The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 13 bales.

The nearer the bang comes, to the eyebrow the more fashionable is the wearer.

The man who gets most angry at a newspaper squib is usually the fellow who borrows the paper in which he reads it.

Study your interest. You can now buy Cook Stoves at factory prices at JACOBI'S.

It is altogether unnecessary to search the rocks for the antediluvian man; he is here, and can be found in the store that don't advertise.

Rev. Dr. Bernheim returned to the city this morning from Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus county, where he had been to place his son at school.

Section 221, Endowment Bank, K. of P., will hold their regular meeting this evening at Castle Hall, Bank of New Hanover building, at 8 o'clock.

The following are the readings of the thermometer to-day at the Signal Office in this city: 7 a. m., 80; 11 a. m., 87; 3 p. m., 88. The maximum temperature to-day was 89 degrees, against 80 for the same day last year.

A colored boy, Wesley Spencer by name, threw a rock and struck a small boy on the head this morning, leaving a gash two or three inches long from which the claret flowed quite copiously. Spencer was arrested and lodged in the Guard House.

Mr. Alexander Morris, while residing at No. 192 Washington street, Brooklyn, last Spring, was stricken with severe rheumatism. His sufferings were of the most excruciatingly painful character. A friend recommended the great German remedy, and he became thoroughly relieved after applying it several times. He is now an earnest believer in the power of St. Jacobs Oil.

Wd thank Mr. S. G. Hall for a copy of the "Acts of Assembly relating to the City of Wilmington, N. C., from 1739 to 1881, inclusive, and the ordinances of the city in force on the 6th day of June, 1881." This compilation was made by Mr. DuBrutz Cutler and Mr. F. H. Darby, City Attorney, under direction of the Board of Aldermen. The work, which was done by Mr. Hall, is in every way a neat and creditable job.

Brain & Nerve.

Well's Health Renewer, greatest remedy on earth for impotence, leanness, sexual debility, &c. $1, at druggists. Depot Jas C. Munds.

The Life-Saving Station.

From Lieutenant Chas. F. Shoemaker, U. S. Army, we learn that the Life-Saving Station will be located at the North-east end of Smith's Island, or Bald Head, which is as near the end of the Cape as it is prudent to place it. There is to be one building, 40x20 feet, erected. The Station is to be supplied with all modern life-saving apparatus and appliances and will be manned by a keeper and six men. Mr. D. Steinson, of New Bern, who has the contract for constructing the Station, accompanied Lieut. Shoemaker down the river on yesterday and will proceed at once with the work.

The Sixth Street Bridge.

The bridge on Sixth street which spans the railroad track has been undergoing a thorough repairing and overhauling for some weeks past. Most of the timbers were rotten and had to be replaced by new ones. Hezekiah Reid, who has been doing the work, tells us that the bridge will be ready for use by to-morrow.

Retributive Justice in Pender.

We learn from reliable authority that a young man residing near Moore's Creek, in Columbia township, Pender county, was visited on the evening of the 10th inst. by a party of seven or eight young men of the same neighborhood, who brought with them a paper retracting certain defamatory remarks it is alleged he had made reflecting upon the character of a young lady living in the vicinity. This the young man refused to sign, whereupon they administered to him a severe flagellation. He afterwards signed a paper acknowledging having circulated the reports, but whether he retracted them or not we were unable to ascertain. An intense excitement prevails throughout the community, as the lady in question is of unblemished reputation and is connected with the best families of the county by whom she is held in high esteem. The people of Pender, an order-loving and law-abiding people, almost universally endorse the conduct of the young men who thus avenged the outrage upon the young lady's fair fame. We deem it advisable to suppress all the names of the parties for the present.

The Picnic at "Spring Garden."

The above-named place is situated in the midst of a beautiful oak grove, in a sequestered spot, about three miles westerly from Rocky Point depot. It is just the place in which to have a picnic, "and don't you forget it," and the people of that vicinity know how to get one up, and you might as well remember that, too. Picnics are held there annually, and yesterday, the 11th inst., was the day appointed for that of 1881. At an early hour the people began to assemble, and they continued to swell the throng, notwithstanding the fearful heat of the day, until there were nearly or quite five hundred people present. The grave and the gay, the young (some very) and the middle-aged, (some more than that) gallant gentlemen and beautiful ladies (a fact, by Jupiter,) were present, and all as happy as it is the lot of mortals to be in such hot weather. Every conceivable vehicle was put in requisition for the occasion, and where those were lacking people waded their chances and walked. Every township in the county, from the "rugged mountains of Point Caswell" to the surf-beaten shores of the Sound, was represented by its beauty and gallantry. New Hanover also sent her quota to grace the occasion. We noticed that Wilmington sent a delegation of her good-looking sons and beautiful daughters (fact) to enjoy the festivities, which they did most heartily. The harpers were there, which is sufficient to indicate that dancing was one of the features of the day. At about eleven o'clock the long table was loaded down from one end to the other with melons and all who wished indulged in a watermelon feast. An hour later dinner was spread upon the same table and the company invited to partake, which they did with a relish. We have attended many such gatherings and must say, without detriment to others, that the table at Spring Garden is entitled to the premium for excellence, quantity and variety. After dinner the male portion of the assemblage was called to order in a few appropriate remarks by Dr. Satchwell and a County Agricultural Club was formed, the proceedings of which will be found in another column. The Committee of Arrangements for the occasion did everything in their power for the comfort and pleasure of those present, and were entirely successful. Towards evening the party began to disperse, and at night those who desired assembled in Gamber's Hall at Rocky Point to indulge in a social dance, where we left them at nine o'clock. The ladies and gentlemen from Wilmington desire to express their profound thanks to all concerned for the unalloyed pleasure the occasion afforded them.

A New Lodge.

Mr. N. Jacobi, Deputy Grand Commander, of this city, left here last Tuesday afternoon for Fayetteville, at which place, on Wednesday night, he instituted a new lodge of the American Legion of Order. The new lodge is known as La Fayette Lodge, the number not yet being assigned, and there are 41 charter members. W. C. Troy, Esq., is Regent.

Death of a Prominent Citizen of Onslow County.

We regret to learn that H. H. Sandlin, Esq., of Onslow county, died at the residence of his brother, in that county, on the evening of Sunday, the 7th inst. Mr. Sandlin was known throughout Onslow and the adjoining counties as a gentleman of probity and integrity. His influence for good was commanding and his loss will be seriously felt and deeply deplored by all who knew him. His disease was dropsy.

Beautiful your homes by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted. Sold only at JACOBI'S.

A Dinner Lost.

Our friends from Point Caswell, who went down on the Passport yesterday, were taken to sea some two or three miles by Captain Harper, and would have enjoyed the trip very much but for the accident which deprived the party of their dinner. It seems that the excursionists, consisting of some fifteen or twenty persons, had improvised a sort of table on the upper deck, and had spread out quite a tempting repast, when just as they were about to do justice to the viands, a wave lifted the boat and gave the steamer a sudden lurch, which capsized people and things too. The table and contents, which a few moments before looked so tempting, were now scattered over the deck, mingled with broken crockery and upset chairs, as well as several upset people. The incident disappointed a few of the hungry ones but afforded a good deal of amusement for the whole party.

A Long Branch at Home.

We read frequently about the bevy of young ladies and gentlemen on the Beach at Long Branch, enjoying the delightful surf-bathing there, and of the immense crowds at Coney Island, Atlantic City and Newport, and at last the idea has occurred to a few enterprising gentlemen in this city to start a first-class hotel at the ocean-side, nearer at home than any of the above named places, and we are happy to know that the idea or project is about to assume a tangible form. Mine host of the Purell, Mr. B. L. Perry, we understand, is active in the matter and we are glad to hear that he is seconded by a few kindred spirits who propose raising a joint stock company and building a large first-class hotel on the beach, about 14 miles from Wilmington, right at the head of the sound and in full view of the bay or sound and the mighty, broad Atlantic at the same time. The sound can be used by parties who will indulge in beating or sailing and fishing, while the surf bathers will have as fine a beach to enjoy that delightful sport as any on the coast, and only a few yards distant from the hotel. To make the undertaking a success it will be necessary to have a railroad—a narrow gauge will suit all practical purposes—and that, we understand, Hon. R. R. Bridgers, president of the W. & W. and W. C. & A. Railroads, thinks there will be no difficulty in getting. The site, as before mentioned, is at the headwaters of the Sound, near old Camp Wyatt, and about five or six miles from Fort Fisher, somewhere near the position occupied by General Bragg while he gazed upon the bombardment of Fort Fisher by 600 large calibre naval guns while a heavy assaulting column of the enemy charged upon the heroic garrison. So the place will have a historic interest as well as being a resort for pleasure.

Personal.

The Atlantic Review of the 9th inst., published at Atlantic City, New Jersey, says: "Quite an oration was tendered to ex-Mayor Fishblate and family, of Wilmington, N. C., on their departure from the United States Hotel. His many friends expressed their sincere regrets at his leaving the city. The Mayor intends returning next season. He carries away with him the best wishes of a large number of friends, whose acquaintance he made during his stay here."

There was a good attendance upon the August excursion on the Passport to-day. His excursions are popular, both with the young and old folks, and are always well patronized.

Pender Agricultural Association. A meeting of the citizens of Pender county was held at Spring Garden on Thursday, August 11th, for the purpose of organizing an Agricultural Association.

The meeting was called to order by calling Mr. James Westbrook to the Chair and appointing Mr. George E. Shepard Secretary.

The following preamble and resolutions were then submitted, and were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The citizens of Pender are eminently social and progressive, and, whereas, picnics and public basket reunions have become established institutions in our young and prosperous county therefore,

Resolved, That in order to encourage these feelings and sentiments, the farmers and industrial people of our county—every township of the county being here represented—hereby organize themselves into a "County Agricultural Association," whose object shall be the improvement of agriculture and of social life among the people of all the townships.

Resolved, That we will hold an annual picnic and basket reunion.

Resolved, That in order to carry out these purposes an Executive Committee shall be appointed by the President of this meeting, who shall meet and report a constitution and bye laws and recommend permanent officers.

Resolved, That the farmers and industrial citizens of every township are earnestly requested to meet and organize auxiliary clubs.

Short speeches were made by Maj. C. W. McClammy and Dr. W. C. Murphy, after which the Chairman announced the following Executive Committee:

J. L. Foy, Geo. E. Shepard, Maj. C. W. McClammy, Isaac Shepard, R. T. Williams, John Bannerman, Jr., Dr. E. Armstrong, John J. Moore, Dr. W. C. Murphy, Tate Collins, Col. J. D. Powers, E. M. Johnson, J. E. Rivenbark, W. W. Larkins, J. W. Herring, D. W. Bordeaux, T. H. W. McIntire, G. W. Herring, A. C. Ward, Jasper Corbett, James Colvin, Dr. J. F. Simpson.

REMEDY FOR

SCROFULA

NEVER FAILS.

It Will Cure if Fairly Tested.

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result. My family physicians met with. After returning from the Institute, I was advised to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I used it more than a week before I began to feel better. I soon began to heal, and the disease gradually disappeared. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the pressure of Scrofula, and in all cases found that the remedy made would commence to regenerate, and for this alone it should be used regularly until an effectual cure is effected. Nothing should prevent regular use of the remedy and it should be continued to the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured. I am, respectfully,
