Mrs. Joe Person's Statement in Regard to Cancer.
I receive numerous letters asking if my remedy will cure Cancer. I can only cite the following case, which is the only one I have ever cured, the only one upon which I have had an opportunity of testing it in its incipient stage. When we were married, in 1857, my husband had a small wart-looking place on his left cheek bone, which he told me then he thought would eventually terminate in cancer. We paid no attention to it, though we could see with advancing years that it was gradually increasing in size. Then it commenced to form a scab, something similar to a piece of dry bran, which would shed every few days, another form, and so it continued until March, 1872, when it broke out into a regular running, eating sore, which continued to spread with the most alarming rapidity throughout that spring and summer. The sore had eaten in considerably, was about the size of a silver quarter, had the appearance of honey-comb, with the cells distinctly marked, and considerably had a smarting, irritating sensation, as if needles were pricking the surface, with occasional sharp darting pains, which extended to the eye and weakened it. Everybody who saw it considered it a case of well developed cancer, the physicians advised me to have it cut out, whereas I advised treatment at a cancer infirmary.
At last one of the physicians suggested that I try my Remedy, and said he believed it would cure it. The thought of using it had never occurred to me, as I then only knew it to be good for Scrofula. I commenced its use on the sore the 1st day of October and discontinued it the 7th November, as it was PERFECTLY CURED. It had then been a running sore for six months. It broke out again for four consecutive years, in the spring each time more severely, and requiring much longer to cure. It broke out last in 1876, when it required four months' treatment to effect a cure, since which time it has been and is now perfectly well. I have tried it in many advanced cases—cases beyond the possibility of hope of cure, always with benefit—sometimes by delaying its progress, sometimes by giving perfect freedom from all pain. I am, very truly,

"Rough on Rats."
The thing desired found at last. Ask out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bedbugs,

It is said that there are a lot of sheep-killing dogs in this city which in the absence of mutton to work upon, have taken to slaughtering goats. A fine goat, the property of a lady residing near the Eastern terminus of Chestnut street, was killed by them last night.
Rev. Thos. D. Pitts, Rector of St. John's Church, is still in Florida, where he has been for the past two weeks. He is now on the Gulf coast, and writes home glowing descriptions of that part of the State.
Personal.
Rev. S. P. Watters, formerly of this city, but more recently Rector of the Episcopal Church at Newport, R. I., has returned to North Carolina, and has accepted the charge of the church at Morganton. Previous to the war Mr. Watters was one of the largest and most successful rice planters on the Cape Fear and has many relatives now residing in this city.

City Court.

Lewis Larkins, colored, was before the Mayor this morning, charged with violating one of the city ordinances, which relates to fast driving. He was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or take 10 days in the city prison. He paid the fine.

Burglary at Magnolia.

We learn by a telegram received by Mr. F. A. Newbury, in this city, to-day, that the store of Messrs Newbury & Southernland, at Magnolia, Duplin county, was entered by burglars last night, and the safe broken open. The particulars have not reached here and we are unable to give the details or the amount of booty which the burglars secured.
The parties are unknown and, as yet, there is no clue to lead to their discovery.

There is something soft and tender in the fall of a single snow flake, but it always reminds us to look after our bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup—our old stand-by in the days of Coughs and Colds, —for we have always found it reliable.

Index to the Weather.

The theory has been advanced by those who claim to have been paying some attention to such matters, that the first twelve days of the year control the weather of the twelve months in the regular order: that is, if the twelve days of the first of the year, or any number of them, are rainy, the whole twelve months or the corresponding numbers of the months, will also be rainy. If this rule holds good for the present year there is little probability of next summer being a dry one.

The Sound Steamer.

We understand that the little steamer which has been in process of construction for some time past, at the ship yard in the lower part of the city, and which is intended to ply between the mainland and the banks at Wrightsville during the Summer season, is nearly completed, and will be ready for the water in a few days.
The building of this boat, it will be remembered, was delayed by some damages resulting from the severe storm in September last. Nearly all of the machinery has been placed in the boat as she lies in the yard.

An officer of Company F of the Third N. C. Infantry, has furnished us with a list of the members of this Company as it was when it left Wilmington in 1861 to join the regiment at Garys-burg. The list was published in the JOURNAL at the time, and we reproduce it here. We would suggest, by the way, that the survivors of this Company get together and try and preserve some reliable record of the gallant deeds of those who dared so much, and braved so much and suffered so much for the cause they held so dear. The members of Company F were drawn mostly from hard-working mechanics in this city, and the Company was formed on the basis of the volunteer organization known as the Cape Fear Riflemen. The following is the list:

- Wm. M. Parsley, Captain; Hardy B. Willis, 1st Lieutenant; Robt. S. Radcliffe, 2d do.
John W. Runciman, 3d do.
R. N. Bell, 1st Sergeant.

Masquerade Ball.

The grand masquerade ball which Prof. Agostini has had in projection for some days past, will take place on Friday evening of next week, February 3rd.
Those whose names have been placed on the list may obtain tickets at Heinsberger's.

Col. Waddell.

Wade Harris, of the Concord Sun, is one of Col. Waddell's most ardent admirers. He commends his recent communication on the Mahone question, as published in the Review, most warmly, and threatens to put him up for Governor of the State at the next nomination.
This is not the first time Col. Waddell's name has been mentioned in connection with this office, and it may be, it will be brought forward very prominently as such during the next twelve months.
There is one disqualifying clause, however, and that is, he is a Cape Fear man.

The Richmond State says of Poe: "It was long since settled that he was born in Baltimore." "Is not that on error?" Was he not born in Boston?" the Wilmington Star asks. We have heard it asserted on excellent authority that Poe was born in Norfolk, in one of the upper rooms of the residence of the late W. S.
Forrest, the historian of Norfolk, on Brewer street.—Norfolk Virginian.

Edgar Allan Poe was born in North Carolina, Brunswick county, about nine miles, more or less, from the city, in a log house erected by William Patterson, Esq., and afterwards occupied by Gen-Washington's body servant. The house is now nearly gone, nothing remaining but a hole where one of the windows used to was. This ought to settle it.

The wind blew a pretty stiff gale yesterday afternoon. Vennor was near the mark this time, nearer than the Signal Service which failed to predict the blow.

Messrs Cronly & Morris will sell at auction on Friday next the entire stock of liquors, cigars, furniture, fixtures, &c., contained in the Eureka Saloon, of which the late R. F. Hyden was the proprietor.

Mr. Geo. W. Gates, formerly of this city, but now Master Machinist in the Western North Carolina R. R. Shops, located at Salisbury, is here to-day on a brief visit.

A New Haven minister of the gospel told one of his deacons that he was constantly hearing a loud sound, which kept him awake nights. Since using Dr.
Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills, his hearing has become normal, and his nerves are steady and true.

The residence now being erected by Mr. John C. Heyer, on the corner of Fourth and Red Cross streets, is one of the largest and most beautiful in the city. It has thirteen large rooms and will be finally completed about the first of April.

BELDEN—In this city, this morning, January 23d, SARAH FORBES BELDEN, youngest child of Louis S. and Isabel Belden, aged 1 year and 4 months.
The funeral services will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, from the residence of the parents, corner Fourth street and Cottage lane, thence to Oakdale Cemetery. The friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend. Star copy
