beautiful grove at Hilton.

The authorities are having the plastering repaired in the Court Room at the City Hall. In addition to this it is proposed, we understand, to give the entire inside of the building a fresh coat of paint during the month, the contract for which, however, has not yet been let out.

The valued expressman Mr. J. D. Kline, of Sheboygan, Wis., had a violent attack of rheumatism, disabling him almost from moving. I purchased, said he, a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, and poured it on a woollen cloth and applied it to my hip. I expected to be laid up a month. Great was my surprise to find myself completely cured in three days, and have not been troubled since.

Is there an ordinance against drays being driven faster than a walk on the streets? If so, would it not be well to enforce it before an accident happens? We saw some little boys make a narrow escape from being run over by a horse and dray on Front street a few afternoon since, and the driver of the dray seemed perfectly indifferent in regard to the matter and kept his horse going at the same rate of speed, without attempting to rein him, even after the incident which came near being an accident, referred to above.

A Bloated Body
does not always belong to an inebriate. Kidney troubles will cause bloating, but Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has never failed to remove it.

C. C. & Co's. Red Oil.
Capt. N. F. Thompson, who has for the past three years been experimenting in trying to find a coloring for high test oils, has at last succeeded and is now turning out some of the prettiest red oil we ever saw. The oil is first filtered, then colored, and is always of the highest fire test. Capt. T. will guarantee every gallon of this oil and is proud to know that Chess, Carley & Co's. red oil, colored by himself, is the first ever made in the South.

The Revised Version
There has never been a book printed which has caused as much excitement as the New Revision of the New Testament. Orders are pouring in from the country for it and the retail trade at the book stores here has simmered down to the sale of the Revised Version. If the book does no other good and is a "cheat" as some old-time Christians say, it has caused many to open the lids of the Testament who have for years never seen one. It has accomplished much. Nearly every one is either reading it or has bought one to read. In the past three days over 1,000 copies have been retailed in this city and hundreds of copies have been sent to the country.

The Wilmington Light Infantry.
We are glad to learn that the members of the Wilmington Light Infantry are to make a strenuous effort in behalf of a revival of interest in the Company. They want money to buy uniforms and this is their most pressing need. They say that they can get as many members as they can get uniforms and that if they can only secure enough of the latter they will get their ranks full and keep them full. Their object is to secure about $500, as this amount will guarantee them, including those who will purchase their own uniforms, a list of at least sixty active uniformed members. One-fifth of this amount, we understand, is already pledged, and there is some talk of a festival next month whereby they hope to secure a large portion, if not all, of the balance. To do this they will need, of course, the active cooperation of the ladies, and this, we feel sure, will not be wanting. The plan is not yet fully developed, but it will be brought up for action at the next meeting of the Company.

Robbery of the Carolina Rice Mills—The Thieves Caught and in Jail!
Last evening, just before the night police force came on duty, Officer Marsh Walker observed two colored men lurking in a very suspicious manner about the back entrance, on Chestnut street, to the Carolina Rice Mills. He reported the facts to Officer John O'Brien who relieved him. Officer O'Brien went around to the mill and found it open and discovered that one of the men had taken out a bag of rice and that the other was following with a candle. The Officer entered the mill and the men dropped everything and took to their heels. One of them ran up stairs and jumped out of the second story window on a shed below and got away, while the other, who had secreted himself, was caught, and started on his way to the Guard House when he broke and ran, followed closely by the officer. During the chase the fugitive made two attempts to cut officer O'Brien with a large knife and finally succeeded in making good his escape. The case was promptly reported at the station house and Sergeant Robt. Green, with a detail of men, went directly to the man's house and re-arrested him.

The man who escaped last night by jumping out of the window was recognized as P. W. Smith, colored, the engineer of the mill and the man who was arrested proved to be William Daniels, colored, a huckster in the market. The man had a preliminary examination before a magistrate this morning and were committed to jail in default of a justified bond of $200 each. Smith, the engineer, had the entire confidence of his employers and had never been suspected, notwithstanding the fact that it was known that he was going on. Daniels was also tried for an assault upon the officer with a deadly weapon and required to give bond.

Many lose their beauty from the hair falling or fading. Parker's Hair Balsam supplies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness and is an elegant dressing.

Magistrate's Court.
Francis and Jane Ontlaw, mother and daughter, were arraigned before Justice Millis this morning upon the charge of being nuisances on the public street, cursing and swearing and committing other acts of disorderly conduct. The defendants, who are both colored, were bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court.

Ascension Day.
To-morrow is known as Ascension Day and as such will be observed by the Roman Catholic, Episcopal and Lutheran congregations in this city. As its name imports, it celebrates the Ascension of Christ into Heaven before the eyes of his disciples in Bethany, after having bestowed upon them the power to work miracles, cast out devils, heal the sick and speak with new tongues or languages.

Postponement
The excursion to the blackfish grounds on the Passport, advertised for to-morrow, has been postponed until Tuesday on account of the easterly winds and high seas which have prevailed for the past two days. This will no doubt be a great disappointment to many, but as Capt. Harper knows just where the rocks are, he will take the fishermen out on Tuesday and by special agreement with the fish, they will bite like mad dogs on that day.

Joint Services.
As will be seen by the notice published below the congregations of St. James', St. John's and St. Paul's Churches will all worship together to-morrow, Ascension Day, at St. John's, Dr. Watson and Mr. Ambler having cancelled the appointments made by them for that day for the purpose of accepting the invitation to St. John's. The services at this Church will be as follows: Morning Prayer and Communion at 11 o'clock and Evening Prayer and Confirmation at 8 o'clock. Bishop Lyman is expected to be present. The following notification from Dr. Watson and Mr. Ambler to their respective congregations will explain fully:

The Bishop of the Diocese having appointed Ascension day, Thursday, May 26th, for a visitation of St. John's parish, the Rectors of St. James' and St. Paul's, in response to an invitation to a joint service extended by the Rector of St. John's, believing that they consult the wishes of their congregations by doing so, have agreed to recall the appointments made by them for that day and to invite their congregations to unite with the Bishop and themselves in the services at St. John's.
A. A. WATSON,
T. M. AMBLER.

Fatal Accident—A Terrible Death.

Mr. Randolph Williams, aged about 24 years, a son of our friend, Thomas M. Williams, Esq., of Brunswick county, met with a most distressing and heart-rending death on yesterday, about 1 o'clock, near his father's place, two miles from the town of Smithville. Mr. Williams had been plowing at a neighbor's, about 1 1/2 miles from his home, and was returning, riding a mule. When within about a half mile of his house a dog on the roadside jumped at the animal, which caused it to shy, throwing Mr. Williams off, entangling the trace chain around his right leg. The mule started off, dragging the unfortunate young man for about a half mile. Mr. Williams managed to get hold of the mule's tail and kept his head from the ground for some time and sang out to a woman on the road side to "stop the mule, or I'm a dead man." An effort was made to catch the animal, but it dashed off at full gallop through the woods for about two miles from the house and returned, still dragging the lifeless body of the unfortunate young man. When the animal was caught and the leg of Mr. Williams extricated from the trace chain, it was discovered that all of his clothing, save one sock and a small piece of his pants leg, had been torn off, and that four of his ribs were broken. His back was perfectly black from the bruises he received, and some portions of his body were badly torn. He died a terrible death, and one which makes one's blood run cold to think of. A coroner's inquest was held yesterday over the body, and the remains of the deceased were interred this morning. We tender our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved parents and relatives.

Ger. barque Atlantic cleared to-day for Trieste with 3818 barrels rosin, shipped by Messrs Patterson, Downing & Co.

Bishop Lyman will arrive in the city to-night and will be the guest, while here, of Col. John Wilder Atkinson. He will remain until Monday, having four churches in this city to visit.

Golden Hair and the Two Bears.
It is said by those who are qualified to speak that the entertainment now being prepared under the management of Prof. Chase, "Golden Hair and the Two Bears," which is to be presented at the Opera House next Monday evening, will surpass anything of the kind ever before seen in Wilmington. There will be 75 voices in the chorus and new and beautiful scenery and elegant costumes, some of which are called magnificent, have been prepared for the presentation of the piece. The same operetta, we understand, has been produced at Augusta, Atlanta, and other Southern cities with marked success in every instance.
The box-sheet will open at Heinsberger's on Friday morning and those who want choice seats should be there early.

To Be Ruffed.

The beautiful organ donated to the Rectory Club of St. John's Church by the manufacturer, Mr. E. P. Carpenter, of Worcester, Mass., and a gentleman in this city, is to be raffled soon for the benefit of the Club. There are to be two hundred chances, we understand at $1 each. The instrument has been pronounced as being a very fine one, as we have previously stated here, by those who are fully competent to judge and is worth every cent of $200.

Duplin Superior Court.

The Superior Court of Duplin county, Judge Graves presiding, is in session at Kenansville this week. In an acquaintance with this tribunal of fifteen years, we never saw so few of the people of the county in attendance upon any session as were present this week. The fact is every man, white or black, who has a piece of land to cultivate is working with might and main to make a crop, and, absolutely, none were at court but those who were compelled to be there. The State docket is not large, but an important case, (the burning of the courthouse and records at Kinston, Lenoir county, for which the Clerk of that Court stands indicted, but which was removed to Duplin for trial,) will take nearly or quite the entire week. There are between forty and fifty witnesses to be examined in the case, and that, with the large array of the best legal talent in the State who have been engaged both by the State and the defense, will necessarily consume much time.
