 No City Court to-day.
 Nothing doing in magisterial circles to-day.
 No Raleigh News and Observer yesterday.
 Wood is scarce and high in the market this morning.
 This morning was decidedly cool, and overcoats were in demand.
 A good many strangers from along the line of the Carolina Central are in the city to-day.
 We are glad to note that the condition of Mr. James Sprunt continues to improve.
 Sudden changes of temperature are very productive of Coughs and Colds, which always yield however, very promptly to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.
 It is estimated that more than 1,000 ladies are engaged in making slippers for their respective pastors.
 It was expected that Senator Vance would be in the city to-day, but he failed to put in an appearance.
 It is stated as a fact that a milliner has died of brain fever trying to find out how many shapes in bonnets there are.
 Beautify your names by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted. Sold only at JACOBS'.
 A country clergyman prayed: "Oh Lord, help us in our attempt to eliminate Thy word." He thought "eliminate" meant to explain.
 According to the dentists, human teeth are degenerating at such a rapid rate that in a few generations babies will be born with false sets.
 Freshwater Perch, Trout and Black fish Hooks and Lines. A full assortment and lowest prices at JACOBS'.
 A young lady's hat blew off and was run over by a broad wheeled cart. The ribbons were somewhat soiled, but the hat is now regarded as the very latest autumn shape.
 A nice new fence has just been completed around the St. Mark's Episcopal Church, colored, on the corner of Sixth and Mulberry streets, which adds much to its appearance.
 The only man we know of who doesn't want the credit for the work he does is the burglar. He is quite willing that some other fellow should have the name of doing his work.
 It is said that linen dusters can be made available for winter use by filling the pockets with Limburger cheese. Heat is superinduced by running to get away from the smell.
 Will the coming man use St Jacobs Oil? We think he will, if he has rheumatism.
 It is admitted that the strongest glass will sustain 2,000 pounds to the square inch, but it cannot be denied that it has also been known to twist a man's leg so that he could not walk.
 The report that the French visitors to the Yorktown centennial went into a railroad station restaurant the other day and called for railroad "frogs" is an infirm contrivance of the foe.
 Managers of church festivals having heard that the oyster crop was injured by the drouth, are prepared to give each oyster a plenty of water as soon as opened. The water will be served hot at the usual rate.
 Spirits of turpentine, which were quoted at 52½ cents per gallon at Monday's sale, tumbled yesterday to 51 cents, but later in the day rallied to 51½ cents, which was one cent lower than on the previous day.
 An exchange thinks it always seems wrong at a wedding that the bride cannot marry the "best man." Oh, no. She marries the groom. If there was a coachman present no doubt she would marry him. It's all right.
Decline of Man.
 Impotence of mind, limb, or vital function, nervous weakness, sexual debility, &c., cured by Wells' Health Renewer, $1. At Druggists. Depot Jas. C. Munds.

A Big Haul.

Yesterday evening, between sunset and dark, at Masonboro Beach, there was landed from one hauling of the seine, six hundred bunches of roe mullets and about one hundred bunches of small ones.

Second Crop.

Mr. F. M. James, of the police force, has an apple tree in his garden, in the southeastern section of the city, upon which there is a second crop of apples, of this year's growth, some of which are nearly grown.

Unmailable

Unmailable matter, addressed as follows, remains in the Postoffice in this city:
 R. J. Moses, Jr., New York, N. Y.; Edward P. Tucker, No. 7 Primus Av.; Rev. Dr. & Mrs. T. C. Teasdale, Knoxville, Tenn.

Death of a Stranger.

Mr. H. Reese, of Johnstown, N. Y., who has been sick with consumption for a number of years, and was advised by his physicians to seek the warmer climate of the South, arrived in this city on the 4th inst. He was accompanied by his wife and took board with Mrs. J. W. Macomber, on the corner of Chestnut and Seventh streets, where he died at about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The deceased was about 42 years of age. The remains were forwarded to his former home, in Johnstown, last evening, for interment.

The Ideal.

For singing classes and musical conventions. By L. Q. Emerson. Price 75 cents. Published by Oliver Ditson & Co.
 Mr. Emerson has just issued two new music books. They are in many respects companion books, and have been compiled for choirs and singing classes respectively. The Herald of Praise is the name of the Church music book, while the Ideal is the title of the new book for the singing class. The only difference between them is that the Ideal is considerably smaller and more convenient to handle, and contains those portions of the contents of the Herald of Praise more particularly fitted for use in singing classes. The ability of the author of the Ideal is unquestioned, and when we consider his wonderfully large and varied experience with musical societies and conventions, and his success as a teacher and composer, we need not fear for the fate of this new book. There is, as usual, a practical "singing school course," together with Hymn tunes, Anthems, and Spiritual songs of the best quality, recreative pieces of a secular nature for practice, and a choice collection of miscellaneous music for social gatherings and concert singing. The music is new, interesting and entertaining, and has been selected from the best and most reliable sources, and will be sure to fill a very acceptable place in the work of the singing school for some time to come. Teachers should not fail to send for a specimen copy at once.

Police Uniforms.

The police of this city made their first appearance, this morning, in their new winter uniforms. They were made by Messrs. John Dyer & Son, at their tailoring establishment in this city, and are of gray cloth. The uniform is a single breasted frock coat with standing collar and brass buttons; the pants are of the same material, but made plain; the hat is black, high crowned, stiff, and ornamented in front with a wreath, in the centre of which is the number. A cord of black and gold surrounds the hat, the ends of which terminate in a tassel of the same material. The dress is very becoming and looks as though it might do good service.

The Water Works.

The trial of the water works, which were announced to be tested at 2 o'clock this afternoon, before a committee consisting of Alderman Huggins, and Capt. F. G. Robinson and Ed. W. Manning of the Fire Department, preparatory to being turned over by the contractor to the city government, has been postponed until the same hour to-morrow afternoon. The different companies of the Fire Department, as will be seen by advertisement in another column, will be in attendance and apparatus placed in position by which the exact altitude of the streams of water thrown may be ascertained.

At Rest.

All that was mortal of the deceased Associate Editor of this paper was consigned to the grave this forenoon. The sorrowful services were held at St. James' Church, and from thence the sad cortege wended its melancholy way to the hallowed precincts of Oakdale—the silent and beautiful last home of so many of our honored dead. There he sleeps, not far from that grim soldier, who stands in silent watch over those beneath him, and which was to our departed one the representative of so much that he had delighted to honor, and for which he had so willingly suffered and bled. He sleeps well, for no nobler, knightlier, or truer heart than his ever beat. ***

At the Opera House.

Sol Smith Russell's appearance last night as Tom Dilloway, in "Edge-wood Folks," was greeted by an unusually large audience, as might have been expected. He is well known to Wilmington audiences, and few actors are more deservedly popular with our theatre going people. In his particular line of comedy he stands unrivalled. His personations last night were excellent and his protean changes truly wonderful. He possesses the happy faculty of keeping his audience in the best of humor, all the time, and without any coarse or indelicate expressions. There seems to be a magnetism in his mirth which attracts and captivates his hearers. This was apparent throughout the entire performance. Mr. Russell was well supported—much better than leading characters are usually supported by traveling companies—which increased the interest in the performance. We hope we may see him here again before long, and bespeak for him a good house whenever he comes to Wilmington.
