Mrs. JOE PERSON,
Franklinton, N. C.
DEAR MADAM:—In reply to your letter asking what I think of your Remedy, I would say that the sales have been very fair, and so far as I can learn, the Remedy has been very satisfactory to my customers who have used it, especially so in the case of a little girl of this city, ten years of age, who was troubled for a long time with sores breaking out over the face and neck, having the appearance of Scrofula, and which had resisted the usual alternative treatment for a long time. She took four bottles of the Bitters last Spring, when the sores entirely disappeared, and up to this time she has had no return of them, her skin looking as fair and clear as anyone's.
Trusting that you may receive the success which your Remedy seems to merit, I am, very respectfully yours,
WM. SIMPSON,
Druggist.

Day's length 10 hours and 45 minutes.
A man is judged by the company he keeps out of.

But one interment, an adult, in Bellevue this week.

Worth thinks plush is "outrageously unfit for bonnets."

utes past 5 o'clock.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,500 bales.

Two adults and one child interred this week in Oakdale cemetery.

Nature keeps the ocean tide, and that is why it does not run away like a river.

There were seven interments this week in Pine Forest, two adults and five children.

The latest thing in bon-bon boxes resembles a pair of partly folded kid gloves ready to put in the pocket.

Gold and silver threads are employed with fine effect in many of the dress goods displayed this season.

The Register of Deeds has issued marriage licenses this week for one white and one colored couple. In the latter instance the age of the man is given as 75 and that of the woman as 60.

It is intensely disgusting to find, after you have helped a poor old woman across the street, that the man standing on the corner watching you is not the man you are desirous of impressing.

"Rough on Rats."
The thing desired found at last. Ask druggist for Rough on Rats. It clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs,

We understand that enormous crops of corn and pumpkins were made this year on the river lands in Bladen county.
Those who planted them were fortunate as there has been no overflow this year.

CITY COURT.
Wm. James, a colored vagrant and a stranger here, was found last night asleep in a cart and was taken to the lock-up by a policeman. He was arraigned before the Mayor this morning and by his order discharged from custody. This was the only case for the consideration of the Court to-day.

So badly did my wife sprain her foot, writes Mr. P. Dinzler, Naples, N. Y., that it became greatly discolored. The swelling had enlarged to such an extent that she could not move, in which condition she was in bed for three weeks, when we commenced the use of St. Jacob's Oil which relieved her at once and removed the swelling; after using six bottles she was completely cured.

The River.
Steamers North State and Bladen were both here to-day, the former from Whitehall and the latter from Little Sugar Loaf. They both left this afternoon on the return trip. Capt. Daly, of the Bladen, reports a rise of seven inches at Little Sugar Loaf from Tuesday to Thursday, which fell off one inch on Thursday night.

It is announced that domestic china is not fit for drawing room decoration. We should hope not. Nothing would go against our grain like coming home hungry and finding all the domestic china hung up against the wall with nothing to eat on it.

A Pleasant Wedding.

The Episcopal church at this place was the scene, last night, of a most pleasant marriage. The bride was one of our most popular and accomplished village maidens—Miss Lucy M. Jackson, and the groom was one of the leading business men of Wilmington—Mr. J. H.
Currie. The bridal party presented a most beautiful and impressive tableau during the solemnization of the ceremony.
A pleasant reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, and early this morning the happy couple started on quite an extended Northern tour, accompanied by the best wishes of their many warm friends.—Pittsboro Record.

Sound repose is so essential to good health that we feel surprised to know any one would risk loss of rest from a Cough or Cold, when a bottle of Dr.
Bull's Cough Syrup would give refreshing slumber.

A Young Man Caned.

He is a young man, and is deservedly very popular. He has an excellent voice and is generally willing to lend it to any laudable purpose. His name is E. H.
Grant, called by his friends and intimates Dick, for short. He got into trouble the other day, however, with some of our Jewish citizens, and was to-day caned for it. The cane was laid, not across his shoulders, but into his broad, honest hand, and it was accompanied by a note, the kindly wording of which caused him to bow to the punishment inflicted, while a flush, not of shame, mounted to his manly forehead.

It is a black ebony cane with a gold head, beautifully carved and bearing the inscription: "R. H. Grant, from the Temple of Israel, October, 1881." The presentation was made to-day about 1 o'clock, very quietly, the tender being accompanied by the following note, which explains the obligation which the congregation have felt towards Mr. Grant: WILMINGTON, N. C. Oct. 29, 1881.
Mr. R. H. Grant,

DEAR SIR:—In the name of the Congregation, Temple of Israel, I present to you this gold headed cane as a token of respect for your kind and valuable services in participating in our choir during our late holidays. Hoping you may accept the same and use it in good health, with the best of wishes of myself as well as every member of the congregation, Very truly,
SOL. BEAR,
Pastor of Cong. Temple of Israel.

Forecast for November.
The weather is always a subject of interest, and is especially so at this time, when the Winter has lingered so long and so persistently in the lap of Summer.
A new weather prophet, one E. J.
Couch, has arisen New York. He has unbesommed himself to the Sun, and Couches his forecasts for November in unpleasant predictions. He says that the weather of November will be eventful and phenomenal. The first half of the month will give a continuous succession of storms. The most stormy days will be the 1st, 2d, 5th, 7th, 8th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 16th, 19th, 21st and 24th.
The month will open balmy but sirenlike.
The oscillations in temperature will be short and marked, ending with Arctic waves. Following the 12th, the snowfall will be general. After the 24th there will be more quiet days. There will be gales of wind on the 1st, 7th and 19th.
Brilliant auroras will be visible where the sky is clear, and earthquakes will occur at unusual places. There will be volcanic activity near the 1st, 7th, 11th, 16th, 19th and 21st. The earth's atmosphere will be subject to a trying ordeal, the result of distant disturbances in space, in circular and vibratory forms, but there will be no widespread devastation.
Damage will result principally from winds, floods and tidal waves.

Supreme Court.
In the Supreme Court at Raleigh, on Thursday, the consideration of appeals from this district was resumed and the following were among the cases called:
Alex. Oldham and wife vs. First National Bank et als. Defendants' appeal from New Hanover. Argued by McRae and Strange (by brief) and D. J. Devane for the plaintiffs, and E. S. Martin for the defendants.
Alex. Oldham and wife vs. First National Bank, et als. Plaintiffs' appeal

the defendants.

The Duplin Canal.

R. K. Bryan, Esq., of the Fayetteville Examiner, was in the city last week on route for a visit to his family at the Sound. He writes a very interesting editorial letter to his paper which is published in this week's issue of the Examiner. It is principally in reference to the Duplin Canal and we publish here a part of it:

On arriving at Wilmington, one of the first persons we met was Major Young the Engineer of the Duplin Canal improvement. He is at work with a force opening the canal, about four miles above Bannerman's Bridge, on the North East branch of Cape Fear River. The cut will be fifteen miles in length, across the bend of the river, which is sixty miles around; and the fall between the head of the canal and its foot can be made about thirty feet. This will give a powerful current to the water, which is expected to cut its way, deepening and widening the artificial channel now being prepared to receive it. It is believed that when this canal is finished to the mouth of Goshen, in Duplin county, a body of lands belonging to private individuals comprising more than seventy thousand acres and upwards of forty thousand acres of State lands will be drained. All the lands owned by citizens is mud or swamp land of good quality, and a considerable portion of the State lands is good for agricultural purposes. A sufficient sum has been subscribed to carry the canal two miles over the Duplin county line, and to drain ten thousand acres of land of the noted Gum Swamp lying partly in Duplin and partly in Duplin county.
When this work is accomplished and these lands drained, there will be a new Northwest brought to the very doors of Wilmington, from which corn in immense quantities may be obtained.

About the latter part of August Maj.
Young with R. T. Williams, Richard Armstrong and two colored men crossed the celebrated Holly Shelter swamp, entering on the Northwest side and coming out on the Southeast. This is the first time it has ever been crossed. They carried a compass to direct their course, two day's provisions, firearms, brier hooks, hatchets, &c., to cut away the dense underbrush. It took upwards of two and a half days to get through. They pursued a general Southeast course coming out of the Swamp on the Sound road about twenty-four miles from Wilmington. One bear, several deer and very many signs of both were seen by the members of the party. It commenced raining soon after they went into the swamp and continued raining the following day, so that they were kept drenched all the time. Two basins of rich mud land about one mile and a half in width, each, were discovered. Their drainage is northward in a direction opposite the general direction of the N. E. river. A considerable creek was found running through the basin lying nearest the river. The party had to cut down a tree to make a footway across the channel as it was deep and sluggish. There is very little doubt that there is locked in this obscure, and heretofore impenetrable, wilderness, many thousands of acres of good farming land. Drainage can be effected into the Northeast river. Maj.
Young has shown great perseverance in this enterprise of cutting the Duplin Canal, and we trust he will succeed, as the object is a most important one, and worthy the co-operation of all parties concerned.
