"JUST IMAGINE HOW I FELT."
BRUNSWICK, Co., Va.,
November 5th, 1881.
Mrs. JON PRINCE,
Franklinton, N. C.

DEAR MADAM:—It is with pleasure that I write to tell you that your valuable Remedy has entirely cured me of a most fearful looking and painful sore on my ankle. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm.
I painted it with Tinct. Iodine, until it became a very painful and bad looking place. Then I commenced to try everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful I could scarcely walk. When I went to the best doctor in the country for advice. He told me he could cure me if I would take my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do so pretty soon, it could not be cured at all, as the bone would become diseased, and my foot would have to be taken off. Just imagine how I felt, to be told there was no cure for the sore but to lose my foot, or give up all business—either of these Remedies would have ruined me. Mind you this was the advice of one of the best doctors in the State of North Carolina, and this conversation took place last February. I continued to burn with caustic, as he advised until September, but derived no benefit from his treatment.
I was advised then by a friend to try your Remedy, (Bitters and Wash) took the first dose the 17th of September, and I am now a well man, the sore is perfectly cured, and I can now walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man you know. Put me back to the 1st of September, let me know as much as I now do of the virtue of your Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars a bottle for it, if I could not get it for less. I think more of it than any medicine in the world. It is not only the best Remedy to purify the blood and cure all skin diseases; but I believe it will cure all kinds of blood diseases, and I know it will cure a love for strong drink.
I hope you will have this published, as there are many sufferers who could be cured, if they could know of and get your Remedy I am truly and respectfully, Yours,
JOS. B. MASON,
South Gaston, N. C.

Death of Mr. J. Ghost Elliot.
We regret to learn, as we do from the Goldboro Messenger, of the death, in Pitt county, on the 13th inst., of the venerable and well-known teacher, Mr.
John [Ghost] Elliot. He was 84 years of age. Mr. Elliot was well-known and highly esteemed in this city and section.

No Rubbing Out the Record.
When a substance has certain powers claimed for it, and everybody testifies that it does more than is claimed for it, to gainsay its worth is useless. This is the substance of St. Jacobs Oil record.

Worth Knowing.
It is said that a poison of any conceivable description and degree of potency, which has been swallowed intentionally or by accident; may be rendered instantly harmless by swallowing two gills of sweet oil. An individual with a very strong constitution should take twice the quantity. The oil will neutralize every form of vegetable poison with which the physicians and chemists are acquainted.
Cut this out and save it; you might have great cause for congratulation for doing so.

The N. C. Conference.
Rev. Dr. Yates, Rev. T. P. Ricard, Rev. E. T. Scheuken, Rev. F. A. Bishop, Rev. J. W. Craig, Capt. W. M. Parker and Mr. J. H. Mallard have all gone to Durham to attend the Conference, which meets there to-morrow. The following which we clip from the Fayetteville Examiner, will be interesting in this connection:

Up to 1887, there was no North Carolina conference, all the States being embraced in the Virginia, Holston and South Carolina conferences. In February of that year, the North Carolina conference was set off from the Virginia conference, taking the Danville district from the State of Virginia. In 1850 the southeastern part of the State, embracing Wilmington and Fayetteville, was transferred from the South Carolina conference. In 1868 the Danville district was ceded to the Virginia conference.
In 1870 the south-western part of the State, embracing Wadesboro, Charlotte, Shelby, Morganton, etc., was transferred to the North Carolina conference. The Holston conference still holds all of North Carolina beyond the Blue Ridge, and Virginia all beyond the Roanoke River and Albemarle Sound, embracing Edenton, Elizabeth City, etc. In 1880 there were reported 67,459 white members in the North Carolina conference, and 14,458 in the Holston and Virginia territory in this State, making an aggregate of 81,917 white members of the M.
E. Church South, in North Carolina.
This estimate does not embrace the Protestant Methodists, the Northern Methodists and the three colored Methodist organizations in the State. Their membership is believed to aggregate some 50,000 or 75,000, making a total of some 135,000 Methodists in the State.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 2,130 bales.

The Carolina Central.
We still live in hopes that the Carolina Central will yet penetrate to Rutherfordton, and that, too, before very many more moons have waxed and waned, although we fear that there is but little hope for such a consummation just at this time. The people there are very anxious to be let out of the woods by that route. Here is what the Rutherfordton Banner has to say in response to some recent remarks of ours:

Friend James has our thanks and the thanks of our people for bringing to notice, at the other end of the line, their wants and position on railroad matters.
We are pleased to learn that the matter of an extension of the Carolina Central is considered one of interest to the people of Wilmington, as well as of future benefit to that city. Our people are earnestly seeking an outlet, and it will give them pleasure to know that some interest is being felt in Wilmington for a connection of the seaboard with the mountains.

It is a matter of vital importance to our people that the county of Rutherford secure connection with the railroad world at an early date. She has waited long and patiently, until now she is surrounded on nearly every hand by railroads, while her pet scheme (the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad) slipped away from her almost while she was moving the dirt and grading the road.
Her bonds, given towards building this line, are yet being paid, together with the interest on the same from year to year; and for these thousands of dollars she gets no return. While this is regarded in the light of a misfortune, and while the present management may not be to blame, yet our people feel that they should receive some consideration at their hands, in the matter of an extension of the road to Rutherfordton—the terminus of the line under the original charter.

When the W., C. & R. Railroad was projected, it was the pride of our whole section that it was to be a "North Carolina" road; that it was for the up-building of Wilmington as our great seaport.
At the same time Spartanburg was offering us connection with Charleston, but so great was the jealousy between the States, that the W., C. & R. Railroad carried the day in favor of our own port—Wilmington. Much of the jealousy of that day has died away, yet our people would be rejoiced to see the old scheme carried out, and would take pride in contributing to the already great and increasing prosperity of Wilmington, the wealth of her forests, her mines and her farms.

We are only 24 miles from Shelby, and a good portion of the old line has been graded. This grade could be turned to good account in the extension of the road, and under skillful management and the improved methods of railroad building should give us a road at a nominal cost.

Let us hope, friend James, that the extension may soon be made, and that you will come up among us and "Review" our people daily.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. Monroe Taylor.
This house has been established nearly 40 years, and their goods are celebrated for purity and strength. We would recommend a trial of their Gold Medal brand to all who desire superior cookery.

We saw a fine watermelon this morning, as late as it is in the season. It was sent to the city as a present to Mr.
Harry Loeb. He intends to "bust" it on Thanksgiving Day.

Wedding Bells.
Our genial friend, Mr. J. H. Mallard, was married this morning to Miss Davidette Smith. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's stepfather, Mr. John M. Henderson, and was performed by Rev. Dr. Yates. The happy couple left on the early train to attend Conference at Durham.

Painful Injury.
We are sorry to learn that Mr. E. G.
Barnitz met with a very painful injury this morning at Messrs. Altaffer, Price & Co's sash and blind factory. He was feeding a planing mill at the time when some heavy lumber near by fell and crushed his foot. He was conveyed to his home and surgical attendance summoned. We have not yet learned the extent of his injuries but trust that they are not serious.

Personal.
Hon. Jos. B. Batchelor, of Raleigh, was here on Sunday on a brief visit to his daughter, Mrs. Harry Loeb. He left yesterday on his return home.

Capt. Jno. W. Hinson, of Hinson & Blount, cotton factors, New York, is in the city to-day, en route for Texas, where he goes in the interest of his house.
We were pleased to see him looking so well.

Dr. H. T. Bahson, of Salem, Secretary of the State Board of Medical Examiners, is here on a short visit, and is the guest of Dr. Thos. F. Wood.
