MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY FOR
SCROFULA
NEVER FAILS.
It Will Cure if Fairly Tested.
It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result.
I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result. After returning from the Institute, I was permanently cured by Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not experienced more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sores in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sores are healed, to remove the cause of its effects. It should be taken regularly by all means. I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the sores already made would commence to return, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and it is my advice I am, respectfully, Kittell, N. C. JAMES A. MORRIS.

Hog Cholera.
Here are some remedies for hog cholera, furnished in response to the little article published by us a few days ago: One farmer keeps his hog trough well supplied with ashes, salt and sulphur; another thinks that corn boiled in wood-ashes or potash is a prevention; another has used petroleum, externally, sprinkled on their backs, and internally, with success in preventing the disease; another found a cure in charcoal in slops, and still another recommends spirits turpentine and soft soap. "You pays your money and you takes your choice." Messrs. Coyer & Campbell, of Waterloo, Ind., write: Mr. J. Walker, of this town, suffered with rheumatism for fifteen years. After trying a great many remedies without experiencing even relief, he was induced to use St. Jacobs Oil, which completely cured him. He states that he feels like a new man.

Unpleasant Perspiration.
The unpleasant odor produced by perspiration is frequently the source of vexation to persons who are subject to it.
Nothing is simpler than to remove this odor much more effectually than by the application of such costly unguents and perumes as are in use. It is first of all necessary to procure some of the compound spirits of ammonia, and place two tablespoonsful in a basin of water.
Washing the face, hands and arms with this leaves the skin as clean, and sweetly fresh as one could wish. The wash is perfectly harmless and very cheap.

A Branch at Durham.
Capt. R. M. McIntire, of this city, will open a branch dry goods house at Durham, on or about September 1st. He will go North next month to purchase the stock for that house as well as for the establishment here. The Durham branch will be located in a handsome new building, 25x100 feet, with an elegant plate glass front, and with the arrangements of the interior perfected after plans furnished by Capt. McIntire.
Mr. Willie H. Muse, for several years past employed in the house here, will have charge of the Durham branch. We wish both Capt. McIntire and Mr. Muse much success in the new undertaking.

Habeas Corpus Case.
The petition for the writ of habeas corpus in the case of John McKoy, charged with a nameless crime, was argued before His Honor Judge Meares at the Court House at 10 o'clock this morning, or perhaps we should say the case came up for a hearing and several witnesses were examined, all of whom were men of respectability and standing. Among those who were called to the stand during the progress of the trial were Messrs. T. H.
Johnson, Jno. F. Garrell, T. P. Sykes and T. A. Watson, all of whom gave the prisoner at the bar a most excellent character, while some of these witnesses when asked about the general character of the prosecutor, Rachel McKoy, declared her character to be very bad indeed, as far as their knowledge extended. By agreement between the Solicitor, Col. B. R.
Moore, and the counsel for the defense, Messrs. Russell & Ricand, the Judge granted a motion to adjourn until half past 4 o'clock this afternoon in order to allow both sides to summon more witnesses.

The Court met at the time named above but the lateness of the hour precludes the possibility of our giving any further account of the trial in this issue.

Accident to Maj. Hill.
We are sorry to learn that Maj. Jas.
H. Hill, formerly of this city, but now baggage agent for the Atlantic Coast Line, with headquarters at Richmond, met with a painful accident in that city on Saturday night. The Dispatch says that about half-past 9 o'clock, in attempting to raise one of the windows in Col. Pope's office, he lost his balance and fell headlong to the area below, a distance of about twelve feet, receiving a severe cut on the back of the head, besides being severely bruised about the body. He was taken up and carried back into the office, when a physician was summoned, who rendered the necessary medical aid. He was subsequently removed to Mrs. Mayo's, corner Main and Seventh streets. His injuries, though severe, were not considered serious.

City Court.
Daniel Dickson, a burly square shouldered darkey, originally from Brunswick county, created quite a disturbance upon Dry Pond, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock last night, so much so that the police were called upon to interfere and it then took three of them, with another party who was pressed into service besides, even after knocking him down with their clubs and tying him, to carry him to the Guard House. This morning he was arraigned before Mayor Smith upon the charge of disorderly conduct and resisting the police. The defendant declared to His Honor that he knew nothing about it, that he was in liquor, or rather the liquor in him, and he remembered nothing about what transpired.
His complaint to the Court was that his paramour was unfaithful to him—strange complaint. It was at the latter's house that the disturbance was created.
The officers who made the arrest testified that defendant was so violent when they reached the guard room that they were compelled to put him in irons. The Mayor said $15 fine with the alternative of thirty days in the City Prison. His Honor, however, remitted ten days of the imprisonment afterwards in consideration of the punishment the defendant received last night while resisting the police.

At 7 o'clock to-day the thermometer at the Signal Station here stood at 75; at 11 o'clock at 85, and at 3 o'clock at 87.
The maximum temperature to-day was 87, against 85 for same day last year.

Thermometrical.
The temperatures reported at 3 o'clock to-day are as follows: Wilmington, 86; Key West, 89; Punta Rassa, 85; Jacksonville, 88; Savannah, 87; Charleston, 86; Charlotte, 82; Augusta, 92; Montgomery, 79; Atlanta, 77; Pensacola, 90.

On Wednesday.
A grand family excursion, under the auspices of St. Thomas' Catholic church, will be given down the river on the steamer Passport on Wednesday, the 27th inst. The public are invited and a good time is guaranteed to all who attend. There will be music and refreshments and everything will be as pleasant as could be desired.

Appropriate.
The following is floating around among our exchanges, and so well suits this heated condition of the weather, that we adopt it: When Mercury is playing among the nineties it Mars the pleasure of existence, and we feel as though we might Diana minute, and as though we needed something to Bacchus.
If we have Centaur family into the country it is not such a Ceres matter, for we can manage to Pan out somehow or other. But if a fellow has several little Cupids to take care of he is in a bad fix.
In a case of that kind I find Minerva failing, and Juno yourself that it does in Vesta fellow with solicitude.

The President's Condition.
The news from the President is that he is better—that is, the reports are more encouraging. Secretary Blaine telegraphed it to Mr. Lowell, the Minister at St. James', London, at 8:30 o'clock this morning, and the reports since then are to the same effect. An incision was made just below the other wound and this has seemed to relieve the flow of pus which had accumulated near the interior termination of the wound. The twenty-first day is looked upon by many as the crisis of a gunshot wound and Saturday was the 21st day since the bullet of the assassin had sped on its course.

A Perilous Position and A Courageous Act.

On Saturday evening last, between 7 and 8 o'clock, while a crowd of youths were in swimming in the river between Chestnut and Walnut streets, some of the lads were playing in and around a boat which was in close proximity to the end of a flat, where the current of the river was running very swiftly, indeed; and to add to the swiftness of the current a steam tug which had just landed near this place was turning her propeller over which made the current still more rapid.
Suddenly the little yawl was turned over and partially sucked under the flat, and with it went a youth by the name of Tucker Savage—a son of Mr. Jno. H.
Savage—who disappeared entirely from view. Another of the young boys who was in bathing at the time and playing around the boat was Whitcomb McIlhenny, a son of Colonel Thomas C. McIlhenny, aged about 15 years.
No sooner did young McIlhenny see his companion disappear than down he went under the flat, with the fearful current running at the time, in the bold endeavor to rescue Savage. After going half way the length of the flat beneath the water our young hero found his friend and did his utmost to release him from his perilous position, but the current was too strong for him, and after exerting all the strength he possessed in trying to drag him out, he finally was compelled to relinquish his undertaking and come out, and reported to the crowd on the wharf that the current was so strong he did not have the strength to pull his comrade out. Fortunately for young Savage the strong current which carried him under the flat carried him still further under another flat, which was lying end on to the first one, and out between the last flat and the little steam yacht Nellie, when one of the men on board the yacht snatched the boy from a watery grave by catching hold of him as he floated out and landed him safely on the deck of the little steamer.

The River.
The Cape Fear is extremely low. The steamer D. Marchison, due here on Friday night or Saturday morning, did not reach here until Sunday a. m. She cleared again to-day, but with little hopes of getting through to Fayetteville.
