MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY FOR

SCROFULA
 NEVER FAILS.

It Will Cure if Fairly Tested.
 It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result.
 I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there for two months, with no better result.
 On returning home from the Institute, I was advised to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I immediately procured a bottle, and began to use it. My sores soon began to heal, and the pain of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spirits fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in-debtedly to the remedy. It is mild as a pur-gative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sores in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be more generally used for the cure of scrofula, and in all cases found that the remedy already made would commence to result, and for this alone it should be used regularly until an effectual cure is effected. Nothing should prevent regular use of the use of the remedy and it should be used at the proper time. I would recommend it to all who are suffering from scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you and give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and will ever be ready to give my obligations to Mrs. Joe Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and believe in my advice. I am, respectfully, JOHN M. MORRIS.

 Another death by lightning.
 A distressing accident is reported to us as occurring near Clarkton, on the Carolina Central, during the prevalence of the thunder storm on last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. C. C. Powell was struck by lightning and instantly killed.
 She held her child in her arms at the time, but the little one escaped unhurt.
 The Hog Cholera
 We learn that the cholera is making sad havoc with the hogs in the neighborhood of Rocky Point, and are asked, "What is a good preventive?" If any of our readers know of a preventive or an efficacious remedy and will inform us we will gladly publish it for the general good. Our impression is that a valued friend at Whiteville furnished a specific several years ago, which we published in the Review at the time, but are unable to locate the date now.
 The happy owner of "The Spencer Pharmacy," Spencer, Mass., Mr. O.
 Weatherbee, writes: My customers speak very highly of the great German remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, it having always given satisfaction. One of them, Mr. Henry Belcher, has been greatly benefited by its use in a case of severe rheumatism and he refers to it in terms of highest praise.

The Military Excursionists.
 The Sumter Light Infantry, Captain W. R. Delgar commanding, arrived here by the W. C. & A. train from Sumter this morning at 6 20 o'clock. They were met at the depot by the Wilmington Light Infantry, Captain John L. Cantwell commanding, and escorted by the W. L. I. to their Armory at the City Hall where breakfast and other refreshments for the inner man were served to the military guests. There was a plenty of cool lemonade and so forth on hand, which after a night of heat and dust on the cars were no doubt appreciated by the tired travellers to their full extent.
 After the refreshments were served, and a smoke and a stroll, the line was formed about 8.30—the W. L. I. in front as escort, who were preceded by the drum corps of the Wilmington Light Infantry, the whole under command of Captain John L. Cantwell—and proceeded down Third until the line reached Market street where the column marched down Market until they reached the foot of that street, where the steamer Passport was lying in wait for them, when the whole command embarked for Smithville and the Forts below. Quite a number of civie visitors accompanied the visiting military to this city and went with them down the river. The whole number of visitors, both civie and military, numbered about 85 souls and of these the military had 34 rank and file.
 The officers of the Sumter company are as follows:
 Captain—W. R. Delgar.
 1st Lieutenant—R. D. Lee.
 Senior 2nd Lieutenant—A. J. Aued.
 Junior 2nd Lieutenant—Marion Sanders.
 O. S.—C. E. Bartlette.
 In addition to the civilians mentioned above General E. W. Moise and General G. Richardson accompany the excursionists. It was our intention to publish an entire list of the members of the visiting company, both rank and file, as we did on their previous visit, but the time was so short before the steamer's departure that we were unable to get the entire list.
 The crowd on the Passport was greater than we have ever seen it before, the boat being deeper in the water as she moved off than we had ever noticed on any previous occasion.
 The full complement of passengers allowed by law (290) was on board. The Custom House officers were on the wharf and on the boat being their duty man-fully, and refused to allow any more than the number mentioned above to embark on board the steamer. The consequence was, there were many who were disappointed and had to be turned back, and among them several ladies, which was regretted very much by all who felt an interest in the party of pleasure seekers.
 General Richardson, happening to arrive a little late, found that he too had to be counted out, but the General embarked at once on the little steamer Elizabeth, which started shortly after the Passport, and will reach Smithville only about an hour after the larger party of excursionists We wish the visiting military a jolly good time, and as for the boys of the W. L. I., well, they all know how we feel toward them, having been one of "the boys" ourself a few years ago. The excursion promises to be a success in every way. The weather is propitious for a pleasant day, and we trust that on their return to the city every one will declare himself or herself highly delighted with the day's enjoyment.

Distillery Burned.
 We are sorry to learn of the destruction by fire, this morning, of the Messrs Love's turpentine distillery at Armour, on the Carolina Central Railroad. The particulars are meagre as we can only get the fact of the fire and the loss, also, of 100 barrels of resin. The fire was probably an accident.

More Damage by Lightning.
 A rather vague report reaches us from Brunswick county that the residence of Mr. William Ohlman, in Brunswick, was struck by lightning on Sunday afternoon, which tore off one corner of the house and carried away a post on the piazza and stunned or injured to some extent every inmate of the building at the time.
 Mr. Chinnis and a Miss Hewitt, however, are the only persons injured whose names our informant could give. The latter named was reported still speechless at last accounts; her injury is more severe, it is thought, than that of any of the rest.

Two Belligerents Taken In.
 Salem Beasley and A. L. Brown, two "gemmen" of African descent, engaged in a fist-cuff fight over in Brooklyn this morning which resulted in Brown's being made to embrace his mother carth, so to speak, while the other belligerent was on top of him plying him with well-directed blows about the face and head, when a policeman chanced along in that locality and took them both under his protecting wing and escorted them to the Guard House, where they are now safely ensconced, awaiting the pleasure of Mayor Smith, who will interview the two sable hued "gemmen" upon the subject matter of their little difference to-day.

Coming to identify him.
 Sheriff Driscoll, from Jefferson county, Georgia, is expected to arrive here in the morning for the purpose of identifying J.
 H. Williams, alias Obadiah Ross, arrested yesterday on the streets of this city by Officer T. O. Bunting, for the alleged murder of one Nathaniel Cern-wall, at Bartow, Georgia, in the month of December, 1877. If Williams is Ross, then we hope Ross will be hanged, if his guilt can be established. But if Williams is Williams, and no other person, then we trust he may find a speedy release from durance vile and be allowed to walk out of the jail a free man, as he no doubt will. But we fear, alas! for human immorality and its consequent depravity, that the man arrested in the poor deprived and hardened creature who took his fellow being's life. The chain of circumstances is very strong in favor of pointing to the prisoner as Obadiah Ross, the alleged guilty man who assisted in the foul murder referred to above.

As True a Manifestation from God to Man as was ever Published or Spread on the Pages of History After one of the most heart-rending sacrifices as ever burned through the bosom of any of his creatures, I fear I would sin against our Father of Light and Might and Power and Glory, and against Christ Jesus, his well beloved Son, the King, and Monarch, Ruler and Governor of our heart's blood and soul's love and our only alternative; and also against the eternal wisdom, fortitude and fellowship of the Holy Ghost, to keep hid in my bosom any longer from my neighbor, meaning every son of Adam now breathing under the canopy of Heaven, the following, as it is well remembered, thirteen years ago, the 18th of this month, July, as sad news of the kind as ever penetrated this city, State and Continent, a man shaming his wife in a mistake for a robber or murderer, as was truly stated at the time. About two weeks before the accident happened we had one end of our house rented out; it was broken into one night and several things taken from the inmates, and we found a fence rail under our window. We had a fastening over the bottom sash and the thieves could not get in. It alarmed me so I loaded up a large Colt's revolver brim full with a ball and flattened up some very large shot, and determined if the thieves paid us another visit of the kind I would give them a warm reception.
 The morning of the accident I was roused up, felt certain I heard people in the house, looked down stairs, and was certain I saw several people; I woke up my wife and told her there were people down stairs. She jumped out of bed. I got my revolver; felt certain I had seen two persons, my wife where she got out of bed, and the other person closing on me, I thought aiming for my life. I nerved myself up with all my might, and shouted "there you are." No answer. I fired. The supposed murderer and robber proved to be my own dear wife. "It's me that's in it," she said; "John you have finished me, lay me down on the bed to die easy." Great Heavens! any kind of a death would be a thousand times more welcome to myself than what had happened. I ran down the street to the church for the Priest; he was out of town.
 I next went for our family doctor; he was also reported not at home. I next inquired for Dr. Love. When I delivered my business, his good wife, noble soul, shouted out with all her might, "Dr. get up, a man has shot his wife in a mistake." Dr.
 Love by name, and Love by nature, cut the ball out of my wife's back, after passing through her breast, and her breast was tore up bad with all the flat shot. Dr.
 Love, under the guidance of Divine Providence, worked as faithful on her as the Morning Star in the firmament. The second or third day myself and sister thought she was going; we prayed with all our might; her sister left the room like a flash of lightning. Glory be to God her face blazed up the most glorious I ever saw any human face. After that I had good hopes she would get well with God's help, and was not disappointed. The Lord has spared us one to another, living monuments of his mercy.
 The next Whit Sunday morning, about 1 o'clock, I was awakened with a good knock on my breast over my heart; I looked up, and glory be to God I saw as plain as we see the noonday sun in the firmament, the Holy Spirit in the form of the Queen of Heaven. I praised the Queen of Heaven as quick as my tongue could go.
 I plainly saw the vision light on a picture of the Crucifix, kiss the wounds on the hands and feet, and when the vision came to the heart I saw one glorious flash of unity, which filled me up with glorious admiration. For a short time I could not speak to prove to the world the truth of the vision. When Pius IX, of happy memory, called the Vatican Council, I believe in my soul I was driven home from my work. I stated the glorious vision in a letter intended by me for the Council. When I finished the letter, so help me good God, I got as helpless on my limbs as a child twelve months old. The Jewish people was scandalized in our dear Saviour, on account of the humility of his station in life; said is not this the carpenter, the Son of Mary, now for the eternal glory and unity in the world made flesh by the power and operation of the Holy Ghost in the womb of the blessed Virgin Mary, and opening the port of eternal glory for all his true followers.
 I ask all good men to think well on all of this, as I would sign, seal and deliver it with my heart's blood for the greater glory of our soul's love, Christ Jesus, our King, our Crown, our Power and only alternative—one King, one Crown, one Hope, one Power, one Heart, one Blood, one Soul, one Love.
 May the Eternal Unity of the Father, Son and Holy Ghost animate all our hearts and souls in time and eternity.
