We believe it is the style to affect contempt for things that are old. Not so, however, with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which has stood the popular test of 34 years use, and is more thought of than ever before.

Sampson Fair convenes at Clinton tomorrow (Wednesday) and will continue three days.

Beautify your names by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted. Sold only at JACOBI'S.

Only one case before the Mayor this morning and that was for neglect to pay the city tax.

The steamship Gulf Stream, Capt. Ingram, from New York, arrived at her wharf in this city at about 11 o'clock this morning.

The popular craze now is a two cent red stamp and a one cent blue stamp on a white envelope. This is especially the correct thing where young ladies and gentlemen correspond. The blending of the colors, red, white and blue means union.

We are requested to call attention of the members of the W. L. I. to the advertisement in another column. It is specially desired that members of the organization, honorary members and particularly the Veteran Corps should be in attendance at 10 o'clock A. M. sharp. Active members should be in uniform complete.

Unavailable
Unavailable matter, addressed as follows, remains in the Postoffice in this city:

One dove colored envelope, illegibly addressed; one white colored envelope with no address; Emma Singleton, Charleston, S. C.; Smith Lane, No. 4.

Church Festival.
As will be seen by advertisement in another column, the ladies connected with the Fifth Street M. E. Church will hold a festival to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at Rankin Hall, for the benefit of the Church. They promise a good time and will supply their patrons with oysters, ice cream, cakes and other delicacies. We trust they may have, as they richly deserve, a good attendance.

That even the form of trial by jury is not perfectly free from prejudice, is believed by some. But in our section, St. Jacobs Oil has been tried by that great jury—the public—and been judged the infallible cure for Rheumatism and all painful diseases.

A New Club.
Some of the young gentlemen of this city met last night and formed a new organization, to be known as "L'Ariseo German Club," and elected the following officers:

President—J. M. Cronly.
Vice President—C. B. Wright.
Secretary and Treasurer—F. L. Meares.
Leader—J. G. Bradley.
Governing Committee—J. M. Cronly, C. B. Wright, F. L. Meares, E. J. Lilly, Jr., Dr. Fairfax Irwin, L. P. Davis and W. C. Jones.

Their first German will be given in Germania Hall, on the 23d inst.

The Club starts with a large membership, and in a flourishing condition.

Sol Smith Russell.
This distinguished and versatile comedian, who is well and favorably known to most of our readers, will appear at the Opera House to-night in a new play, written expressly for him, and in which he takes the principal character. In speaking of his appearance in "Edgewood Folks" the New York Commercial Advertiser says:

Mr. Abbey's new Park Theatre was reopened last night. The play chosen for the occasion was one entitled "Edgewood Folks," written for Mr. Sol Smith Russell by Mr. J. E. Brown, of Boston. The dramatist has succeeded admirably, and Mr. Russell last night appeared to excellent advantage as Tom Dilloway, the hero of the play. Every sketch, and a more heterogeneous lot it would be difficult to imagine, was received with hearty applause and honest delight, and so thoroughly did he conceal his own individuality in many of his disguises, especially in that of Deacon Assalombard, as to deceive a great portion of the vast audience. Mr. Russell is surrounded by an excellent company.

The Result of Exposure.

We regret to learn that Mr. J. G. Hashagan, who represented the government as Signal Officer in the balloon ascension of Prof. King, some weeks since, and who at one time was given up as lost in the wilds of Michigan, has been confined to his bed ever since from illness caused by his sufferings and exposure during that perilous flight and his subsequent wanderings through the forests and swamps.

The Editor of this paper grieves to announce to the public the death of his companion, associate and brother, THEODORE CALHOUN JAMES. The sad event was very sudden and unexpected, but a few short hours intervening between the announcement of his actual condition and his last breath. He died of apoplexy. For several days past, although at his desk in this office, he had been suffering intensely with a pain in his head which he and all of us thought was facial neuralgia and which was treated as such. We now know, alas! too late, that it was but the premonitions of apoplexy, and that the trouble was from the brain and not from the facial nerves. He was found on his bed unconscious yesterday morning and died yesterday afternoon, at 5:35 o'clock.

He had been the Associate Editor on this paper for nearly five years. Brothers as we were, of very nearly the same age, raised together, schooled together, in camp together during the first year of the war and intimately associated in business during the past five years, our grief is simply inexpressible. Of his virtues—for he had many—let others speak:

THEODORE CALHOUN JAMES.

Seldom has that solemn admonition, "In the midst of life we are in death" been more forcibly illustrated than on the sudden demise of him whose early taking off we are now called upon to mourn. In the full strength of vigorous manhood, with the prospect of a long and useful career shining up before him, his light has been suddenly quenched and he has passed from among us ere yet his sun had reached its zenith. The ways of Providence are too inscrutable for man's limited capacity; we dare not question them, and however grievous the stroke may be we can only bow in submission to His will who we know doeth all things well.

The subject of this brief notice was a native of Wilmington, the second son of Mr. John S. James, of this city, and was born August 16th, 1841. He was but a youth when the war broke out, but was among the first to volunteer his services in defense of that cause which he believed to be truly just. How he bore himself in the positions in the army that he was called upon to fill, his comrades and superior officers under whom he served are the best, the truest and the most impartial judges; and how well he played his part in that great and bloody drama could be seen or all men, for he bore upon his person the evidence of that fearful conflict through which he had passed so gallantly. He was ardent in temperament, impulsive and high-toned, chivalric and with a keen sense of honor, as all positive natures are, quick to resent an indignity, either real or fancied, but equally prompt to make reparation when convinced of his error. Fidelity to his friends was with him a cardinal virtue. It shone forth in every action of his life, but it was in the home circle that the unselfishness of his character was most beautifully displayed. Nothing could exceed his tender affection for parents and kindred; no sacrifice was too great for their comfort or pleasure. A sombre shadow now rests upon that but yesterday happy fireside. Private griefs are too sacred for the public eye; they are for the heart only, and for God. To that God who doth not willingly afflict, we commend the heart-broken sufferers, knowing that He and He alone can give strength sufficient to sustain them under their grievous bereavement.

A FRIEND.

DEATH OF THEODORE CALHOUN JAMES.
Our community will be shocked to learn of the sudden death of this well-known gentleman, which occurred at his father's residence last night at about 6 o'clock. He had been complaining since Wednesday last of what he and the family thought was a severe attack of neuralgia in the head. He had taken sedatives in moderate doses during several days, and on Sunday night took a pill administered by a physician. He went Improving.

We are happy to learn that Mr. James Sprunt is slowly improving. He was resting well at our last report and is doing as well as could reasonably be expected.

Magistrate's Court.

Albert Herring and Mary Ray, both colored, were before the court this morning, the former for larceny and the latter for receiving stolen property, which consisted of clothing stolen from Archie Ellerby, colored, who lives near the corner of Dock and Seventh streets. The articles were found in Mary Ray's possession, and both defendants were committed to jail, to await their trial, which will take place on Saturday, the 19th inst.

There was one trifling case of assault and battery before Justice Millis this morning, which was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor. We suppress the names of the parties implicated by request.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. Monroe Taylor. This house has been established nearly 40 years, and their goods are celebrated for purity and strength. We would recommend a trial of their Gold Medal brand to all who desire superior cookery.

"JUST IMAGINE HOW I FELT."
BRUNSWICK, CO., VA.,
November 5th, 1881.
MRS. JOE PEARSON,

Franklinton, N. C.
DEAR MADAM:—It is with pleasure I that write to tell you that your valuable Remedy has entirely cured me of a most fearful looking and painful sore on my ankle. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm. I painted it with Tinct. Iodine, until it became a very painful and bad looking place. Then I commenced to try everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful I could scarcely walk when I went to the best doctor in the country for advice. He told me he could cure me if I would take my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do so pretty soon, it could not be cured at all, as the bone would become diseased, and my foot would have to be taken off. Just imagine how I felt, to be told there was no cure for the sore but to lose my foot, or give up all business—either of these Remedies would have ruined me. Mind you this was the advice of one of the best doctors in the State of North Carolina, and this conversation took place last February. I continued to burn with caustic, as he advised until September but derived no benefit from his treatment. I was advised then by a friend to try your Remedy, (Bitters and Wash) took the first dose the 17th of September, and I am now a well man, the sore is perfectly cured, and I can now walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man you know. Put me back to the 1st of September, let me know as much as I now do of the virtue of your Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars a bottle for it, if I could not get it for less. I think more of it than any medicine in the world. It is not only the best Remedy to purify the blood and cure all skin diseases, but I believe it will cure all kinds of blood diseases, and I know it will cure a love for strong drink. I hope you will have this published, as there are many sufferers who could be cured, if they could know of and get your Remedy. I am truly and respectfully,
JOS. B. MASON,
South Gaston, N. C.
