4 Paw Show.

Mr. Fred. Lawrence, the director of publications for the Forepaugh big show, is in the city to-day making arrangements for the appearance of the show here on the 12th of November. They are on the return North and we understand that they will go hence direct to Philadelphia. It will be their first appearance here as this is their first grand Southern tour. According to an exchange a few of the features of this show on the street parade are—

Left This Morning.

The Wilmington Light Infantry took their departure this morning for Yorktown. The command to move was given at 6 o'clock and the ranks were, we are glad to learn, fuller than was generally expected. There were, we hear, 41 in all, with a full complement of officers. It was feared that there would not be more than the requirement. We trust that they will all have a good time and that the pleasure of the occasion may not be marred by any accident.

The human voice in its sweetness and purity is deliciously musical; with throat affection and Coughs it loses all attractions. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup restores it when failing through Coughs, Colds, &c.

An Ornamental Fernery.

Take an old tin pan condemned to the retired list by reason of holes in the bottom, get a few cents' worth of green paint, and paint it. The holes in the bottom are a recommendation for its new service. If there are no holes you must drill two or three, as the drainage is essential. Now put a layer one inch deep of broken charcoal over the bottom, and then soil in the following proportions: One-half wood soil, such as you find in the forest under the trees; one-fourth clean sand; one-fourth meadow soil, taken from under turf; mix with this some charcoal dust. In this soil plant all kinds of ferns and swamp grass. Around the edge put a border of money plant or periwinkle to hang over. This will need but occasional watering, and will grow all winter in your room without sunny exposure. Suspend by wire if you prefer a hanging basket.

Let all the officials be present.

The stamer North State is here to-day, coming from Whitehall. There is, it is needless to say, no improvement in the river.

It is worth while taking a walk down Front street on Saturday night to see the handsome display made at Otterbourg's clothing house. The long line of white globe gas burners in front sets off the handsome iron front building to perfection.

The State Band.

We learn that the State Band, organized by Prof. Neave in Raleigh last week, is to become a permanent organization. The News and Observer gives it a very complimentary send-off and for the benefit of our readers we copy here a part of the article. It says:

On Thursday the thirty musicians appeared in our city, handsomely uniformed in dark blue and gold, and at once began practicing together. Their success as a whole has been remarkable, and they proved their proficiency last night. They serenaded his Excellency Gov. Jarvis, at the Yarboro, and afterwards the News and Observer was honored in a similar manner. The band also serenaded Capt. E. A. Shotwell and Gen. Johnstone Jones, and then paid a similar compliment to the young ladies at St. Mary's and Peace Institute. After their music at St. Mary's they visited Major R. S. Tucker's, where they were sumptuously entertained. We beg to express our admiration of the band, as musicians and as gentlemen. We learn with great pleasure that the members, so pleasantly thrown together here, have decided to continue their organization and to be always ready to obey the Governor's call on such occasions as he may consider desirable.

A Good Location

IS WHERE A WELL CONDUCTED business has made it so. Otterbourg has established the business, hence the excellence of his location is not disputed. AND WHY? We try to please. We try to be fair. We don't intend to take advantage of anybody. We show our goods and name our prices, and endeavor at all times to give our honest opinion of the merits of the goods we offer. We are sometimes mistaken, (and who is not?) but we will gladly correct any errors we may make. If this is your idea of the way business should be done we shall be pleased to have your patronage.

The receipts of cotton for the week just closed were 4,463 bales, against 5,856 bales for the corresponding week of last year. The receipts to date this year, from September 1st, foot up 23,524 bales, against 28,868 bales for same time last year.

The following is a correct list of the members of this band, which is by far the largest ever in the State, with the instrument on which each performs:

The Old Journal Case.

The case of Fowle and Vick vs. Kerchner and Boatwright, was called and argument commenced in the Supreme Court on Saturday. The News and Observer says that before commencing the argument, counsel asked the Court for an extension of the time allowed by the rules, stating that, owing to the number of exceptions, it was impossible within the time allowed to properly present the case. The Court set aside the rule and gave counsel four days, remarking that they must be content with the additional time allowed.

Chief Justice Smith, having been of counsel in the case in the Court below, left the bench upon the call of the case. Pending the argument in the case, the Court adjourned until this (Monday) morning, when the argument was to have been resumed.

The Poughkeepsie News, we see, mentions the following by Mr. John Roemer: Sometime ago I suffered with rheumatism in the greatest degree, and was unable to work for a long period. I commenced to rub my feet with St. Jacobs Oil. Relief came at once. The second day the swelling subsided, and after the use of two bottles of the Oil, all pain had left and I was able to go to work.

DEAR MADAM:—In reply to your letter asking what I think of your Remedy, would say that the sales have been very fair, and so far as I can learn, the Remedy has been very satisfactory to my customers who have used it, especially so in the case of a little girl of this city, ten years of age, who was troubled for a long time with sores breaking out over the face and neck, having the appearance of Scrofula, and which had resisted the usual alternative treatment for a long time. She took four bottles of the Bitters last Spring, when the sores entirely disappeared, and up to this time she has had no return of them, her skin looking as fair and clear as anyone's.

Trusting that you may receive the success which your Remedy seems to merit, I am, very respectfully yours,
