IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE. WASHINGTON, Jan. 17-A number of petitions for a commission of inquiry conerning the alcoholic liquor traffic, for an increase of pay to members of the Life Saving service, and by Mr. Plumb, from-citizens of Kansas, for women suffrage,

By Mr. Davis, of Ili., to permit Hon. Ward Hunt, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, to re-

By Mr. Blair, granting a pension to Lucretia R. Garfield.

During the morning hour, Mr. Beck resumed his remarks upon Mr. Ingalls' resolution declaring that the Pension Arrears law ought not to be repealed. At the conclusion of Mr. Beck's remarks Mr. Ingalls said that as the Funding bill had precedence to-day he would defer a formal reply to Mr. Beck to a more convenient season. The subject was ac cordingly passed over for the present.

At 1:20 consideration of the Sherman Funding bill was resumed. The bill was discussed, and the Senate, at 4 o'clock, without closing debate, went into Executive session, and at 4:20 P. M. adjourn ed. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Armfield, of N. C, offered a resolation for the appointment of a committee of five members, to inquire into and report concerning the alleged abuses precticed by the officers of internal reve nue or other persons in the Sixth Collection district of North Carolina; and concereing all other abuses perpetrated in said district by internal revenue officers. The resolution is preceded by a preamble stating that charges have been made that the great expense attending the collection of the small internal revenue taxes is attributed to abuses among the officers of the internal revenue

Mr. Houck, of Tepn., commenting on the resolution as a stump speech, sent to the clerk's desk and had read a letter from District Attorney James Boyd, de nying the charges.
