The Empress Engenie has definitely decided upon the final resting place of her late husband and son. She intends to built a church on the estate which she has bought, some fourteen miles from Chislehurst, and thither the two tombs are to be transferred.

Conkling is in Albany, working like beaver. all dignity is gone and the lordly Roscoe has descended to the hard pan of hard begging. He is doing it personally but it seems to have but little effect. The Administrationists are aggressive and a deadlock seems imminent.

The past week, says the New York Sun, was another remarkable week of immigration, and the probabilities are that the total arrivals for May will exceed 70,000. Such a number for a single month would be beyond all precedent; it would surpass by more than 6,000 the arrivals for the entire year of 1877.

A dispatch from Dallas, Texas, says that the wheat harvest has begun in that section, and that the quality is better than at any time during the past twelve years. The yield will average 18 bushels to the acre. The prospects of all the crops are good, but the general acreage will be smaller than last year on account of the scarcity of labor.

Our readers will be grieved to learn . that ex-Gov. David S. Reid was stricken with paralysis last Monday at his home, Wentworth, Rockingham county, and that/his recovery, at last accounts, was considered impossible, the paralysis hav ing extended to his entire body. Gov. Reid is the last of the old regime; the last of the governors of ante-bellum days of the State when merit and worth and incorruptible integrity were indispensable to those who were elevated to high official positions.
