

THE DAILY REVIEW.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r. WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1881

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as Second-Class Matter.

Ex-President Davis has written to Col. Lamb, and acknowledges the error in his figures as regards the Confederate force in the last fight at Fort Fisher.

Washington City had a severe thunder storm last night. A large number of buildings were unroofed, among them Ford's Opera House and the City Hall building.

The weary balloting at Albany draws its slow length along. There is not the faintest indication, as yet, of a successful result.

Ex-Gov. Seymour is reported as saying to a Chicago Times correspondent of the contest at Albany. "I see in it a conflict between elements whose struggles foretell the early dismemberment of the party."

The exports of domestic produce week before last were of moderate proportions, their total being $,909,059 against $9,781,293 the same week last year.

There is a fearful railroad accident recorded in Mexico. A troop train went through a wooden bridge over a ravine at Mailpals, not far from the City of Mexico, and the loss of life was fearful.

Last Saturday's Macon Telegraph says "Prof. H. E. Colton, geologist of the Bureau of Agriculture, and also special agent of the census on building stones, slates and marbles, left last evening for Ghattanooga, and thence to Georgia and North and South Carolina, to investigate the resources of those States in the character of stones mentioned.

Protests against the action of the Republican Executive Committee in endeavoring to enter that party against prohibition are now on record and in print from Bishop Hood, of the A. M. E. church in this State, David A. Jenkins, Esq., late State Treasurer and a member now of the Executive Committee, and Hon. Wm. A. Smith, of Johnston, a leading Republican and an ex-member of Congress.

What will the American Bible Society do with the revised New Testament? The Rev. Dr. Taylor, formerly secretary of the society, says in the Independent that it will "wisely and necessarily refuse to be forced into any measures for the premature adoption and publication of a revision which has yet to endure the double test of critical scholarship and of popular approval."

THE HAPPY REPUBLIC.

The great advantages possessed by the United States over Europe, says the N. Y. Sun, are forcibly shown by Mr. Edward Atkinson in a table in which he compares our burdens with those of the older civilization.

For the purpose of his comparison he takes Europe as a whole, with the exception of Russia and Turkey, the half-civilized nations, and omits Alaska from the United States. The rest of Europe contains about 225,000,000 inhabitants, who occupy 1,546,802 square miles of territory.

Since 1848 the debt of Europe has nearly trebled, and is still increasing, whereas our debt is now less than it was in 1865 by over a thousand millions of dollars.

The national expenditures of Europe were $2,282,800,000 in 1880, or an average to every person of $10.15.

The standing armies of Europe number over 2,100,000 men, besides the still more numerous reserves, who may be called into the field at any moment.

Is it any wonder that the people of Europe, witnessing our prosperity and envying our advancement in their industry, are now crossing the ocean at a more rapid rate than ever before to share in our good fortune?

Fortunately, we have a plenty of room for the immigrants who are now crossing the ocean at the rate of half a million a year.

How to get Well.

Thousands of persons are constantly troubled with a combination of diseases. Diseased kidneys and costive bowels are their tormentors.

ROUYNHINE

The mileage of telephone wires in the United States is estimated at 60,000 miles.

Mr. Pillow, of Jacksonville, Fla., has shipped North 30,000 quarts of strawberries this year.

A Roman year was sold in Cincinnati last week for $128,998. It was a large slice of Eden Park that was so designated.

Wong Tze Fung, an elderly Chinaman in San Francisco, recently saw a live turtle lying uncomfotable on his back in front of a restaurant, and having purchased it for $15 had it conveyed to a wharf and thrown overboard.

"Yes," said the tramp, "they talk about the charitable institutions of Boston. Now a man can go down to the Hawkins street home and get a sapper and lodging, and he's got to saw a foot of wood to pay for it."

The World for 1881.

THE WORLD for 1881 will be the best and cheapest newspaper published in the English language on either side of the Atlantic.

With no pretenses surpassing any ever before manufactured even by Hoe & Co., with new and unequalled typographical and business facilities of all sorts, and with a better organized telegraphic correspondence throughout the world than that of any other American journal.

Its Five Minutes With the News of the Day The World meets and keeps pace with the increasing demands made by rapid transit, the telegraph and the telephone, on the time and attention of business men.

Its daily cable letters from London bring the World to the breakfast tables of the New.

In its Wall Street Gossip and its Items for Investors, taken together with its accurate, candid and absolutely impartial Financial Article, The World daily presents an unrivalled picture not only of the true condition of the multitudinous enterprises in which the country invest their savings, but also of all the fluctuating influences exerted upon those enterprises by the speculations and the speculators of the Stock Exchange.

No man who owns or expects to own an interest in any corporate property can afford to miss for a single day the information daily and exclusively given in The World, not only as to the natural and legitimate course of affairs affecting stock values, but also as to the plans, schemes and movements of the "ins" and out of Wall street to affect those values.

The World contains also every day the freshest, fairest and most instructive notices of everything new and interesting in the realm of art, literature and of social life.

As the only metropolitan morning journal published in the English language which maintains an unswerving fidelity to the enduring great principles of the Democratic faith in politics, The World for 1881 will be found, where for the last five years The World has been found, absolutely loyal to Democratic principles; absolutely independent of all persons, cliques and factions within the Democratic party.

The World will maintain the cause of the Union against sectionalism in all its forms, the cause of good government against corruption in all its forms, and the cause of the people against monopoly in all its forms.
