SKINNY MEN
Wells' Health Renewer. Absolute cure for nervous debility and weakness of the generative functions, $1 at druggists. Depot J. C. Munds.

We understand that two magnificent meteors were seen here in the Northeast about half past 10 o'clock night before last. But two meteors don't make a shower.

Mr. J. W. Zimmerman returned here last night from New York. He bought a handsome stock for the holiday trade, which will be received and displayed within a few days.

The South Carolina and Georgia troops passed through here to-day on their return from Yorktown. They stopped here about an hour, for dinner. There were about 400 of them.

Capt. A. L. DeRosset received a postal this morning from one of the members of the Wilmington Light Infantry, dated at Yorktown, which says that the boys have had a delightful time of it.

Venor looks for a continuance of the warm wave on this continent during the approaching winter, broken by waves of low temperature of brief duration. He disregards the sun or sun spots theory, and predicts an open winter.

Senator M. W. Ransom writes the Fayetteville Gazette that he will look out for the appropriation already made to improve the navigation of the Cape Fear River between that place and Wilmington, and see that it does not lapse.

Spending Money in Vain.
M. V. B. Herson, Esq., (of Pinkham & Herson) Boston, Mass., reports: After vainly spending five hundred dollars for other remedies to relieve my wife, I have no hesitation in declaring that St. Jacobs Oil will cure Neuralgia.

Steamship Barnesmore is due at Liverpool to-day, and news of her arrival may be received at any moment. It is possible, however, that she may have encountered the recent gale on the English coast, and so be delayed a few days.

There was an alarm of fire this morning about 7:30 o'clock. The roof of the residence of Mr. E. Schaff, corner of Campbell and Fourth streets, caught from sparks but the flames were soon suppressed and the general alarm was not sounded.

The Register of Deeds has issued marriage licenses this week to one white and four colored couples.

Mr. W. B. Giles, we are glad to learn is much better and is now considered out of danger. He is still confined to the bed, however.

The steam tug Easton took down quite a party of gentlemen this morning to visit the government works at the mouth of the river.

Capt. Chadwick, who took out Capt. Small's vessel, the Glacier, to New York, returned here to-day on the steamship Regulator.

Daniel Shaw, Esq., Chairman of the Board of Commissioners for Pender county, was in the city to-day, as was also Mr. R. H. Murphy, a prominent citizen of Pender county.

Frank Phillips, colored, truck driver with Messrs. Hart, Bailey & Co., had his left foot severely injured this afternoon by being crushed by a car wheel, which was being placed on his truck, and which, by the starting of the horse, slipped and fell on his foot.

FRYING MAIL
Col. E. R. Brink has made arrangements for facilitating communication between this city and Fayetteville and Raleigh. A mail pouch will be made up and forwarded every afternoon on the U. C. R. R. for Fayetteville and all offices between Hamlet and Raleigh. This mail, which is additional to the morning mail, will close at 5 o'clock and the service will commence next Monday.

From Yorktown.
Col. E. R. Brink and Mr. S. G. Hall returned here this morning from the Yorktown Centennial. Mr. Hall, who was a member of the State band, talks delightedly of the music produced there. Messrs. Jas. E. Willson and D. B. Mitchell, the other members of the State Band from the Cornet Concert Club in this city, have not yet returned.

A New Diagram.
Mr. Geo. Dyer, Manager of the Opera House, has introduced a new diagram of seats. It is a large lithograph correctly representing the orchestra and dress circle at the Opera House and with the number and row of each seat printed in a small circle. This circle is extracted with a punch made for the purpose as fast as the seats are disposed of and then, by means of the gum on the back, is attached to the ticket. By this arrangement it is utterly impossible to have two claimants to the same seat and mistakes, which sometimes give rise to disagreeables, are therefore thoroughly provided against.

Mr. Forbes' Lecture.
A delighted and intelligent audience, although not as large in point of numbers as we would have been glad to see there assembled at the Opera House last night to hear Mr. Archibald Forbes, the war correspondent of the London News, narrate some of his experiences during the recent wars in Europe. Mr. Forbes' style, while somewhat less oratorical than many had been led to expect, is yet clear and concise, and withal pleasing and powerful in its descriptive characteristics, and he carried the absorbed interest of his audience with him from first to last. The Wilmington Library Association will, we trust, continue the season of lectures so happily begun.

We reach for riches and we grasp a millstone, unless in health to enjoy them. A Cough or Cold quickly works our physical ruin unless we are careful. Use Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cts

Wanted Quiet.
A nervous looking man went into a store the other day and sat down for half an hour or so, when a clerk asked if there was anything he could do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. He went away and he sat there half an hour longer, when the proprietor went to him and asked if he wanted to be shown anything. "No," said the nervous man, "I just want to sit around. My physician has recommended perfect quiet for me, and says, above all things, I must avoid being in crowds. Noticing that you did not advertise in the newspapers, I thought that this would be as quiet a place as I could find, so I just dropped in for a few hours of isolation." The merchant plucked up a bolt of paper cambric to brain him, but the man went out. He said all he wanted was a quiet life.

Africa and the N. C. Colored Baptist State Convention.

[Reported by Elder J. O. Crosby.]
A large congregation assembled last evening in the First (colored) Baptist Church. Long before the hour for service to commence, nearly every part of the house was filled to overflowing with anxious spectators. The preliminary exercises were conducted by Elders Roberts and Waldon, with prayer by Rev. Mr. Taylor, Pastor of the First Baptist Church. The Chairman introduced Elder W. W. Colley, late missionary to Central Africa and Corresponding Secretary of the Colored Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, who took as a text: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." He spoke of what Christ did during the forty days intervening between His resurrection and ascension. He said, if any people are pledged to the work of foreign missions it is the Missionary Baptist, whose very name they bear. He spoke of the facilities and possibilities of the evangelization of the heathen tribes of Africa; said that the Bible was in the hands of all civilized nations, but no nation or people enjoy more religious privileges than the people of this country. He spoke of the railroads, steamboats, telegraphs, printing press and various other means and instrumentalities with which God has provided us, all of which can be used in the evangelization of these benighted heathen people. He said that domestic slavery and cannibalism exist to an alarming extent in Central Africa, and that many and many a night had he lain upon the banks of the rivers among these heathen, who could not speak one word of English, nor he one word of their language; his only means of communication was by signs. Yet, he felt that God was with him, and that God had sent him there to bring them to Christ, even though it be through these imperfect and difficult means of communication. He told of an instance of one dark night; he was on a journey up one of the great rivers. "I remember," said he, "being on a journey, one dark night—so very dark that I put my hand as close as possible before my eyes to test the intensity of the darkness, but not even the dim outline was visible to me. Yet I knew that God's eye was upon me. The rain fell in great torrents, the wind howled through the trees of the dense forest, the vivid lightning flashed in every direction, and the heaviest peals of thunder I ever heard in my life echoed from hill to hill. The night was hideous beyond description. Its memory I shall never forget. Perhaps some of you might think that I wished myself at home. But far from it, though surrounded by these mighty and fierce savages and for all we knew within the territory of some fierce tribe of cannibals. Yet I felt supremely happy, because I knew I was in the hands of Him who governs the universe." He spoke of the 250 years of African slavery in this country, and of its hardships and toils, and asked if God had not permitted us to be brought here for some great and wise purpose. He asked his hearers did they think that their highest duty to God and man consists in the various revellings participated in by so many of our colored people. The time for action has come. Africa is our mother country, rich in every mineral substance. Its forests are filled with every kind of domestic and wild animals from the rat to the elephant; birds of the most beautiful plumage inhabit its forests; some of the mightiest rivers in the world are found there; the soil is unequalled elsewhere in the world. Here upon these mighty rivers I have seen mothers upon their knees worshipping hideous and venomous serpents. I have seen a mother cast her darling babe into the mouth of the boa constrictor and say in softest accents "swallow it softly." I have often heard the ignorant masses of our people compared with the heathen of Africa. Shame! shame! upon such utterances. There is not the least comparison whatever between our ignorant population and the heathen tribes of Africa. Here all classes and conditions of people have the Gospel preached to them; the heathen have never heard of Jesus Christ. Here they believe in God; there they bow down to wood and stone. Here we know what we worship; there they worship they know not what. At the close of the sermon he exhibited many specimens of African cloth, hats, caps, farming implements, idols, &c., all of which were very interesting and were highly appreciated by the vast congregation. Elder Colley is truly a great man and eminently fitted for the work in which he is engaged. He is well educated, a fluent speaker, and a consistent Christian. His whole heart is in the work, and therefore he is prepared to stir up the interest of foreign missions among our people. Elder Colley said that the white and colored people are both alike interested in this great work, and he hoped the time is not far distant when there will be no North, no South, no East, no West, no black, no white, but when all will join hearts and hands in the conversion of the heathen to God.

North Carolina colored Baptists will be well represented in the Foreign Mission Convention to meet in Knoxville, Tenn., on the 23d of next month, to appoint missionaries to Africa.

Personal
Dr. Bernheim's daughters, co-editors with him in his magazine, will leave here on Monday for the new home of the family, at Mt. Pleasant, in Cabarrus county, whither Mrs. Bernheim has already proceeded. It is, by the way, the old home of the family, as well as their new home. Dr. Bernheim as we stated yesterday, will not permanently leave us until January. He has not yet decided if he will accept the position tendered him by the North Carolina College. We are truly sorry that they are to leave us, and our best wishes for their future success and happiness are respectfully tendered to the reverend gentleman and his charming family.

One of the Old Men
The Chatham Record records the death at Pittsboro, on Friday last, of an old colored man who was well known to many hereabouts. We refer to Charles Hill, for many years previous to the war the carriage-driver of the late Dr. Fred. Hill. He was nearly 89 years old. The Record says:
He was the slave and faithful body-servant of the late Dr. F. J. Hill, formerly of Wilmington, who, dying in 1861, made liberal bequests in his will for his benefit. The deceased was honest and faithful, polite and courteous, and diligently endeavored to do his duty in the humble station in which it pleased God to call him. He was one of the few remaining "old time darkies," and was much respected by our white citizens, and never failed to vote the straight democratic ticket at every election.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.
At a regular meeting of the Hibernian Benevolent Association, the undersigned committee appointed for that purpose submitted the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, it has pleased an all-wise providence to remove from our midst our late Honorary President, Hon. JOHN DAWSON, therefore be it
Resolved, That in the death of Hon. JOHN DAWSON, this Society has lost one of the most eminent members that ever joined in its councils, an Irishman who while cherishing the greatest love for his native land and the traditions that cluster around it, was nevertheless devoted to the institutions of his adopted country, and was both eminent as a member of our Association and eminent among the citizens of his chosen home.
Resolved, That we will cherish the memory of our late Honorary President as that of a member who contributed in no small degree to the welfare of this Association. He was for many years its President, and active in promoting the objects of its formation.
Resolved, That a blank page of the minute book of this Association be inscribed with his age and date of death, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of deceased and be published in the Review and Star of this city.

ROUGH. N. C., Sept. 27, 1881
Mrs. JOE PERSON,
Franklin, N. C.
DEAR MADAM:—In reply to your letter asking what I think of your Remedy I would say that the sales have been very fair, and so far as I can learn the Remedy has been very satisfactory to my customers who have used it, especially so in the case of a little girl of this city, ten years of age, who was troubled for a long time with sores breaking out over the face and neck, having the appearance of Scrofula, and which had resisted the usual alternative treatment for a long time. She took four bottles of the Bitters last Spring, when the sores entirely disappeared, and up to this time she has had no return of them, her skin looking as fair and clear as anyone's.
Trusting that you may receive the success which your Remedy seems to merit, I am, very respectfully yours,
WM. SIMPSON,
