MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY FOR
SCROFULA
NEVER FAILS.

It Will Cure if Fairly Tested.

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result.
I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with.
After returning from the Institute, I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing property. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a pur-gative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sores in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sores are healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the remedy already made would commence to renew, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I have many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, in my advice.

It is more fashionable than ever for ladies to "go a-fishing" this summer. As very few women chew tobacco, they can hold the "worrums for bait" in their speaking and as compared with that of the other stars visible, enormous, and

A Happy Hit.
A fortunate young red-headed farmer named Alexander B. McCrossy, of Somerville, Tenn., drew $50,000 in the June drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery.
He immediately collected his money from M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., and resumed plowing. Who will be the next?

the Religious Instruction of the Young as it Regards the Future of this Republic." The public are invited. 1t.

There are some crimes so brutal and depraved a nature that they should never find publication in the columns of a newspaper. One of the most disgusting of this class was heard to-day before Justice Millis. It is simply unfit for publication and even this remote reference to it may need an apology.

WASHINGTON, IND.—One of the ablest lawyers of the state, Col. Samuel A.
Taylor, of this place says: I do hereby certify that I suffered very much from rheumatism and neuralgia during the Fall of 1889, and tried many remedies but with little if any good results. I had heard of St. Jacobs Oil, and concluded to try it; more as an experiment than with any hope of good results. I can with great pleasure commend it to others, for the reason that it cured me.

River News.

Capt. Roberts reports a rise of fifteen inches in the upper Cape Fear on the shoals, near Fayetteville, and a rise of two feet in the lower Cape Fear below Cedar Creek. Captain R. also informed four inches since the rise, both in the upper and lower part of the river.

Accidental Drowning.

We learn there was a case of accidental drowning at Mr. John A. Mc-Dowell, Jr.'s, landing, at Court House-Falls, on the river, on Monday evening last. The victim was a young colored man about 20 years of age, whose name we could not learn, and the accident occurred, it seems, by his own persistence in walking down the bluff to the falls after being cautioned against it. He fell over the falls into the river and was not seen any more until his body was recovered yesterday afternoon.

Not the Man.

Sheriff Driscoll, of Jefferson county, Ga., arrived here this morning to identify the man who had been arrested as one of the murderers of Mr. Nath. Cornwall, of Bartow, Ga., an account of which has been published by us. It will be remembered that the party arrested on suspicion denied that he was the man and claimed persistently that his name was J. H. Williams, that he was from Lenoir county, and that he came here in search of work. These assertions have been confirmed, to a certain extent, Sheriff Driscoll, after a careful scrutiny, stating that Williams is not the man, Obadiah Ross, whom he is after.

The resemblance, though, between the two, as stated by Sheriff Driscoll, is something wonderful, about the only difference being as to height, there being actually three inches difference in the height. So near is the resemblance that Sheriff Driscoll says that, had he met the prisoner walking in the streets of Savannah, he should have claimed him as his man at once and without hesitation. Of course Mr. Williams was at once discharged from custody.

Anti-Prohibition Meeting.

Between 30 and 40 white people, and about 150 colored, assembled at the City Hall this afternoon to effect a permanent organization of the anti-prohibitionists for the approaching campaign.
H. E. Scott, Esq., President of the Liquor Association, called the meeting to order.

On motion of H. Brunhild, Esq., a committee of five, consisting of C. P.
Lockey, R. W. Nixon, Jno. Pleasant, J.
F. Stalter and Geo. W. Davis were appointed by the chair upon permanent organization. After this committee retired a committee of five, upon motion of N. Mayer, Esq., was appointed by the chair to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting on prohibition.
The Chair appointed upon this committee N. Mayer, P. L. Bridgers, Jas.
Lowery, Emanuel Nichols and Geo.
Robinson. This Committee also retired to prepare the resolutions, when, upon motion of Captain J. M. McGowan, Geo. L. Mabson was invited to come forward and address the meeting, which invitation was accepted and Mabson addressed the meeting in a short but forcible speech. He said nothing about politics but addressed himself to the question at issue.

On motion of E. F. Martin, T. M.
Gardner, Esq., was requested to make a speech during the absence of the committee. 'Squire Gardner then came forward, but, unlike the previous speaker, he trenchanted upon politics, concluding his remarks as soon as the committee on permanent organization returned.

The committee on resolutions made their report first, but we are totally unable, owing to lack of time and space, to furnish them our readers this afternoon.
The committee on permanent organization reported for permanent President, H. E. Scott; Vice Presidents, H. Brunhild, William Johnson, A. Weil, Elijah Hewlett, white, and Jas. A. Lowrey, J.
C. Hill, Sam'l. Oden, Jordan Nixon, taries, J. M. McGowan, Jno. Haar, Jr., white, and Geo. W. Robinson, Jno. H.

Brown, colored; Sergeant-at-Arms, Jno.
Steljes, white, and E. F. Martin, Anthony Gales, colored.

Both committee reports were unanimously adopted. Mr. Scott, permanent President, was addressing the meeting at the time we were compelled to close our report.

Welcoming the Military.

We unintentionally omitted to state yesterday, in our report of the arrival here of the Sumter Light Infantry, that Mr. Edward A. Oldham did the honors for the W. L. I., delivering the address of welcome. Mr. Oldham was brief but to the point. He said:

Capt. Delgar and Gentlemen of the Sumter Light Infantry:
To every officer and private of your honorable command, I extend, in behalf of the citizens of Wilmington and the members of our own Light Infantry corps, a most hearty welcome, coupled with a desire that your presence in our midst and your annual encampment at Fort Johnson may be attended with the purest pleasures and result in the cultivation of new friendships and the formation of new associations.

The latch-string of the Cape Fear people always hangs outside to every Southern soldier led in historic grey, within whose woof is woven a beautiful story of noble, sufficient and undying patriotism; but when that grey envelopes the forms of the sons of our nearest and dearest sister—the Palmetto State—then do we feel constrained to not simply leave outside the latch string of our hospitality, but to open wide the door and giving their hands a hearty Carolinian grasp bid them enter and become our guests. I again extend to you, gentlemen, the warmest greetings of the Cape Fear people.

The response was delivered by Capt.
Delgar in a neat little speech in which he referred to the three former occasions upon which he had had the pleasure to thank the Light Infantry for their expressions of good will and unbounded hospitality, and he did so again with feelings of increased gratification, and in behalf of his company he would extend thanks to the Wilmington Light Infantry for their hearty greeting, together with the best wishes of his own company.

Haunted Me.

A Workingman says: "Debt, poverty and suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost."—Christian Advocate.

Women are said to have stronger attachments than men. It is evinced in
