will be offered for sale.

Death of Mr. MacRae.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Alex. MacRae, which occurred at his residence at Argyle, in Robeson county, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr.
MacRae was a native of this city, but removed since the war to Argyle, where he made for himself a beautiful home.
The remains were brought here this afternoon on the Carolina Central train, and were interred at Oakdale Cemetery.

Fair and Festival

Our friends of the Hebrew faith are making arrangements to hold their Festival on the 27th, 28th and 29th insts., which they intend shall be one of the most recherche affairs of its kind ever gotten up in this city. The display of articles will embrace the beautiful, the useful, ornamental and substantial. His Honor Mayor Smith, will formally open the Fair and Mr. E. S. Martin will deliver an address.

There will be a concert, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, by some of the best amateur talent in the city, on the second evening of the Fair.

Several articles, intended for the Fair, are now on exhibition at Kasprowicz's cigar store, among which are a case of fine cigars, presented by Kasprowicz & Bros., New York; an elegant smoking case with everything pertaining thereto, a present from W. Demuth, of New York, and a box containing 1,000 cigarettes, presented by W. Duke, Sons & Co., of Durham, N. C.

To Builders and others—Go to JACO-B'S for Sash, Blinds and Doors, Glass &c. You can get all sizes, and at the lowest prices.

Barque Vick & Mebane, Hencks, sailed from Newport, Eng., on the 4th inst., for this port.

Steamship Gulf Stream, Ingram, cleared at New York on the 17th inst., for this port, and sailed the same day.

Hen fruit retailed from carts this morning at three dollars for a dozen—we beg pardon, we mean three dozen for a dollar.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States slightly warmer, fair weather, followed by cloudiness in western portion, north-easterly winds, stationary or lower pressure.

Capt. V. V. Richardson, of Columbus, was in the city on Saturday on his way home from Raleigh, where he had been for several days as one of the committee appointed to examine the accounts of the State Treasury department.

Mr. J. George Hashagen, of the Signal Service, the young gentleman who in company with Prof. King, the aéronaut, recently had such a fearful experience, has been granted a furlough and expects to spend the Christmas at his home in this city.

Another Wilmingtonian.

The Brunswick (Ga.) Advertiser and Appeal records the result of a municipal election held in that city recently, and the first name which appears on the list of the elected Aldermen is that of our old friend and fellow-citizen, Jesse Wildier, Esq. The people of Brunswick are to be congratulated. Mr. Wildier was a good soldier and an excellent citizen, and we know that he will make an efficient Alderman.

Unwelcome News.

Sheriff Manning received a telegraphic dispatch, yesterday, containing the sad information that his wife's father was sinking very rapidly and evidently near death at his home in Rumford, Me.
The venerable gentleman has been in feeble health for a number of years, afflicted with heart disease, and has been compelled to sleep in a chair for the past two years. Mrs. Manning left on the 6:25 o'clock train last evening to hasten to his dying bedside, where she will arrive on Tuesday evening unless some deteation of trains prevents. The distance is about 1,000 miles.

Death of Mr. Nutt.

We were all deeply pained to learn of the death, last evening, at his residence in this city, of Mr. Henry Nutt, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed of our citizens. Mr. Nutt had been sick but a short time, about two weeks, we think, and strong hopes were entertained of his recovery until on Saturday, when a change for the worse was noted and it became evident that his hours were numbered.

Mr. Nutt was in the 74th year of his age. He was either a native of this city or of the county near adjacent thereto. His father was High Sheriff of the county about the years 1814 or 1816.
Mr. Nutt embarked in mercantile life at an early age, and by thrift and enterprise had accumulated a handsome competence. He was previous to the war a Director of the old Wilmington & Manchester, now the W., C. & A. R. R., and since the war was known most prominent in his connection with the Cape Fear River and Harbor Works. As Chairman of the Committee from the Chamber of Commerce, he gave his time and his attention gratuitously to this great object, and it is not too much to say that the present advanced stage of the improvements was due more to his individual efforts than to those of any other person. The most enduring menument that can be raised to his memory is the breakwater which closes New Inlet and he will be remembered in connection with this as long as the works shall endure.

Mr. Nutt was a gentleman of the old school, courteous and considerate in his intercourse with all, given to hospitality, generous to the faults of others and ever alive to the calls of distress.
He died full of years, many of which had been spent in earnest and untiring efforts for the benefit and improvement of his native town and his loss will be felt as a public calamity.

The funeral services will take place tomorrow morning from St. John's Church, thence to Oakdale.

The hens have struck for Christmas, and turkeys are said to be looking forward with trembling anticipation.

City Court.

Three white men, whose names we suppress by request, were arraigned this morning, charged with disorderly conduct.
In two of the cases $3 was the fine, and in the other $1 was deemed sufficient, upon the payment of which they were discharged.

"Lives of great men always remind us that we are all subject to die," says an exchange, but never cough yourself away as long as you can raise 25 cents a bottle of Dr Bull's Cough Syrup.

The Children's Museum.

We have received the Christmas number of the Children's Museum, an illustrated monthly, published for the benefit of the little ones. It is a very handsome publication, if the number before us is to be taken as an index and furnishes lots of entertainments for the little folks. Published by F. B. Goddard & Co., 6 Bond street, New York, at $1 a year.

Children's School Shoes, both lace and button, at cost for cash, at Hower's. 2w

Personal.

We were pleased to see on the streets this morning Mr. Robert Henning, formerly of this city, but now of Richmond, Va., who is here for a few days on a visit. We were in hopes when we met him that he was coming back to stay among us again, but he tells us that is impracticable although, to use his own words, he says: "I would rather live in Wilmington than in any place I ever saw."

Bargains may be had in foot-wear at Hower's. Stock must be sold. Net cash. 2w

At Hedrick's.

Those who want to be happy this Christmas, and to make others happy, are referred to the announcement made in our columns by Col. Hedrick. A most beautiful stock of linen goods will be found there, and surely there is nothing more acceptable as a Xmas present than a box of beautiful handkerchiefs or a set of table linen or a dozen or so of elegant towels. These are Col. Hedrick's specialties, and in this line of goods, especially, he will be found ready to meet the demands of a large and a critical trade.

Othello To-Night.

The notice that Rossi, the famed Italian tragedian, will appear in the above character, at the Opera House to night, has awakened quite a furor among our theatre-going people; and very properly too. In every city in which he has appeared in this country he has been received with unbounded applause, and the most censorious critics have been compelled to place him as one of the greatest, and in some characters, the very best of living actors. His company is American, and is pronounced very good. Although the price of admission to choice seats is somewhat higher than with other companies, there is abundant evidence that he will be greeted by an overflowing house.

Sebr. Matilda Trask, Partridge, hence, arrived at Jacksonville, Fla., on the 14th inst.

It is gratifying to give the following from Mr. Henry Dole, 350 Fourteenth street, this city: I have a little girl who was troubled with a severe lameness in her legs, pronounced by some Erysipelas, by others Rheumatism. I had tried several remedies without effect, when I was induced to apply St. Jacobs Oil, and I am happy to say that the use of but one bottle cured her, and she is now able to go to school again. It also cured me of a lame shoulder, and I certainly would not be without it.

DIED.

NUTT—At his residence in this city, at 5 P. M., Sunday, Dec. 18th, 1881, HENRY NUTT, in the 74th year of his age.
Funeral will take place from St. John's Church at 11 A. M., Tuesday, Dec. 20th.
The friends of the family are invited to attend.
