Mrs. Joe Person's Statement in Regard to Cancer.

I receive numerous letters asking if my remedy will cure Cancer. I can only cite the following case, which is the only one I have ever cured, the only one upon which I have had an opportunity of testing it in its incipient stage. When we were married, in 1867, my husband had a small wart-looking place on his left cheek bone, which he told me then he thought would eventually terminate in cancer. We paid no attention to it, though we could see with advancing years that it was gradually increasing in size. Then it commenced to form a scab, something similar to a piece of dry bran, which would shed every few days, another form, and so it continued until March, 1872, when it broke out into a regular running, eating sore, which continued to spread with the most alarming rapidity throughout that spring and summer. The sore had eaten in considerably, was about the size of a silver quarter, had the appearance of honey-comb, with the cells distinctly marked, bed considerably had a smarting, irritating sensation as if needles were pricking the surface, with occasional sharp darting pains, which extended to the eye and weakened it. Everybody who saw it considered it a case of well developed cancer. The physicians advised him to have it cut out, whereas I advised treatment at a cancer infirmary.
At last one of the physicians suggested that I try my Remedy, and said he believed it would cure it. The thought of it urged it and never occurred to me, as I then only knew it to be good for Scrofula. I commenced its use on the 1st day of October, and discontinued it the 7th November, as it was PERFECTLY CURED. It had then been running sore for six months. It broke out again for four consecutive years, in the spring each time more severely, and requiring much longer to cure. It broke out last in 1876, when it required four months' treatment to effect a cure, since which time it has been and is now perfectly well. I have tried it in many advanced cases—cases beyond the possibility of hope of cure, always with benefit—sometimes by delaying its progress, sometimes by giving perfect freedom from all pain. I am, very truly, a. m.

The Register of Deeds issued nine marriage licenses this week, five of which were for white and four for colored couples.

Ger. barque Amanda, hence, arrived at Porto Rico leaky, and was discharging cargo Jan. 5th. She will probably be condemned.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society of St.
Paul's Lutheran Church realized the handsome sum of $200 from the dime party given by them on Thursday evening.

Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., as we learn from the Charlotte Observer, was unanimously elected President of the North Carolina College, at Mt. Pleasant, in Cabarrus county, on Wednesday last.

The Charlotte Observer give the Pauline Markham crowd fits. They played in Charlotte on Thursday night and served the Charlottees just about as they did the Wilmingtonians.

We are glad to learn that Judge French's condition is somewhat better.
He rested more comfortably last night and his mind is clearer to-day. We trust that the improvement may continue.

An extra census bulletin gives the area of North Carolina as 48,580 square miles. Prof. Kerr says it is over 51,- 000. The largest counties in the State are Brunswick, Robeson and Wake, and Clay is the smallest.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, rain followed by partly cloudy weather, south wind shifting to south west and north west, slight changes in temperature and falling followed by rising barometer.

Foggy.
A dense fog, which for awhile pervaded the atmosphere this morning, made our streets look dark and gloomy.
It was the heaviest that has been known for some years, and continued until about 9 o'clock, when the sun and a gentle shower appeared at the same time and dispelled it.

The River.
The appearances this morning at the wharves and docks indicated that there was a considerable freshet in the river; but stevedores inform us that there has been no recent rise of any consequence. There is plenty of boating water, but it remains about as it has been for several days past, with twenty feet of water on the Shoals.

Ever since I was seven years old I suffered with rheumatism; especially when the weather changed I would get a pain in my left knee, so that for hours I could not move a step. I used all sorts of remedies without avail, when I procured St. Jacobs Oil which cured me.

Sale of the Clinton.

The steamer Clinton was sold at auction to-day, under foreclosure of a mortgage held by Mr. Chas. Wessell. She was purchased by Mr. A. C. Wessell, for $400 cash, who proposes to repair her thoroughly and place her again on the river between this city and Bannerman's Bridge.

Do'st thou love life?—Then do not squander valuable time,—for that is the stuff life is made of,—but procure at once a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for your cough and be cured. Your druggist keeps it.

Personal.
John Judge, Esq., formerly of this city, but now of Charleston, is in the city to-day on a brief visit.

Mr. T. M. Emerson, General Freight Agent of the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R., arrived here this morning on a brief visit. He is accompanied by his wife and family.

Corn for this City.

The Newbern News speaks of the arrival at that port of two cargoes of corn from Elizabeth City, aggregating 8,250 bushels, consigned to Messrs G. Boney & Sons, of this city. It also reports some eight or ten more vessels in Pasquotank river, waiting for a fair wind, for the same parties. The corn goes by water to Newbern and there breaks bulk and is shipped overland to this city, whereas, before the close of New Inlet, it came all of the way by water.

Don't Die in the House.
Ask druggists for "Rough on Rats." It clears out rats, mice, bed-bugs, roaches, vermin, flies, ants, insects. 15c. per box.

The Two Orphans.

A large, and we imagine, disappointed audience were gathered at the Opera House last evening to witness the rendition of the above named play in a grossly emasculated shape. The play—all that was given—was good—the acting unusually fine, but it was so badly cut that only about one half of the play was given.
The audience paid their money to see the play—not a part, but the whole of it—but they only witnessed a little more than four out of the seven acts in the piece. The company may say that they were obliged to cut the piece in order to catch the outgoing train; but that is no reason why our people should pay a dollar for fifty cents' worth of play. They have a right to demand the full amount of the goods promised, and for which they have paid. The actors had not the lame excuse of a poor house, for it was crowded.

The ladies who sometime since were unable to go out, having taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, are quite recovered, and have gone on their way rejoicing.

Important Tax Cases.

The News and Observer tells us that in Raleigh on Thursday, the suits brought by the Public Treasurer against the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, the Petersburg Railroad Company, the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, and the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, were taken up and discussed before Judge Gilmer. Maj.
John W. Graham represents the plaintiff, assisting the Attorney-General in these cases. Hon. George Davis and Maj. C.
M. Stedman appear for the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, Hon. A.
S. Merrimon for the Raleigh and Gaston and Petersburg Railroad Companies, and Hon. David A. Barnes for the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company.

These cases involve the right of the State to levy a franchise or privilege tax upon the defendants. The levy is resisted by the defendants, on the ground that in the original charters of these companies the State has wholly exempted them from taxation, which is a common defense with all these companies. As to the Raleigh and Gaston, Petersburg and Seaboard and Roanoke Railroads, there are additional defenses, which remain yet to be argued. The case of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad is the only one as yet fully argued. These additional defenses were to have been argued yesterday morning.

Persons who stand upon their Feet, whether men or women, are often troubled with serious pains and weaknesses in the back, loins and other parts of the body.
It has been proven beyond a doubt, however, that Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is a certain preventive of these troubles.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-date during the present crop year, foot up 111,927 bales, as against 99,482 bales to January 24, 1881, being an increase thus far this year of 12,495 bales.

Exports Foreign.
Nor. brig Regnbuen, Olsen, cleared at this port to-day for Liverpool with 1,080 bales cotton shipped, by Messrs D.
R. Murchison & Co. and Nor. barque Saron, Christiansen, cleared for Liverpool, with 1,748 bales cotton, shipped by Messrs D. R. Murchison & Co., DeRosset & Co. and A. D. Cazaux, Agent.

"Fresh", The American
The popular comedian, John T. Raymond, in his new and successful comedy creation, "Fresh, the American," which ran over 100 nights at the Park Theatre, New York, will appear at the Opera House on Monday, January 30th, supported by a strong company under the direction of Brooks & Dickson.

Frank Farrell, business manager for Mr. Raymond, was in the city yesterday, and was asked about the comedy.

"Fresh is a sparkling comedy," responded the agent. "It is a bright, light and breezy production. It recounts the adventures in Europe of a young American Wall street broker with plenty of cheek, a large stock of impudence and an unlimited supply of cash. 'Fresh' breaks the gambling banks, breaks the heart of a Marchesa, breaks the heart and marries an Egyptian Princess. He gets into the Khedive's harem searching for his wife, astonishes the wives, astonishes the odalisques, astonishes the eunuchs, astonishes everybody. The part is brimful of fun, and as 'Fresh', Mr. Raymond is in his happiest of comic humor."

"What about your company?"
"Our company has been specially selected and embraces artists like Atkins Lawrence, Geo. F. De Vere, Agnes Proctor, Lizzie Creese, Katie Baker, Harry Pierce, Wm. Oullington, D. H. Chase-Grace Gill, Mary Tucker and Ruth Cowles. It is seldom a better company is sent on the road."

"And your scenery. Don't you require special scenery?"
"We will present the original scenery used during its long New York run. One set especially I desire to call your attention to, and that is the Harem. This is one of the prettiest scenes on the stage.
Another beautiful effect is the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius. The volcano is seen in the act of throwing up burning, hissing, fiery lava. It is a very realistic stage effect."

"Mr. Raymond has been somewhat successful in Fresh?"
"Indeed, he has surprised every one.
His success has been almost phenomenal.
Everywhere he has crowded the houses to the doors. He has packed McVicker's theatre, in Chicago, the Academy of Music, New Orleans, to the very doors.
You may assure the readers of the Review, of a rare comedy treat in store for them."
