Mrs. Joe Person,
Franklinton, N. C.

DEAR MADAME:—In reply to your letter asking what I think of your Remedy, I would say that the sales have been very fair, and so far as I can learn, the Remedy has been very satisfactory to my customers who have used it, especially so in the case of a little girl of this city, ten years of age, who was troubled for a long time with sores breaking out over the face and neck, having the appearance of Scrofula, and which had resisted the usual alterative treatment for a long time. She took four bottles of the Bitters last Spring, when the sores entirely disappeared, and up to this time she has had no return of them, her skin looking as fair and clear as anyone's.
Trusting that you may receive the success which your Remedy seems to merit, I am, very respectfully yours,

The Pacific Coast Happy.
On the Pacific Coast we have known people who had not stirred from their beds for six weeks, on account of inflammatory Rheumatism, to be cured in less than one week by St. Jacobs Oil,—says Max Raumeister, Esq., Walla Walla, Wash. Terr.

Unmailable
Unmailable matter, addressed as follows, remains in the Postoffice in this city:

N. H.; Charlie Justice, Northampton
Co.; Betsey Williams, Fayetteville, N.
C.; Albert Williams, Columbia, S. C.

some Changes.
Our clever young friend, Mr. James W. Monroe, clerk at the Produce Exchange, has secured a position in Messrs.
James H. Chadborn & Co's office and will begin with them to-morrow. He is succeeded in the position he vacates by Mr. McRee Cowan, youngest son of the late Col. Robert H. Cowan.

All Saint's Day.
In the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches to-day is known as the Festival of All Saints. It was observed by services in the various churches of these denominations this forenoon, and this afternoon the congregations of the various Episcopal churches assembled for joint services at the Lodge, in Oakdale Cemetery, after which floral decorations were placed on the graves of the departed.
To-morrow will be celebrated in the Catholic churches as All Souls' Day.

Some Potato.

Mr. John Barnes showed us this morning a monster potato which was grown by him, on his premises, in the Southern part of the city. It weighs 4 pounds and 13 ounces and measures around, one way, 15 inches, and another, 25 inches.
In shape it is very much like a dressed turkey and, indeed, it is almost as large as some dressed turkeys we have seen offered for sale here. Such potatoes should be sold by the pound instead of by the measure.

The proof of the value of any article is its popular use and the testimony in its favor. The sale of Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup is immense and the testimony voluninous.

A Memento.
A friend who was at Yorktown has laid before us a copy of a little sheet sold there which is an exact reproduction of the copy of the Ulster County Gazette, dated Saturday, January 4, 1800, containing an account of the interment of Gen. Washington's remains at Mt Vernon, as also the proceedings in Congress when the announcement of his death was made. The imitation of the ancient publication is very exact. Our friend bought the "counterfeit presentment" as a memento of the Yorktown Centennial.

Made from harmless materials, and adapted to the needs of fading and falling hair, Parker's Hair Balsam has taken the first rank as an elegant and reliable hair restorative.

Forepaugh's Show.
We were pleased to receive a call yesterday from Col. Walter Southgate, an old Confederate officer and journalist, but now Press Agent for Forepaugh's great show. This fine circus, it will be remembered, is to be with us on the Saturday of next week, the 12th inst., and we have every reason to believe that it will be the best thing of the kind we have had in many years. We have Col.
Southgate's assurance, and also that of Mr. R. S. Dingess, the General Director, on two very essential points, which are that the most perfect order will be kept, not one word being allowed in the ring which will shock the most delicate ear, and that the performance will not close until the regular features of the entertainment are exhausted. The programme will not, on any account, be cut short, which is a gratifying assurance, and one which will have its due weight.

I have the utmost confidence in the mails. Enclose $1, for two boxes, or $2.50 postoffice order for six boxes of Celery and Chamomile pills and I will take all the risk for money and goods. Dr.
C. W. Benson, 106 North Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md.

Railroad!
We notice in a Bristol (Va.) paper that at a meeting of the Bristol & North Carolina Narrow Gauge Railway Company, held October 26th, Gen. J. D. Imboden was elected President of that company. This road is to form part of the great line from the Ohio river to the Atlantic coast to be constructed by the South Atlantic Railway and Construction Company, which secured a charter last winter from the Legislature of this State.

This line, it must be understood, is separate and distinct from that which it is proposed to construct from Cincinnati to Wilmington by those who have it in projection to purchase the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R.

Gen. Imboden, it will be remembered, endeavored last winter to purchase this road for the company he represents, but failed, and we have since understood that the probability is that they will build their own line to the coast. We have reason to think that Wilmington will be the point at which they aim, although we do not know what route they will take.
From all the information we can gather from newspapers and other sources, we are inclined to think the Ohio and South Atlantic Railroad Company are acting with caution and much prudence in the location of a route for their road. They seem to be spending much time and money in surveying, to ascertain the best and cheapest route for their purposes.
When this is accomplished and the fact thoroughly demonstrated, they will go ahead and, perhaps, not until then. In the meantime it would be well for Wilmington to consider the propriety of extending the friendly hand of invitation, and even more if necessary.

This month has five Tuesdays and five Wednesdays.

Fish Culture.

On the 10th day of March last, Mr.
Bryant Merritt, one of the substantial and successful farmers of Samason county, received from the Fish Commissioner of the State, Mr. S. G. Worth, nine pairs of German carp. When first received the fish averaged about two and a half inches in length. Mr. Merritt placed them in a small pond near his house, which he had previously prepared for their reception. The pond covers an area of about one-fourth of an acre, and in the deepest part is about five feet deep. In this small sheet of water the fish have lived and thrived ever since, having as their companions five of the common red perch. As they were placed in the water at a time when he was very busy with his crop operations for the season, Mr. Merritt paid but little attention to them for some months, but they were regularly fed by members of his family during the time. In the hot months of the Summer the carp would come to the surface eagerly whenever they were fed, so that a good opportunity was afforded to witness their rapid growth; but since the nights have grown longer and the surface water has become consequently cooler they prefer the warmer, deeper water, though they will occasionally come to the surface on bright, sunny days. By invitation of Mr. Merritt, we recently visited his pond and, the day being warm and sunny, had an opportunity of seeing the carp. The older ones were from twelve to fifteen inches in length, while there were myriads of smaller ones, ranging from one to three inches in length.
It is reasonable to presume that a relative portion of these "small fry" were young perch; but, admitting this, there remains enough of the carp to make, in the course of two or three years, a pond full without the perch. Why they are called "German carp" we are at a loss to understand, as they came originally from Persia, in Asia, and from thence were first introduced into England, and subsequently, throughout the countries of continental Europe.

The Fox Chase.

The weather yesterday was so inclement that there was talk of postponing the fox chase which had been arranged by the Wilmington Fox Club for that afternoon and at our close then it was not known positively if it would take place. But the break-up of the clouds decided the matter and the party sallied forth in high spirits. The run was made from a spot near McLhenny's mill pond in the lower part of the city, where the fox was turned loose. The distance covered was about eight miles and the sport was very exciting. It was finally closed near Messrs. Hart, Bailey & Co's vineyard, about four miles below the city, when the fox was caught, Mr. E. G.
Barker being awarded the brush. There was quite a large turnout among the lovers of the sport and among the number were several ladies. About $75 was realized for the benefit of the exchequer of the Club.

The last of the cargo of iron brought here for the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley R. R., but which was afterwards sold to the Florida Western R. R. is now being shipped at this port for the latter road.
