strested and Locked Up.

A seaman by the name of Patullo belonging to the British brig Elizabeth Scott, lying near the steamer Passport's wharf, was arrested this morning and locked up by order of the British Vice onsal at this port for using obscene ladies. The ocearrence toolk place, we understand, just before the departure of und the Passport on her regular trip to-day, and the lady passengers were unwilling listeners ard witnesses to the indecent conduct of the unraly sailor. We, the Reporter referred to in Mr.
W. H. Shaw's card which appeared in yesterday's Revirw, do not desire to cast any reflection upon him, but bold to our opinion that he stated on Tuesday afternoon to us, that the prisoners would not noon to us, that the prisoners would not be sent to Raleigh for two or three days. We sent o Rat seigh hor it would be peosisile

Bishop Lyman in Fayettevilie:
The services in St. John's Church, Fayetteville, on Sunday last, were very Fayetteville, on Sunday last, were very beautiful and very impressive, both at beautifal and very impressive, both at morning and evening services. In the morning and evening services. In the forenoon the prayers were read by Rer. forenoon the prayers were read by Rer Dr. Watson, of this city, and Rev. A. A. Dr. Watson, of this cith, and Rer. A. A.
Benton, of Rockish. Bishop Lyman preached a very able and instructive ser mon from Timothy, 4c. 16 r., after which the candidate for the Priesthood, Rev John Huske, was presented by his father Rev. J. C. Huske, D.D., Rector of St John's. All of the clergy present united with the Bishcp in the "laying on o hands,", after celebrated.
The services at night were very interesting. The Rector baptized one person, an adult, and nine candidates were presented to and confrmed by the Bishop. she sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. The sermon was preached by Watson from Romans 8c. 18 r .
The Raleigh News and Observer casionally states that the new service uniform adopted by the authorities is highly approved by the military in the State, and that it will be worn by all the State, and that it will be worn by all the companies attending the Yorktown Cel companies attending the Yorktown ebration in October.
We are informed by Gen. M. ©P. Tay. lor, who commands the Second Brigade, that he does not know one company in his command who have decided to wear the new service uniform. Gen. Tayle also informs ns that while in Raleig last month he cooferred with Geeneral Manly, of the First Brigade, who agreed with him that it would be unwise to cause the military to purchase the new uniform at this time, and said that he did not know of a company in his command which had decided to wear cit to Yorktown. Gen. Taylor says that beth he and Gen. Manly were of the opinion that if this matter was constantly bought to the attention of the companies in the State through the newspapers it was calculated to miskead the companies and produce dissatisfaction, and they both agreed that it was advisable to let, the
