"JUST IMAGINE HOW I FELT."
BRUNSWICK, Co., Va.,
November 5th, 1881.
Mrs. JOE PEARSON,

Franklinton, N. C.
DEAR MADAM:—It is with pleasure that I write to tell you that your valuable Remedy has entirely cured me of a most fearful looking and painful sore on my ankle. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm. I painted it with Tinct. Iodine, until it became a very painful and bad looking place. Then I commenced to try everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful I could scarcely walk, when I went to the best doctor in the country for advice. He told me he could cure me if I would take my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do so pretty soon, it could not be cured at all, as the bone would become diseased, and my foot would have to be taken off. Just imagine how I felt, to be told there was no cure for the sore but to lose my foot, or give up all business—either of these Remedies would have ruined me. Mind you this was the advice of one of the best doctors in the State of North Carolina, and this conversation took place last February. I continued to burn with caustic, as he advised until September, but derived no benefit from his treatment. I was advised then by a friend to try your Remedy, (Bitters and Wash) took the first dose the 17th of September, and I am now a well man, the sore is perfectly cured, and I can now walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man you know. Put me back to the 1st of September, let me know as much as I now do of the virtue of your Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars a bottle for it, if I could not get it for less. I think more of it than any medicine in the world. It is not only the best Remedy to purify the blood and cure all skin diseases, but I believe it will cure all kinds of blood diseases, and I know it will cure a love for strong drink. I hope you will have this published, as there are many sufferers who could be cured, if they could know of and get your Remedy I am truly and respectfully,
JOS. R. MASON,
South Gaston, N. C.
The Remedy is for sale in Wilmington by Dr. Wm. H. Green. Send for circular of testimonials.

When a man threatens to give you a piece of his mind he wishes to destroy the peace of yours.

Every lawyer ought to keep his office as warm as an oven, because if it is there he makes his bread.

At this season of the year many persons are troubled with chapped hands. The following receipt, it is said, will afford relief. First wash them at night before retiring in soft water with the best soap, then take two spoonfuls of cream and one of camphor, and rub the hands with it until dry. Follow this several nights, and be sure to always wash the hands in soft water.

In effecting an arrest, police officer D. Mc reay, of York, Pa., had the misfortune to sprain his wrist so badly that it swelled up and became very sore, rendering him unable to use it. Before retiring he applied St. Jacobs Oil according to directions, and in the morning all soreness was removed.

"Indian Department." Washington, D. C.—I am anxious to introduce Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup among my Indians, having used it myself for several months, and think it one of the finest remedies I ever found. I assure you, it is the only thing that ever relieved me of a protracted cough, brought on by exposure while on the Sioux Commission last year.

Superior Court.

The attention of the Court has been taken up the entire day in the trial of the case of Sutton and wife vs. Schonwald, et al. It was not concluded when our report closed. Messrs Russell & Ricard and D. J. Doyane are counsel for the plaintiffs and Messrs A. T. London and E. S. Martin for the defendants.

Magistrate's Court.

William Beatty, colored, was brought up to-day charged with the larceny of a bag of sweet potatoes from G. W. Harper. The theft was alleged to have been committed about two years ago, but the evidence was sufficient to warrant the magistrate in demanding a bond of $50 for the appearance of the accused at the next term of the Criminal Court.

The Lecture To-Night.

We trust that our citizens will improve the opportunity offered them to hear the lecture upon Florida, to be delivered at the Opera House to-night by the Rev. Thomas D. Pitts, rector of St. John's Church, in this city. The theme, like the land it discusses is a fruitful one, and the lecturer will undoubtedly believe, a Floridian, make it both interesting and instructive.

Ho! For Atlanta!

As may be seen by reference to our advertising columns, there is a plan offered by which we may all go to the Atlanta Exposition. A party of fifty is being made up, but we presume if a few more should be added they would be accommodated. The Exposition is a big thing—big for the South, the North and the entire country, and every person who can spare the time and money should certainly attend, and this offer will be the best that can be made. Read the ad. and secure a ticket at once.

The Package Matinee.

We think it likely that there will be a large attendance to-morrow afternoon at the pound package matinee to be given in Rankin Hall by Prof. Agestini. It is a novel idea for an entertainment and will most likely "draw" well. Those who contribute will bear in mind that the poor will be the beneficiaries of the entertainment and that they need not confine their offerings to a pound package, although that matter is entirely optional with them. The package is the only ticket of admission required but this will be insisted upon. The doors will open at 3 o'clock, and the entertainment will begin at 4 and will terminate at 6 o'clock.

Rossi.

The announcement is now definitely made that the illustrious Italian tragedian, Rossi, will appear at the Opera House on Monday evening, December 19th. Mr. St. Maur, Agent for the great artist, arrived this morning from the North, and has arranged that Rossi will give a performance, either of his splendid role of "King Lear" or "Othello." In both of these characters he has created the most profound admiration in Boston, New York and Philadelphia. The Press of the latter city, speaking of Rossi's impersonation of the King of Britain, says:

We have had no such representation of this character since Forrest's, and Forrest's was beneath Rossi's in dignity and repose, and lacked the exquisite finish of this work. It was a performance upon which it would be pleasant to dwell, and which would stand the most careful analytical treatment, but the story is told, after all, in the record that the Italian tragedian, speaking in his own tongue, commanded throughout the breathless interest and almost tearful sympathy of an American audience.—Without any straining at effect, the effect was so powerful, in such strong scenes as the old king's momentary recovery of his reason and recognition of Cordelia, that applause seemed almost impertinent.

The tour of Signor Rossi in the United States is so limited in extent that he is only able to give one representation in this city. The eminent actor is supported by an American company, who have received high commendation. The sale of seats will commence on Thursday, Dec. 15. The prices for reserved seats is fixed at $1.50 and $1.
