"JUST IMAGINE HOW I FELT."
BRUNSWICK, Co., Va.,
November 5th, 1881.
[Mrs. Joe Person.]

Franklinton, N. C.
DEAR MADAM:—It is with pleasure that I write to tell you that your valuable Remedy has entirely cured me of a most fearful looking and painful sore on my ankle. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm.
I painted it with Tinct. Iodine, until it became a very painful and bad looking place. Then I commenced to try everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful I could scarcely walk, when I went to the best doctor in the country for advice. He told me he could cure me if I would take my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do so pretty soon, it could not be cured at all, as the bone would become diseased, and my foot would have to be taken off. Just imagining how I felt, to be told there was no cure for the sore but to lose my foot, or give up all business—either of these remedies would have ruined me. Mind you this was the advice of one of the best doctors in the State of North Carolina, and this conversation took place last February. I continued to burn with caustic, as he advised until September, but derived no benefit from his treatment.
I was advised then by a friend to try your Remedy, (Bitters and Wash) took the first dose the 17th of September, and I am now a well man, the sore is perfectly cured, and I can now walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man you know. Put me back to the 1st of September, let me know as much as I now do of the virtue of your Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars a bottle for it, if I could not get it for less. I think more of it than any medicine in the world. It is not only the best Remedy to purify the blood and cure all skin diseases, but I believe it will cure all kinds of blood diseases, and I know it will cure a love for strong drink.
I hope you will have this published, as there are many sufferers who could be cured, if they could know of and get your Remedy I am truly and respectfully, JOS. E. MASON,
South Gaston, N. C.

The Remedy is for sale in Wilmington Yesterday was a bright, pleasant and balmy day.

Fruit are scarce, retailing here at 20 cents a dozen.

It looks as though watermelons will be in order for Xmas dinner.

Dressed-pork is beginning to come in now in large quantities.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,473 bales.

Myrtle Grove oysters have been retailing here for 80 cents a bushel.

The man who knows you well may forget all about you when you are ill.

Spirits turpentine was again to-day at 54 cents, the market closing firm at those figures.

An important meeting of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, K. of P., is called for this evening.

The Charlotte Thompson troupe will play "The Planter's Wife", in Charlotte December 2nd.

The matrimonial market is very active. They call it "market" because the men are sold.

Wheat is "thrashed" for the purpose of getting out the grain; a boy is "thrashed" to get out the chaff.

When you have a thing to do, do it; and when you have a cough to cure, cure

Jim Clark, more familiarly known as "Lemonade Jim", from the fact of his having been for many years past a peripa-etic vendor of that beverage, died yesterday morning at a house in the South eastern part of the city.

By notice published elsewhere in this issue, it will be seen that Messrs. Hart, Bailey & Co. have engaged a competent and experienced plumber from the North and will hereafter combine with their present business that of plumbing and gas-fitting. They guarantee first-class work.

Strange If True,
That pain and suffering will be tolerated for years, in some cases when a simple means would eradicate all discomfort. Mr. John L. Barry, Foreman Bowker, Torrey & Co., Bowker St. Steam Marble Works, Boston Mass., thus writes: I have suffered with rheumatism for years, and found no cure until I tried the Great German Remedy, St. Jacobs Oil. I used it and am now entirely well.

There is a remarkable family of seven brothers and two sisters residing within short distances of one another in Oswego county, remarkably in point of longevity, their united ages being 672 years, and their circle never having been invaded by death.

Sale of Bank Stock.

Mr. A. R. Campbell, Administrator on the estate of the late John Dawson sold at public auction to-day forty shares of bank stock owned by the decedent. The stock sold for 104 per $100 which is just $25 per share, the par value being $25.

Judge Brooks

We are glad to learn that Judge Brooks, who, it will be remembered, was too ill to hold the Federal Court in this city at the recent term, has recovered, and will be able to preside with Judge Bond at Raleigh, this week, at the session of the Circuit Court.

The Revenue Service.

First Lieutenant H. D. Smith has recently relieved First Lieutenant F. M.
Munger, on the revenue cutter Colfax, at this station. Lieut. Smith's family arrived here yesterday.

Lieut. Munger goes to Eastport, Me., having been assigned to the cutter Woodbury, on duty in those waters.
He is a clever, social and genial gentleman, and we trust that he may return to us some of these days.

City Court.

Before the Mayor this morning, James Burnett, colored, was arraigned for disorderly conduct. He was fined $2—5 d ys in the C. P., and he went below.

Louisa Batson, colored, for the same offense, was also assigned to the lower reons.

Geo. Johnson and John Sellman were found guilty of an affray, but judgment was suspended upon payment of costs.

Wellington Howe, colored, disorderly judgment suspended on payment of costs.

Front Street Church.

By a telegram received here to-day from Durham we are pleased to learn that Rev.
Frank H. Wood has been assigned by the Conference to Front Street M. E.
Church for the ensuing year, Dr. Yates, the recent incumbent, going to Raleigh.
Mr. Wood was here about ten years ago, if we recollect correctly, and served very acceptably as Pastor of the Fifth Street Church. His appointment to Front Street will, we think, give very general satisfaction to the congregation of that church.

It is not known here, as yet, who will be sent to Fifth Street Church.

A Wonderful Escape.

A singular circumstance occurred a few days since on the line of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., at Jonesboro, a few miles this side of White ville. There was a cattle car in a freight train and in the car were a number of horses and mules. By some means, probably by the movements of the animals within, the door was broken open and a horse and a mule fell, or jumped out, while the train was going at a considerable speed. The accident was discovered at the next stopping-place, but no one expected to see that mule or that horse kicking again. But on Friday they were both secured, not only alive, but uninjured, and have been forwarded to their destination. This is one of the most singular incidents in railroad life we have ever heard of.

ment and lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Death of Capt. Ed Batchelor.

The News and Observer gives the particulars of the incident which resulted in the death of Capt. Edward A. Batchelor, of Raleigh, mention of which was made by us on Saturday. Capt. Batchelor's train was at Cameron, and he stepped between the tender and some box cars to couple them. This he succeeded in doing safely, when in stepping back his ulster was caught and he was thrown to the ground. At that time the train was slowly moving back and the heavy projecting brake of the tender pressed him slowly, pushing him back. When extricated one arm and several ribs on the left side were broken. The injury was inflicted at 12 o'clock and he died at about half-past 2. Capt. Batchelor was only about 25 year of age. The remains were taken to Raleigh and are to be interred at Warrenton to-day.

People who live within their incomes are apt to live in a very small house.

The Cape Fear.

The Wace is the only Fayetteville steamer which has arrived here since Saturday. She reported good boating water in the river. There is no big freshet, but it is hoped that the present rise will suffice until there are more rains in the interior.

Off for New York.

The family of Mr. James Kendrick, a well-known tppo, for many years a resident in this city, will leave here to-morrow morning for New York, on the steamship Gulf Stream. Mr. Kendrick has been for some months past employed in Brooklyn, but has obtained a "sit" on the Commercial Bulletin, published in New York City, and has written for his family to join him there. We wish them success.

Magistrate's Court.

The following cases were disposed of by Justice Hall to-day:

John Sellman, arrested on the affidavit of W. H. Markley, charging him with the larceny of a pair of pants, was bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $100.

Rose Barry was charged with assault and battery on the person of John Sell-man. Case dismissed at prosecutor's costs.

C. W. Garrison was arraigned for an assault on John Sellman. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

W. H. Markley, charged with assault and battery on John Sellman, was fined one penny and costs.

Criminal Court.

A special term of the Criminal Court, called one week in advance of the regular term, so as not to conflict with the term of the Superior Court, to be held next week, convened in the Court House to-day, His Honor, Judge Meares, presiding. The following were empaneled as a grand jury for the term, viz:

Samuel W. Dunham, Foreman; George M. Crapon, Louis Bryant, F. V. B. Yopp, C. C. Parker, W. H. M. Koch, John Dyer, James H. Lane, Wm. L. Duke, Jno. T.
French, Isham Quick, A. L. Freeman, Thos. E. Davis, Benjamin Todd, J. D.
H. Klander, B. F. Johnson, C. H. Ward, R. S. Hutchins.

The following cases were called and disposed of:

State vs. Alex. Sauls, assault and battery. Defendant submits.

State vs. Oscar Jones, carrying concealed weapon. Defendant submits.

EDITORIAL REVIEW.

Among the many incidents that have happened since the formation of our little town of "Burgaw," there has none occurred that caused so universal regret as the removal of our esteemed friend, Mr. Duncan, temporary agent and operator at this place. He gave entire satisfaction to his employers, and to the entire community. Every one spoke of his urbanity, his kindness and his great desire to please—which he did in every instance. I spoke of his temporary employment here. It was to fill the place of Mr. James H. Moore, who was absent a portion of the summer.
He has returned, and there was no necessity for both. Mr. Duncan is now filling the office at Magnolia satisfactorily to all. Our loss is their gain. Not but that we have a most excellent agent and operator in the person of Mr. Jas.
H. Moore, who is competent, affable and polite, but whenever we lose a good man, it matters not how many good men we have, it is a great loss. ALPHA.

The busiest season we ever experienced compels us to remain close to our post of duty, hence we cannot spare time to go North for a second stock, but by arrangements effected long ago, we are enabled to lay before our many patrons the VERY LATEST SPECIALTIES in Men's Dress and Business Suits, Overcoats, Ulsters, Ulsterettes, and Furnishing Goods. Indeed we receive a BRAN NEW STOCK by every Express—Novelties which are never thought of by any other dealer, possessing styles and patterns over which we have exclusive control. THE FACT (now generally known) that Otterbourg is doing the LARGEST BUSINESS IN CLOTHING IN WILMINGTON, inspires him with renewed energy and life, to labor ever without ceasing. Otterbourg possesses remarkably rare talents in the selection of Gentlemen's Garments. The responsibility of this assertion cannot be doubted when his largely increasing business stands alone as a living emblem of the truthfulness of such a statement.
