Mrs. JOE PERSON,

Franklin, N. C.

DEAR MADAM:—In reply to your letter asking what I think of your Remedy, I would say that the results have been very satisfactory to my customers who have used it, especially so, in the case of a little girl of this city, ten years of age, who was troubled for a long time with sores breaking out over the face and neck, having the appearance of scrofula, and which had resisted the usual alterative treatment for a long time. She took four bottles of the Bitter last Spring, when the sores entirely disappeared, and up to this time she has had no return of them, her skin looking as fair and clear as anyone's.

Trusting that you may receive the success which your Remedy seems to merit, I am, very respectfully yours,

We also received a copy of the paper containing the address and read the report with much interest. It is, by far, we think, the most beautiful memorial address we ever read. A Legalized Nuisance.

The greatest nuisance we have encountered to-day is a legalized one. It was in the sweeping of North Water street this afternoon at just about the busiest hours. The streets are very dry and the dust raised by the street squad was perfectly fearful, filling the eyes and nose and mouth of all who were abroad at that hour and floating in at the open windows and doors and covering everything. We fail to see the necessity of this. The sweeping should be done early in the morning or late in the afternoon. The complaint to-day was universal and we trust that it may be heeded.

For Yorktown.

The Wilmington Light Infantry leave here on Monday morning en route for Yorktown. At Weldon they will take the Seaboard road to Portsmouth where they will board an Old Dominion steamer and arrive at Yorktown some time on Monday night. On the return they will stop at Norfolk to accept the invitation so kindly extended them to visit that city. The command will move from the Armory at 6 o'clock, sharp, on Monday morning, and those who are going are expected to be there in time to march at that hour.

We do not know how many will go. There has been some difficulty in a quarter least expected, among the employers of the young men. It is a busy season and some of them cannot well be spared. But we trust that all who can be possibly spared will be allowed to go.

Prof. King's Balloon.

Yesterday's New York Sun prints a very interesting account of the ascension of Prof. King's balloon at Chicago on Thursday. The only passenger was Mr. J. G. Hashagen, of this city, now in the Signal Service. The ascension was made from the lake front and in the presence of 10,000 people. There was much peril in the start because of a high wind prevailing at the time, there being fears of the balloon being dashed against some of the neighboring buildings before it got well into the air. It, however, got safely away, narrowly missing a flag pole in the ascent.

The balloon ascended rapidly, and when at the height of a mile it seemed to enter a current of air that was moving toward the west. It remained at that elevation, and moved off gradually toward St. Louis, at a rate not exceeding twenty miles an hour. At 6 o'clock it was lost to sight. Before starting Prof. King said he intended to make an all-night voyage, and cover not less than 500 miles. Nothing had been heard from him up to midnight.

John McGinness says: Dr. Benson, I will pray for you as long as I live, because you took pity on me when I was sick and in the hospital, and sent me two boxes of your Celery and Chamomile Pills, and they cured me of Sciatica, Neuralgia and Nervous weakness.

The State Fair.

Yesterday, (Thursday) the attendance at the fair was very large, and the grand stand was packed all day, while the other buildings were crowded. There were a number of interesting events. A very large number of ex-Confederate soldiers were present and some 500 participated in the reunion.

The ex-Confederates assembled in their hall at 1 o'clock, and were called to order by Gen. W. R. Cox, who, after stating the objects of the meeting, called Gen. Thos. L. Clingman to the chair, as temporary chairman, and Col. W. F. Beasley was requested to act as secretary.

Col. Beasley read the following report of a meeting held at the Yarrowburgh House on Wednesday evening:

At an informal meeting held at the Yarrowburgh Hotel, by a number of ex-Confederate soldiers, the following proceedings were had:

Gen. W. R. Cox was called to the chair, and Maj. S. M. Finger made secretary.

Gen. Cox explained the objects of the meeting; after which the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That a permanent organization of the ex-Confederate soldiers and sailors of North Carolina be made under the name and style of "The Society of ex-Confederate Soldiers and Sailors of North Carolina."

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the chair to suggest a plan for organizing said society, and that said committee report to the meeting to be held at ex-Confederate headquarters to-morrow, October 13, 1881.

The chair appointed the following committee: Colonel W. J. Green, Captain A. M. Noble, Captain E. D. Foxhall, Captain James S. Battle, Colonel W. F. Beasley.

The committee met, with Colonel Green in the chair, Colonel Beasley acting as secretary, and recommended the following as their report:

1st. That the officers of the society consist of a president, ten vice-presidents (one from each Congressional district and two from the State at large), and a secretary, who shall be treasurer.

2nd. That the president appoint an executive committee of five, to manage the affairs of the society during the first year, of which he shall be chairman.

3rd. That the only requisite necessary for admission into the society shall be satisfactory evidence of honorable service in the Confederate army or navy.

4th. That no admission fee shall be demanded or required the first year, but each member be left to contribute such aid as he feels able to do towards sustaining and making the society a success.

5th. That the society meet at least once in each year, and that said meeting be held during Thursday of the week selected for holding the State fair, and at such other times as the president may select.

6th. That the first duty of the executive committee be to adopt suitable by-laws for the society, and have printed for distribution to applicants an explanatory address, setting forth the objects of the organization.

WHARTON J. GREEN, A. M. NOBLE, E. D. FOXHALL, W. F. BEASLEY, J. S. BATTLE, Committee.

On motion of General Cox the resolution was adopted.

On motion of Mr. J. S. Battle, of Edgecombe, a committee of three, consisting of Capt. S. B. Alexander, J. J. Laughinghouse and James C. McRae, were appointed to suggest permanent officers. This committee reported the following names:

For president of the association, Col. W. J. Green; vice president from the first district, second district, J. E. Porter; third district, C. J. Harris; fourth district, Joseph J. Davis; fifth district, C. B. Watson; sixth district, R. T. Bennett; seventh district, William Overman; eighth district, Theo. Davidson; at large, W. F. Beasley, S. H. Badger; secretary, L. L. Polk.

The report of the committee was adopted.

There were nine contestants in the spelling match for the Worcester Unabridged Dictionary. Henry W. Rice won the prize, spelling one hundred and twenty words, without missing one.

In the afternoon was shot, in the presence of an immense crowd, the pigeon match between Capt. A. H. Bogardus and Mr. J. T. Pullen. It was at 30 birds each, 30 yards rise, English rules. Mr. Bogardus killed 28 birds, in seven cases using his second barrel. Mr. Pullen killed 26 birds, using his second barrel in four cases. Capt. Bogardus says Mr. Pullen is entitled to take rank with the best shots in this country.
