Alex. Sprunt, Esq., British Vice Consul at this port, who has been absent from the city for some time past, returned here on Saturday last.

The State Fair opens to-day and will continue during the week. A few have already gone to Raleigh from this city and others will follow to-morrow.

We learn from the Concord Sun that Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., of this city, has been elected Financial Secretary of North Carolina College, at Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus county. At the same time Rev. L. A. Mann, of Middleton, Md., was chosen President.

The steam yacht Passport is to have a little rest after the hard work of the past summer. She went on the ways this morning, and is to be overhauled and fitted up for the severe work of the winter, in towing, as well as carrying passengers.

Will Recover.

Aaron Lord, the young colored man who lost both of his hands at Mr. Wilson's steam saw mill on Friday last, bids fair to recover from the shock sustained by his system. He is only about 22 years old and is unmarried. We suggest that he is an object of public sympathy and should receive assistance.

Resumed Her Trips.

The little mail steamer Elizabeth, which has been on the ways undergoing repairs for some time past, came out on Saturday last after a thorough overhauling and refitting. She now dances the water as pretty as ever, all clothed in white. She resumed her trips to Smithville to-day, carrying the mails, and will hereafter run regularly.

Death of a Colored Minister.

Rev. W. H. Banks, a well known colored preacher in this city, died last night. He was recently Pastor of Ebenezer Baptist church, on Seventh, between Orange and Ann strees, and was at one time an Alderman. He will be buried to-morrow morning from his late residence, thence to the church and thence to Pine Forest Cemetery. He was probably about 55 years of age.

Gen. Abbott's Remains.

The mortal remains of the late Gen. Jos. C. Abbott were interred yesterday afternoon in the National Cemetery. They were followed to the grave by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The funeral took place from the First Presbyterian Church and the services were conducted by the Pastor of that church, Rev Dr. Wilson. The following gentlemen officiated as pall bearers on the sad occasion, viz: Mr. Geo. Z. French, Mr. Jas. H. Chadbourn, Maj. Chas. E. Taylor, Mr. F. W. Foster, Gen. S. H. Manning and Capt. E. J. Pennypacker.

"I'm all Played Out," is a common complaint. If you feel so get a package of Kidney Wort and take it and you will at once feel its tonic power. It renews the healthy action of the kidneys, bowels and liver, and thus restores the natural life and strength to the weary body. It can now be had in either dry or liquid form, and in either way is always prompt and efficient in action.—New Bedford Standard.

Criminal Court.

There was one case of submission in an affray this morning in which judgment was suspended upon payment of costs. But the attention of the Court has been occupied for the most part to-day in examining witnesses as to character of defendants convicted at this term, before passing sentence. The Court took a recess at 2 o'clock for one hour. At the afternoon session, which convened at 3 o'clock, His Honor listened to motions from counsel. It is thought the Court will adjourn late this evening for the term.

The following are the convictions at this term, with the sentences passed:

Samuel Carver, larceny, $25 and cost.
Jno. Waddell, larceny, $25 and costs.
Jno. Curlew, carrying a concealed weapon, discharged on condition of leaving the city.
Wm. Hansley, larceny, 5 years in Penitentiary.
Richard Reid, larceny, 5 years in Penitentiary.
Jno. Williams, larceny, one penny and costs.
Willey Phillips, larceny, 2 years in Penitentiary.
Wm. Phinney, assault and battery, 12 months in County House of Correction.
Lou Huggins, nuisance, 3 months in House of Correction.
Sam Larkins, assault and battery, 3 months in House of Correction.
Chas. Herring, assault with intent to commit rape, 10 years in Penitentiary.
David Littleton, slander of women, $25 and costs.
Isaiah Easton, assault and battery, 30 days in House of Correction.
Fred Hill, larceny, $5 and costs.

In addition to the above there were several cases of assault and battery and one of an affray in which the defendants were fined one penny and costs.

From Magistrate's Row.

Wm. Phinney, colored, a notorious character and one of the convicts at the present term of the Criminal Court, had a warrant served upon him this morning charging him with perjury committed in a case before the Criminal Court this morning, wherein the said Phinney swore he did not stab one Lucy Morse, colored. Lucy Morse is the prosecuting witness and made the affidavit upon which the warrant was issued. The trial was set at 4 o'clock this afternoon before Justice E. D. Hall.

Henry Statcher, colored, was arrested upon a peace warrant this morning and also upon a warrant for assault and battery. The affidavit was made by George Sledge, colored. The trial will take place before a Justice of the Peace at 6 o'clock this evening.

Bed-Bugs, Roaches.

Rats, mice, ants, flies, vermin, mosquitoes, insects, &c., cleared out by "Rough on Rats." 15c. boxes at druggists.

City Court.

Robert Lee, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was arraigned before the Mayor this morning, Officer Woebse, who made the arrest, testified that defendant was arrested in Paddy's Hollow on Saturday night and that several of the prisoner's boon companions threatened at one time to attempt to rescue the prisoner. Upon hearing this evidence the Mayor continued the trial until the conspirators in this case could be arrested. The defendant was thereupon remanded to his cell.

Caroline Franks, a good customer for the city treasury and an old offender, was called up on the charge of disorderly conduct. His Honor said $3 or six days below. The Franks' exchequer seemed to be dry on this occasion, so defendant went below.

In the case of a huckster violating the ordinance, judgment was suspended. In another case against same party, judgment was suspended upon payment of costs. This finished the proceedings of the Mayor's Court for the day.

Entire Satisfaction Rendered.

Such is substantially the report of B. T. Worland, Esq., Concordia, Ky., who writes: I have been selling St. Jacobs Oil for some time, and find it gives entire satisfaction. In several cases of rheumatism under my observation the cure was complete.

Brig Eva N. Johnson cleared to-day for Ponce, P. R., with 25 barrels tar, 5 bales oakum, 101,000 shingles and 193,269 feet lumber, shipped by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming.

Capt. C. M. Harriss will to-morrow remove his newspaper and cigar store to the store recently occupied by Messrs Dyer & Son. He contemplates adding largely to his business.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of Col. Jno. J. Hedrick. The North Carolina cassimeres he offers are a very superior goods and have but one fault—they last too long. They are especially suitable for school suits.

To-Night

Leavitt's Gigantean Minstrels made a very attractive parade through the streets this forenoon. They play here to-night and most likely to a large house. The News and Observer speaks very cordially of them and says that they are a No. 1 troupe. The music, it says, is very fine, the dancing good and the witicisms new and laughable.

The Popular Demand.

So great has been the popular demand for the celebrated remedy, Kidney-Wort, that it is having an immense sale from Maine to California. Some have found it inconvenient to prepare it from the dry compound. For such the proprietors now prepare it in liquid form. This can be procured at the druggists. It has precisely the same effect as the dry, but is very concentrated so that the dose is much smaller.—Lowell Mail.
