RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 27, 1881.

Mrs. JOE PERSON,

Franklin, N. C.

DEAR MADAM:—In reply to your letter asking what I think of your Remedy, I would say that I have been very fair, and so far as I can learn, the Remedy has been very satisfactory to my customers who have used it, especially so in the case of a little girl of this city, ten years of age, who was troubled for a long time with sores breaking out over the face and neck, having the appearance of Scrofula, and which had resisted the usual alternative treatment for a long time. She took four bottles of the Bitters last Spring, when the sores entirely disappeared, and up to this time she has had no return of them, her skin looking as fair and clear as anyone's.
Trusting that you may receive the success which your Remedy seems to merit, I am, very respectfully yours, larceny. Verdict not guilty.

false pretences. On trial.

term will not finish with the close of the week, but will in all probability be continued on Monday.

New York Postoffice.

Wm H. Waring, Esq., Asst. General Supt. 3rd Division Mailing and Distribution Dept., New York Post Office, in writing concerning St. Jacobs Oil, says:
"The reports from the several Superintendents and clerks who have used the Oil, agree in praising it highly. It has been found efficacious in cuts, burns, soreness and stiffness of the joints and muscles, and affords a ready relief for rheumatic complaints."

Mr. Cobb's Map.

Mr. Collier Cobb, of Chapel Hill, is in the city in the interest of an excellent school map compiled by him. Mr. Cobb is only sixteen years old and is a son of Prof. Cobb, of Chapel Hill. The map is an admirable one, showing many things of interest and importance at a glance and should be found in all of the schools.

bi's for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass,

The Homicide in Bladen.

The details of the homicide which occurred near Whitehall, in Bladen county, one week ago to-day, are very meagre, but it is rumored that the provocation was very trifling, if any at all. Gillespie Bale, who fired the fatal shot which killed his brother-in-law, Edward Kemp, is said to be a very excellent man but on this occasion he was under the influence of liquor. The scene on the following (Sunday) morning when the two sisters, the one the wife of the slayer and the other the widow of the slayed, met over the dead body of the slain man is described as heartrending in the extreme.

Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish Hooks and Lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at Jacob's.

City Court.

Benj Moore, colored, was arraigned for being drunk and disorderly. The testimony of Officer Stone, who made the arrest, assisted by Captain Goodman, was to the effect that defendant was drunk and disorderly and when he was arrested resisted most violently, besides cursing and abusing the police. The Mayor ordered the defendant to pay a fine of $10 or go to prison for 30 days. Not having the necessary wherewith to pay the fine, the transgressor was escorted below.

A case of an affray was turned over to a Justice of the Peace for trial.

Calhoun Williams, colored, was next arraigned upon the charge of acting in-decently in the store of Mr. A. McLean, on Market street, the arrest having been made at the investigation of the store proprietor. The testimony given in by Mr. McLean showed the offence of the prisoner to be quite a grievous one, but the prosecuting witness testified that he thought the man somewhat lunny. The Court took this into consideration and told the defendant he must be out of town before sunset. The defendant agreed to return to Florence, S. C., from whence he came here, and was thereupon discharged.

Heavenly Displays.

If the astronomers are correct in their predictions, we will have bright meteoric showers on the 18th, 19th and 20th nights of this month. The best time to observe this interesting phenomena will be between midnight and moon-rising.
In the east, after nine o'clock in the evening, the planets Jupiter and Saturn, will be conspicuous. Jupiter cannot fail to be recognized, for it is by far the most brilliant object in the sky except the moon. To the right of it and higher up from the horizon, Saturn will be seen, fainter than Jupiter, but with no neighboring star to rival it in brightness. As these planets are now approaching opposition they are coming into the most favorable place for observation, giving us the whole night to study them at the time they are nearest us. The "red spot" which has been observed for several winters in the southern hemisphere of Jupiter still exists, seemingly unchanged, and bids fair to be a permanent marking. By watching its successive returns any one with a small telescope may determine the time of rotation of Jupiter on its axis. It will be found to be about nine hours and fifty-five and a half minutes. Mars rises later, and towards dawn Venus comes up very brilliantly above the horizon.
One marked event stands prominent on the October planetary annals. This is the opposition of Saturn, the most interesting for study during the month.
When the full moon has taken on its waning phase the moonless nights will be glorious with starry and planetary beauty. Saturn will lead the brotherhood that will shine among the clustering stars throughout the serene October nights. Trooping after him with unswerving step bright Jupiter and ruddy Mars will follow, with unseen Neptune and Uranus to fill in the waning line.
The October moon filled yesterday. Tomorrow, two days after the full, she is in conjunction with Saturn and Neptune.
The October full moon is sometimes called the Hunters' Moon, as her consecutive early rising was supposed to be a help to the sportsman in continuing the light to help him on his way.

Death of Gen. Abbott.

Gen. Joseph C. Abbott died in this city, at about half-past 12 o'clock to-day.
His disease is said to have been from softening of the brain. He has been falling for years past although he has been confined to the house for only a few weeks past. He died at the residence of Rev. T. M. Ambler, on Fourth street, where he boarded, with his wife and her mother.

Gen. Abbott was 56 years of age. He was born in Concord, New Hampshire, and first came to Wilmington with the Federal troops when they entered the city on its evacuation by the Confederates on the 23d day of February, 1865.
His rank was that of Brevet Brigadier-General of Volunteers and he commanded a brigade. He was Adjutant-General of New Hampshire previous to the war and was a man of prominence in his native State. During the war he raised a regiment of volunteers, of which he was made Lieutenant-Colonel, and on the death of the commander of the regiment, Col. Putnam, who was an old army officer, which occurred at Battery Wagner, Gen. Abbott was made full Colonel. He was present at the second fight at Fort Fisher and for gallant and meritorious conduct then was promoted to be Brevet Brigadier-General.
He was appointed Commandant of this post, and remained here after the close of the war, and when his command was mustered out of service. In 1868 he was the most prominent Republican in the city. He was elected to the Legislature in that year as a member of the House of Commons, from this county, and not long afterwards was chosen by the Legislature as U. S. Senator, to fill the short term, which then had three years to run. The Democrats coming into power, he was not re-elected.

On his return to Wilmington, Gen.
Abbott organized the Cape Fear Building Company and became President of that organization. Abbottsburg, where the works of the Company were located, was named for him. His business ventures were, however, unsuccessful, and it is said that he lost $100,000 at Abbottsburg. These losses seem to have preyed upon his mind and to have been, remotely, the cause of his death. He was twice married, his second wife surviving him, but he has no children. He has been for several years past a close attendant on the services in the First Presbyterian Church, and it is from that Church that the funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The remains will be interred in the National Cemetery, Col. Brink having telegraphed to Washington to-day and received the necessary permit from the War office.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a regular meeting of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 1, held at the Little Giant Hall, October 4th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and associate, Hon. JOHN DAWSON, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him, therefore be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That in the death of Hon.
John Dawson this Company laments the loss of one who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this Company and a copy thereof be transmitted to the Wilmington, N. C. papers.
