All the men who get up early are poor lark unless his necessities compel him to do so. The great, the rich, and the good Anonymous writers have strange fan-

The ladies are making further innogreat pleasure to recommend to suffering

We were glad to receive a visit this forenoon from Mr. Wm. Lumb, of Boston, who is here on a short visit to "our mutual friend," Wilkins Micawber Roddick, Esq. It is the second time within the past two years we have had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Lumb here. He came South with his commandery of Knights Templar on the pilgrimage to Richmond and participated in all of the recent festivities incident to their stay in that city. Mr. Lumb says that the citizens of Richmond outdid themselves; that the reception tendered them took the shape of a perfect oration and that there is not one of the pilgrims but will always remember the occasion with a feeling of intense gratitude and pleasure.

The Invitation to the Pirates.
As is known to many, a few days since dramatic club in this city, extended, on behalf of the club, an invitation to the Charlottees who last week so successfully presented the "Pirates of Penzance" in that city, to visit us here in Wilmington and give a performance for the benefit of the citizens. The Charlotte Observer publishes Mr. Bradley's letter in full and our readers will see by the comments it makes that it is likely the invitation will be accepted. We clip from the Observer and present herewith both the invitation and the Observer's comments: The following letter, which speaks for itself, was received here yesterday: WILMINGTON, May 23d, 1881.
Col. Frank Coxe, President, &c.: DEAR SIR:—At a meeting held here to-night, the undersigned, as secretary, was instructed to extend through you a cordial invitation to the Charlotte Amateur Dramatic Club to visit this city at their earliest convenience and allow our citizens the pleasure of witnessing their presentation of the "Pirates of Penzance." From the notices of the press and the comments of the individuals who witnessed the recent performance in Charlotte, we are assured of the exceptional excellence of the entertainment, and trust the amateurs quest and give it in Wilmington. Every effort will be made to make the stay of each and every one of the young ladies and gentlemen pleasant, should they come, and we sincerely hope they will not disappoint us. We can promise you a large and enthusiastic audience to witness the performance, and want our visitors to spend the next day with us at Wrightsville sound, returning to town that afternoon, and to attend a ball, given in their honor at Germania Hall at night.
We beg that you will use your best endeavors to induce them to come, and, in fact, we are resolved not to admit of a declination.
Very respectfully,
J. G. BRADLEY, Sec.
It will be seen that this invitation is directed to the "Charlotte Amateur Dramatic Club," to present the "Pirates of Penzance" in Wilmington, which, though there are members belonging indifferently to both organizations, can be given under the auspices of the Gouard Club. This difficulty, however, Gouard Club thinks can be obviated by a joint meeting of both clubs, which he proposes to call in a few days, he being the president of both. The invitation is a broad and liberal one, and it is thought an acceptance, if otherwise convenient, can be agreed upon without reverting to our Wilmington friends for a more specific one.
The truth of the matter is, there is not half force enough to do the work. The number of carts employed in cleaning the streets should be doubled and the streets be cleaned at least twice each week. The warm weather is now upon us and our judgments must be received as timely.

An excursion to this city and from here to the Blackfish Grounds, to take place early in June, is being projected in Fayetteville by the members of Cumberland Lodge, No. 5, K. of P.
We hope the ministers and the congregations of the different churches in this city will not forget to-morrow to petition for copious showers of much needed rain for this city and vicinity.
The Grand Chapter of Masons meets in Asheville on Tuesday next. Messrs.
H. H. Munson, W. R. Kenan, C. M.
VanOrsdell, Samuel Northrop and J. I.
Macks, delegates from Concord Chapter in this city, will attend.
Bishop Lyman's Visitation.
Bishop Lyman visited St. John's Church on Thursday night, (Ascension Day) and confirmed two persons, both young ladies. Last night he was at St.
Mark's, where quite a large class, four males and eight females, were presented and confirmed. To-morrow morning he will visit St. James' and to-morrow evening St. Paul's, at both of which churches he is expected to preach and confirm.
The Cape Fear.
The steamer D. Murchison, due here last night, did not arrive until 3 o'clock this afternoon. She struck a shoal last night at Morehead, six miles above Elizabeth, and had to lighten a little before she got off, which was at 3 o'clock this morning. As may well be imagined from these facts the Cape Fear is again very low and there is no fun now in being captain or chief engineer of a floating palace. At Fayetteville we are informed that there is heavy timber floating off rapidly.
Had About It.
The Fayetteville Examiner complains very bitterly of the irregularity of the mails between Fayetteville and Wilmington. The latest papers it had received from this city last Wednesday afternoon were dated the previous Saturday and Sunday. Bro. Bryant gets his dander up (he is very excusable) and declares that "a lame man could walk from Wilmington, lead a dog and bring mail matter as fast as it is brought to us under present arrangements."
The Fayetteville mail goes, we believe, via Lumberton, and we see no reason why a paper printed here one afternoon should not reach Fayetteville within thirty-six hours at the latest.
We Invite Them.
We have it in contemplation to get up a little excursion on our own hook to which the Mayor, the Board of Aldermen, the Board of Audit and Finance and the Board of Health will be invited.
The excursion party will start from the lamp-post in front of the REVIEW office and will visit a number of the streets and alleys and by-ways in the city, first taking in the nastiest and filthiest of all, Water street and the alleys which make into it. We will guarantee a surprise for some of the gentlemen alluded to as we will show them some things of which they cannot possibly dream now. We will point out to them localities where not only the eye but the nose as well is disagreeably assailed. Of course the gentlemen of the various boards we have alluded to are unaware of these facts, as otherwise the said facts would not exist.
We know that the present administration has started out with the very laudable intention of reducing expenses to the very minimum and that they are going in for the most economical form of government which may be had for the amount invested but we respectfully suggest that, as the question arises as to whether prohibition prohibits, so may it as well be asked if economy always economizes.
The truth of the matter is, there is not
as timely.
