The sea captains in port say that the barometer has fallen three-tenths to-day, and that we may look out for a south-westerly blow here before morning.

We were pleased to renew our acquaintance to-day with Mr. Frank J. Pilling, Press Agent for Coup's Circus. We find him just the same clever, genial gentleman he "used to was."

We are requested by the President and Vice-President of the Women's Christian Temperance Union to state that the next meeting will be held to-morrow, Wednesday, afternoon, at 5 o'clock, in the Block and Lumber Hall.

The Manager of the Bernard Manufacturing Company, Mr. Isaac L. Hart, No. 3 Ashton street, Fall River, Mass., gives this as his experience: I have used that superior remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, in a severe case of rheumatism in my arm, and its effect was wonderful, having banished all pain, leaving my arm as well as ever.

Fire at Pate's.
The store house and its contents, belonging to Mr. E. Oxendine, situated near Pate's, N. C., were destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning. Mr. Oxendine writes to his agent in this city that he had some insurance but does not state how much. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Dining Room and Restaurant.
Mr. John D. Stelljes, proprietor of the North Carolina House, corner Princess and Second streets, has filled a want long felt in this community. Adjoining his saloon he has fitted up very handsomely a restaurant where meals may be had at all hours of the day or night. The dining room has been nicely carpeted and papered and supplied with new furniture and everything about is nice, new and clean. Mr. Stelljes has employed a first-class cook and caterer and is determined to spare no effort to please.

City and County Hospital.
The Public Hospital, it has been finally decided, is to be located on the site of which is known as the Wilmington Gardens, in the Eastern part of the city, near Oakdale Cemetery. The city and the county have purchased this entire property, agreeing to pay therefor $6,000, cash, to its present owner, Mr. L. Vollers. The city is to pay two-fifths and the county three-fifths of the amount, and the former is to borrow from the latter, we understand, her share of the purchase money, paying for the use of the same interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum. The matter has been left in the hands of Mr. Norwood Giles, Chairman of the Board of Audit and Finance, who will conduct the transfer of the property on behalf of the city and county. The site is an eligible one, the price is considered reasonable and there are enough buildings on the premises to answer the purposes required, at least for the present. Immediate possession is to be given and arrangements will be made for opening the Hospital, as soon as possible.

To the Honorable Mayor and Board of Aldermen:

Homicide at Whitehall.
We regret to hear of a very distressing affair, which occurred at Whitehall, Bladen county, on Saturday last. On that day Messrs. Gillespie Baie and Edward Kemp were drinking together, when they became involved in a quarrel and the former shot the latter, instantly killing him. The parties were brothers-in-law. Baie has been a merchant at Whitehall, and his standing has been very good, save while under the influence of liquor. He was arrested and lodged in jail at Elizabethtown. There are all of the particulars known here as yet.

OPERA HOUSE.

Child of the State.
This new modern play, which has had a great run at the North, was presented for the first time in our city last night by the Hoy and Hardie Combination. The play, though rather broad in some of its French characteristics to suit a Southern audience generally, was nevertheless thrillingly interesting and exciting from beginning to end. The piece as rendered here last evening was well put upon the stage, each actor and actress sustaining the part with admirable exactness, showing a fine conception of their different parts. Mr. James M. Hardie as Count Maurice de Lancy personated his character most admirably, while Mr. George Hoy as Gros Rene, his friend, was inimitable. Mr. Hoy's acting was from the sublime to the ridiculous. At one moment the sentiment and utterances of the part he assumed were pathetic in the extreme, while his actions, bearing and manners all comported with the thrilling dramatic effect of his speech, and the next moment, or the next breath, he would be exceedingly ridiculous or ludicrous. The audience, who a minute before had their minds and imaginations stretched to the utmost tension of excitement, were a few seconds later convulsed with laughter.

Senora Majeroni performed the difficult role of Gertrude, a Child of the State, with feeling and effect, and drew tears from many of the audience by the sad story of her life—the story of one more unfortunate. Miss Eva Glenn Baker was charming and interesting, and without individualizing any further, we may repeat that the whole Company sustained their parts well. The costumes were rich and beautiful, and the scenery handsome and appropriate. To-night this excellent Company present the great modern play of Diplomacy, which had a run of so many months at Wallack's Theatre, in New York City. The piece is located during the days of the Turkish war, and we advise all who wish to see a fine play and some very fine acting to avail themselves of this opportunity and go to the Opera House to-night.

Criminal Court.

The following business has been disposed of in this Court since our report on yesterday was closed:
State vs. Wm. Dudley, charged with an affray. Nol. pro. with leave.
State vs. Pettway et al, charged with forcible trespass. Nol. pro. with leave.
State vs. John McKey, charged with rape and incest. Nol. pro. with leave.
State vs. Thos. Kennedy, charged with larceny. Witnesses called and failed.
State vs. John Nixon, charged with assault and battery. Defendant called and failed. Judgment nisi.
State vs. Marshall Merrick, charged with assault and battery, on appeal from a magistrate's court. Defendant found not guilty.
To-day the attention of the Court has been occupied the entire day with the case of the State vs. William Hollis, for willful trespass on the land of Major W. C. Fergus, on Masonboro Sound. Motion made to discharge defendant. Motion overruled. Plea, former acquittal. Plea overruled. This case is one of seven similar cases recently tried before a Justice of the Peace, and concerns a number of fishermen, who as the State's witness, Major Fergus, alleges, hauled their seines on his premises after he had notified them not to do so. In the Justice's Court the trial was decided adverse to Major Fergus, from which he took an appeal to the Criminal Court. The defence is represented by M. London, Esq., and the State by Mr. Solicitor Moore.

Theatre-goers, club-visitors, late supper-takers and patrons of the horse railroad owl-trains, should all certainly have a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup convenient. Gentlemen, you will need it.

At a meeting of the Hibernian Benevolent Association, the following preamble and resolutions, presented by the undersigned Committee, who were appointed for that purpose, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our brother member HUGH McDONNELL, who died in this city, on Thursday morning, in the 40th year of his age;
Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the unerring decree of Him who doeth all things well, we deplore the death of our brother member, Hugh McDonnell.
Resolved, That in his death this society has lost a good member and the community a quiet, inoffensive citizen, who, though he filled but an humble sphere in life, had many traits that endeared him to those who knew him.
Resolved, That a blank page of the minutes of this society be inscribed with his name, age and date of death; that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of deceased, and also published in the Review and Star of this city.

Shooting an Alligator.

There was a big alligator excitement at Smithville on Sunday last. A monster, between 8 and 9 feet long, was discovered in the bay about fifty yards abreast of the Passport. Capt. Harper fired the first shot, with a rifle, and struck the gator full between the eyes. This seems to have confused the animal so much that he turned and swam directly towards the shore, where he was met by Capt. Tom Savage, who put a whole load into his head, at short range. Still, this did not kill him, although it was evident that he was mortally wounded. Mr. Adkins then advanced with a gig and plunged it into him and he was pulled ashore, where three or four more shots were fired into him by Mr. Boyd, the Signal Service observer. A brick was then pushed into his mouth, which he bit in two and half of which he swallowed; an axe was then inserted and he bit a piece out of the iron blade. He finally died and was left on the wharf until yesterday afternoon when he was tumbled overboard.

Attempt at Highway Robbery.

Last night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, as William Harris, a very respectable colored man, porter at the W. & W. and W. C. & A. R. R. offices, was on his way home to his house on Nixon, between Fifth and Sixth streets, he was assaulted by two men, while passing along on Fourth street, between Harnett and Brunswick. He noticed two men on the opposite side of the way who crossed over to the side of the street he was on and met him when they suddenly seized him, one man throwing his hat over his face and the other tripping and throwing him to the ground. Their object was undoubtedly plunder as Harris felt them feeling his pockets, evidently in search of money. He had neither money nor valuables of any kind with him, however, and so, after ineffectually endeavoring to wrest his walking stick from his hand they sprang away and left him. Harris says that they were both colored men, very dark, but that he failed to recognize them as the assault was made in a dark place on the street.
