

THE DAILY REVIEW.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1931.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as Second-Class Matter.

There was an all-night Executive Session of the Senate last night, there being a dead-lock on the nomination of a postmaster for Lynchburg, Va.

The ruins of the Temple of Solomon in Jerusalem are to be restored, by special order of the Sultan, without further delay.

Haynes & Sanger made an assignment recently in New York. The schedule states the firm's liabilities to be $150,662.87; nominal assets, $133,907.34; actual assets, $92,947.84.

The Smokey lamp is an invention of a citizen of Natchez, of which the Natchez papers are loudly boasting. The lamp does not get its name from the fact that it is "smoky," but from the name of the gentleman who invented it.

A companion instrument to the telephone was one of the marvels of the electrical exhibition at Paris. It is called the dioscope. An objective lens is fitted in a theatre or other place containing the objects to be reproduced, and by means of an electric wire communication is established with a small white glass plate, which may be set in a frame or panel in a private drawing room at any distance from the building containing the objective lens.

In the course of comments on the plea of insanity in the Guiteau case, the World says: "It is noteworthy that it is only in cases of homicide that the defense of insanity is relied upon even by the most sanguine and ingenious counsel."

"Pay as you go" is good advice, and does very well for a man who doesn't go very much—Lowell Citizen. "Smith," said Brown, "there's a fortune in that mine." "I know," said Smith, "I've put my fortune in it."

Complete returns of the Ohio election show that the total vote of the State was 45,000 less than at the gubernatorial election of 1879. The falling off in the Republican vote for Governor is 23,526; in the Democratic vote 30,804; the Prohibition vote being 16,000 against 4,000 two years ago, and the National vote being some 7,000, against 9,000.

and Bookwater, instead of being weak, polled more votes than any other name on his ticket, and received 17,000 more votes than elected Bishop in 1877 by 22,000 majority.

The new Hotel de Ville of Paris, built on the site of the old one, which was burned by the Communists in 1871, is now approaching completion. All the outside work has been finished, and the fixtures of the interior are about to be put up.

NORTH CAROLINA AT ATLANTA.

Notwithstanding the failure of the State to make an appropriation for an exhibition of North Carolina's resources at Atlanta, says the News and Observer, our State will still make a creditable appearance at that grand Southern fair.

The Agricultural Department has made the necessary arrangements and the Old North State will hold her head well up alongside her sisters. Too much credit cannot be given to Commissioner McGehee, Prof. Kerr, Mr. Wilson and the others who have busied themselves in the matter for accomplishing these results under adverse circumstances.

This undertaking on the part of that road will inure to our benefit, and more than that, that company has been unusually liberal to the Department of Agriculture, giving free transportation for the whole of our State exhibit.

There will be in our State collection more than a hundred specimens of our native woods, and a fine collection of marbles and building stones, besides those rarer stones and minerals that are used in commerce or the arts.

Our exhibition was to be opened today, Governor Jarvis being present. We have reason to expect that it will attract unusual attention, and contribute largely to an increased knowledge of the resources of our State.

"Smith," said Brown, "there's a fortune in that mine." "I know," said Smith, "I've put my fortune in it." A Milwaukee clergyman asks: "Is it proper pronunciation to sound the 'r' in the word 'dorg'?"

A recipe for lemon pie vaguely adds: "Then sit on a stove and stir constantly." Just as if any one could sit on a stove without stirring constantly.—Oil City Derrick.

A fortunate fellow: Fogg says his friend Pingery is so slow that he never catches cold and couldn't get within hailing distance of the slowest of slow fevers.—Boston Transcript.

The Budget's Washington letter-writer says a lot of vouchers were found in an empty box in ex-Secretary Robeson's cellar. That is the most remarkable find on record.—Boston Globe.

Poots thinks that there should be four ghosts in the play of Hamlet, quoting in support of his theory a line from Grey's Elegy: "The rude four fathers of the Hamlet sleep."—Cincinnati Saturday Night.

The Power of the Press. In no way is the power of the press more surely shown than in the universal knowledge that has in less than a year, been diffused throughout fifty millions of people of the wonderful curative properties of that splendid remedy Kidney-Wort.
