MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY FOR SCROFULA NEVER FAILS.

It Will Cure if Fairly Tested.
It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After returning from the Institute, I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's Remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spirits revived, my health improved, and I began to enjoy splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sores in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sores are healed, to remove the cause of the sores. It has been taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy, and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend it to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it, and am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice. I am, respectfully,
Kittrell, N. C. JAMES A. MORRIS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
OPERA HOUSE—John E. Owens
W. H. STERLING—Notice
HEINSBERGER—Great Economy
C. W. YATES—School Books

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,306 bales, the largest any one day this season.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish Hooks and Lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Col. A. Pope, General Passenger Agent for the Associated Railroads of Virginia and the Carolinas, is in the city to-day on a brief visit.

Call at JACOBI'S for Garden Hoes and Rakes, Shovels, Spades, Axes, &c. There you have the lowest prices.

Messrs. Brown & Roddick's new quarters on North Front street will be one of the handsomest dry goods stores in the State. The large, wide front is almost entirely of glass.

The Hickory Press gives the rates on six different classes of goods from that point to Wilmington and Richmond. They are as follows: To Wilmington, $1.04, 85, 73, 61, 51, 40. To Richmond, $1.04, 85, 73, 61, 51, 40.

We understand that John Campbell, colored, the owner of the horse and cart mentioned in yesterday's Review in connection with the larceny of a barrel of pork, has given bond for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court and been released from jail.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the first rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

Unmailable. Addressed as follows, remains in the Postoffice in this city: Fenderson William, No 301 Dickson street, Riles Pass; F. A. Sawyer, No 4 Cedar street, Room 15, Globe Office.

City Court.
Robert Stevenson and William Williams, the two colored boys whose case was continued from yesterday, were arraigned before the Mayor again to-day. Stevenson was discharged but Williams was held for further examination. Meantime the empty bags found in defendant's possession with the mark of K on them, are still awaiting identification.

Study your interest. You can now buy Cook Stoves at factory prices at JACOBI'S.

Returned.
Mr. C. W. Yates has returned to the city after several weeks spent in New York in the interest of his business. His description of the displays of mourning for President Garfield through all of New York City are graphic. Broadways, in its entire length, was one mass of gloomy drapery. Many of the adornments were very costly, Tiffany's, for instance, being shrouded in crape from the roof to the basement.

A Misdemeanor.
Louis Sheridan, colored, was arraigned before a magistrate this morning charged with a violation of the law which is contained in chapter 70 of Battle's Revised, which makes it a misdemeanor for any person to entice away from his employer any servant or employee. Sheridan is charged with preventing laborers from working on board of a vessel after they had contracted to perform service there. The justice before whom this case was brought bound defendant over to next term of the Criminal Court, in accordance with the above act.

Home Again.
We were glad to meet and welcome back home again this morning, after an absence of two weeks, our townsman, R. J. Jones, Esq., who has just returned from attendance upon a meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F., recently held in Cincinnati. Mr. Jones tells us that the pleasure of the occasion was marred very much by the death of the President and that many of the festivities which had been arranged for the entertainment of the guests were abandoned altogether; among these was the grand banquet at the Gibson House. The weather, our friend tells us, was insufferably hot, and although he did not say so, we think he looked as though he was glad to get back to old Wilmington once more to enjoy a little personal comfort.

OPERA HOUSE.

Solon Shingle.
A highly delighted and enthusiastic audience greeted Mr. John E. Owens at the Opera House last night upon his first appearance after so long an absence from our city. To see Jno. E. Owens in his inimicable character and impersonations and not laugh would be equivalent to acting chief mourner at a funeral without dropping a tear in sad remembrance over the dear departed. The first piece presented to the audience last night was the "Victims" in which Mr. Owens, as Joshua Butterby, fully sustained his reputation as a first-class low comedian. But it was in the second piece that his genius, "which never dies," shown out more conspicuously in the assumed character of "Solon Shingle." There is really nothing of pith or point in either of the pieces presented; it is only the humorous style and manner of the chief actor's performance which brings a smile of good humor upon the countenances until it spreads into an uncontrollable huge laugh which is kept up until the curtain drops on the last scene. Mr. Owens' support is good and each one played his or her part to the satisfaction of the audience. To-night Mr. Owens appears in one of his very best characters—Major DeBoots, in Everybody's Friend—and we advise all who wish to spend an enjoyable evening to visit the Opera House. It is good for the health to take such recreation occasionally and even dyspeptics would find an evening with Owens a pretty good antidote for the ills that they suffer.

We need not be physicians to know when we have and how to cure a Cold. We can have a special physician always near, by keeping convenient a bottle of Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

Memorial Tablet.
We learn from the New York Churchman that the tablet to be erected to the memory of Bishop Atkinson in the chancel of St. James' Church, in this city, is now completed, and will soon be forwarded by the church furnisher, Mr. R. Geissler, of New York. It consists of a brass plate on a slab of dove-colored marble, the latter being nearly two and a half feet wide by four feet long. On the four corners of the plate are panels with emblems of the four evangelists in the order of St. Matthew, St. John, St. Mark and St. Luke, the lion being made to symbolize St. Matthew and the angel St. Mark, while ordinarily it is the reverse. Above is a plate representing a mitre. The inscription, in lettering of red and black, is as follows: "To the revered and beloved memory of the Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., LL. D., third Bishop of North Carolina. Born at Mansfield, Dinwiddie county, Va., August 6th, A. D. 1807. Consecrated Bishop of North Carolina, October 17th, A. D. 1853. Fell asleep in Jesus at Wilmington, N. C., January 4th, 1881. His body rests beneath this chancel in sure hope of a blissful resurrection."

"Buchupaiba."
New, quick, complete cure 4 days, urinary affections, smarting, frequent or difficult urination, kidney diseases. $1. Druggists. Depot Jas. C. Munds.

Before a Magistrate.
Isaac Stanley, colored, was arrested upon a warrant sworn out by Carrie Boon, colored, upon the charge of burglary, alleged to have been committed last Friday night. The defendant was committed by Justice Mills for trial until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

A search warrant was also issued by Justice Mills, against same defendant, upon the affidavit of Carrie Boon, and placed in the hands of officer Simc Richardson, who failed however, to discover any of the missing articles named in the warrant on Stanley's premises.

Through exposure in the war, Mr. George L. Graham, No. 820 Nineteenth street, Philadelphia, contracted a variety of ills, and he says a very troublesome case of rheumatism in the right leg and foot was a war inheritance that he had tried in vain to get rid of until he was recommended to try "St. Jacobs Oil." He states that he felt a slight relief even on the first application of the Oil. Before the first bottle he purchased had been used up he had but few traces of his rheumatism, and at this time he says the disease has entirely left him, which he attributes entirely to the use of St. Jacobs Oil.

Beautify your noses by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted. Sold only at JACOBI'S.

Mr. Sneed and His Condition.
Mr. John Sneed, who was wounded so grievously at the firing of the minute guns yesterday by the Cape Fear Light Artillery, as reported in our last evening's issue, is doing better to-day than was even hoped for yesterday. His left hand has been amputated and he has lost a part of his right hand, but it is hoped now that amputation of this member will not be necessary. His face is also much disfigured by the powder, but he says that he can see out of both of his eyes, and the loss of his eyesight is, therefore, not now feared. One of the physicians in attendance has expressed to his belief that he will live. Still, his condition is most deplorable, and our citizens, ever ready as they are to lend an ear to the call of distress, have already subscribed liberally for his assistance. We trust, however, that the efforts for his relief will not stop at his immediate necessities, but that some movement may be made looking to a provision for his future. He has, we understand, a widowed mother and a sister dependent upon him for support, and some of his friends are already talking of a petition to Congress praying that a pension may be ordered for his benefit. The fact that the accident occurred while firing minute guns on a solemn public occasion should furnish strong grounds in support of his claims. We do not doubt that a monster petition for his relief can be secured with proper efforts made at this time and it can be presented and urged at the meeting of Congress in December next. To secure this it is only necessary to strike now while the iron is hot.

Reduction in Marine Insurance.
We are glad to note that the Underwriters Agency has given ear to the petition forwarded by Mr. VanBokkelen, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and others some time since, asking a reduction of the rate on marine insurance from this place for foreign ports. Mr. VanBokkelen received a letter this morning from J. Raymond Smith, Secretary of the Underwriters, in which he notified Mr. VanBokkelen officially that hereafter the rate of marine insurance from Wilmington, by sail, to all European ports, will be reduced one-eighth per cent.

Quite a ripple of excitement was created on Market street about 1 o'clock to-day, by a paterfamilias who undertook to horsewhip a young man for alleged slanders against a member of his family. The pair were both arrested and carried to the City Hall where they were recognized for their appearance to-morrow morning before the Mayor.

Aid for the Sufferer.
The following is a copy of a subscription list in behalf of Mr. Sneed which has been left at the Purcell House:
The case of Mr. John Sneed, who was so terribly hurt on September 26th by the premature discharge of a canon being fired in honor of our dead President, is one of a peculiarly distressing nature and appeals most strongly to the sympathy of a generous public. In his helpless condition he is dependent upon an aged widowed mother, the sight of whom cries aloud for help. Give something.

DIED.
On the 17th September, 1881, at Rocky Point, little ANNIE BOWDEN, daughter of Andrew and Sallie Bowden, aged 3 years and 5 months.
Little Annie, the only daughter, was a bright, sweet and promising little girl. How hard it was for the parents to give up such a treasure. But, father and mother, you must remember that our little ones are loaned to us for some wise purpose, and when that purpose is accomplished, the giver of all good gifts takes them back to his arms, where there is no suffering, no pain, but eternal joy and pleasure. Then strive, my dear parents, to meet little Annie in heaven, where there will be no more parting, no more sorrowing. FRIEND.
