"JUST IMAGINE HOW I FELT."

BRUNSWICK, Co., Va.,
November 5th, 1881.

Mrs. JOE PERSON, Franklinton, N. C.

DEAR MADAM:—It is with pleasure that I write to tell you that your valuable Remedy has entirely cured me of a most fearful looking and painful sore on my ankle. It came more than twelve months ago, very much like a ring worm. I painted it with Tinct. Iodine, until it became a very painful and bad looking place. Then I commenced to try everything I could think or hear of, until it became so very painful I could scarcely walk. When I went to the best doctor in the country for advice. He told me he could cure me if I would take my bed and there remain for four or five weeks, and if I did not do so pretty soon, it could not be cured at all, as the bone would become diseased, and my foot would have to be taken off. Just imagine how I felt, to be told there was no cure for the sore but to lose my foot, or give up all business—either of these Remedies would have ruined me. Mind you this was the advice of one of the best doctors in the State of North Carolina and this conversation took place last February. I continued to burn with caustic, as he advised until September, but derived no benefit from his treatment. I was advised then by a friend to try your Remedy, (Bitters and Wash) took the first dose the 17th of September, and I am now a well man, the sore is perfectly cured, and I can now walk as far, dance as much and jump as high as any man you know. Put me back to the 1st of September, let me know as much as I now do of the virtue of your Remedy, and I would not hesitate to pay ten dollars a bottle for it, if I could not get it for less. I think more of it than any medicine in the world. It is not only the best Remedy to purify the blood and cure all skin diseases, but I believe it will cure all kinds of blood diseases, and I know it will cure a love for strong drink. I hope you will have this published, as there are many sufferers who could be cured, if they could know of and get your Remedy I am truly and respectfully,
JOS. R. MASON,
South Gaston, N. C.

The Remedy is for sale in Wilmington by Dr. Wm. H. Green. Send for circular of testimonials.

The rule now is for every lady to have her age indicated on her hat brim. Every inch of brim represents three years. A ten-inch brim means that the lady is thirty years old; a twenty-inch brim shows that she is sixty, and so on. It is a charming conceit.

To Save Trouble and Expense
My family has derived very great benefit from the use of Hamburg Drops, writes Mr. John Stocklin, Union, Broome County, N. Y. It has saved pain, trouble and expense; and I shall be glad always to recommend the Drops, as it is my best and cheapest family physician.

Any given anniversary falls upon any given day in the week at intervals of 11, 6, 5 and 6 years. Christmas fell on Sunday this year, being the first time since 1870. It will fall on Sunday again in 1887, then in 1892, and then in 1898, after which the series of intervals will begin again.

We invite attention to the card of Brown & Pearson in this issue. This firm comprises two of the most polite, attentive and skillful barbers and hair dressers in the city. They have bought out Jas. H. Carraway, on Front street, next to Capt. McIntire, and solicit a share of the public patronage. They are both very worthy colored men, and will succeed.

Clerical Notes
Rev. Dr. Patterson is in the city on a short visit, and will leave soon for Texas.
Rev. T. D. Pitts, Rector of St. John's Church, has gone to Florida, and Dr. Watson preached for him yesterday morning and Dr. Patterson last night, the latter divine serving at St. James' in the forenoon.

The Yokes Family.
The Yokes Family will not appear in Wilmington, because of the alleged sickness of one of the lady members of the troupe. They played in Richmond on Friday night to a large house, and were to have appeared also on Saturday night, but we find no account either of that performance or of the alleged illness, in the Richmond Dispatch.

Five-Face Sundays.
The present year has fifty-three Sundays. Ordinarily there are, of course, but fifty-two Sundays in a year, there being only fifty-two weeks. We have had, during this nineteenth century, fourteen years with fifty-three Sundays each, and there are to be four more, including the present year, making a total of eighteen. They are the years which begin on Sunday, and the leap years which begin on Saturday.

City Court.
Scipio Hill, the same unfortunate Scip, was again found too far gone, to take care of himself, and was hauled up before the Mayor today. Ever lenient to the faults of others His Honor allowed him to go free, upon the oft-repeated and oft-broken promise of amendment.

A white man, whose name we suppress, charged with assault and battery on the person of another party, was fined $25 and the costs, which he paid.

Rufus Robinson, colored, charged with incendiaryism, was bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $100.

When others are suffering, drop a word of kindness and sympathy. If they are suffering from a Cold, give them Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; a few doses of this valuable remedy will afford instant relief and a twenty five cent bottle will cure the worst Cough.

Sunday's Desecration
Yesterday (Sunday) afternoon as people were walking out Fourth street towards Hilton, they were reluctantly compelled to witness a most disgraceful and brutal fight, in which three colored persons—two men and one woman—were concerned. The men were father and step-son and the woman was wife of the former and mother of the latter. The young man for some unknown cause, attacked the step-father and tried the "butting" process upon him several times, but the old man avoided the blows and at each attempt, knocked the young man down. After this had been repeated several times the woman took a big pole and assisted her son in his warfare upon her husband. How long the fight continued or who was finally the victor, we did not learn, but the sounds of the fast-falling blows of the pole in the hands of the old woman could be distinctly heard more than a block away. We did not learn the names of the parties.

"Forget-Me-Not."
In speaking of the presentation of this play, by Miss Genevieve Ward and her company, at the Savannah Theatre, last Friday evening, the Savannah News says:
The theatre last evening was filled with one of the most cultivated and fashionable audiences we have ever seen gathered within its walls, the occasion being the first appearance in this city of Miss Genevieve Ward, the celebrated actress, in her beautiful and intensely thrilling play entitled "Forget Me-Not." The play is admirably constructed, possessing a fine plot and numerous startling and excellent situations, and whilst Miss Ward is the central figure as "Stephanie, Marquise de Mohrivart," she is ably seconded in her company, and we can conscientiously pronounce the support the best we have seen this season with any star. Indeed, so thoroughly were the audience impressed with this that the applause was general, and though Miss Ward was enthusiastically encouraged and called before the curtain almost equal praise was accorded the remainder of the cast.

Warm and Cold Baths.
Warm baths produce an effect upon the skin, directly contrary to that which is brought about by cold water. The cutaneous vessels dilate immediately under the influence of the heat, and, although the dilatation is followed by a contraction, this contraction is seldom excessive, and the ultimate result of a warm bath is to increase the cutaneous circulation. The pulse and respiration are both quickened in the cold bath.

The warm bath increases the temperature of the body, and, by lessening the necessity for the internal production of heat, it decreases the call which is made upon certain of the vital processes, and enables life to be sustained with a less expenditure of force.

While a cold bath causes a certain stiffness of the muscles if continued too long, a warm bath relieves stiffness and fatigue. The final effect of both hot and cold baths, if their temperature be moderate, is the same, the difference being, to use the words of Bacon, that "cold refreshes by stimulating the functions, heat by physically facilitating them, and in this lies the important difference between the cold water system and the thermal mode of treatment."

A Lucky Man.

Mr. C. P. Johnson, of the firm of Ashford & Johnson, Clinton, Sampson county, was the lucky one to draw the Carpenter Organ which was raffled for at Heinsberger's on Saturday evening last. It is a fine instrument, and—was cheap enough, it having cost him just $1. There were about 125 chances sold.

Exports Foreign.

German barque Johann Daniel, Niemann, cleared at this port today for Hamburg, with 3 077 bbis rosin, shipped by Messrs. Delosset & Co., and schooner Mary E. Van Cleef, Thorndyke, cleared for Ponce, P. R., with 47,550 shingles and 158,664 feet lumber, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son.

Magistrate's Court

Mary J. Jones, colored, was brought before Justice Millis this morning, charged with an assault and battery on Rebecca Sauls, also colored. She submitted and judgment suspended upon the payment of the costs.

Lavinia Easton, colored, for the same offence upon the same person, was discharged for want of evidence to convict, and the prosecutor charged with the costs.

Rebecca Sauls, the above-named, for an assault and battery on Lavinia Easton, submitted, and judgment suspended upon payment of the costs.

George Jones, a white seaman, for an assault and battery upon Pat. Carey, was found guilty and judgment suspended upon the payment of the costs.

Caught on the Spot.

Yesterday afternoon a bale of cotton, among a large lot on the platform of the Champion Compress Company, was discovered on fire and fortunately in time to remove it from the rest before it had endangered them. A colored boy who was near the bale was arrested by Officer Scharff, who was near at hand, and confessed the firing. In his pocket was found a box of matches and his statement was to the effect that a man had given him five cents and a box of matches on his promise to fire the cotton. He claimed to have set the cotton on fire with a cigarette but no evidences of a cigarette could be found thereabouts. The boy, whose name it seems is Rufus Robinson, says that he is ten years old at least twelve. He was nicely dressed and was as cool and indifferent when questioned at the guard house and before the Mayor this morning as any old sinner could be. He belongs here and was brought up and taken care of by an uncle. He contradicted himself as to the name of the man who he said had bribed him to fire the cotton and but little confidence is placed in this part of his story. He was examined before the Mayor this morning and was afterwards committed to jail in default of bond for $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. He afterwards sent word from the jail to the city officers that he liked his new quarters much better than he did those furnished him in the guard house.
