WOODS' GREAT PEPPERMINT CURE
 FOR RHEUMATISM,
 Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Soreness of the Chest, Head, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Swelling and Sprains, Burns and Scalds, General Bodily Pains,
 Tooth, Ear and Headache, Frosted Feet and Ears, and all other
 Pains and Aches.
 Dr. J. C. Woods, 257 North Second St., Jacobs Or.
 This medicine is made and cheap. External application is all that is needed, but the comparatively few cases of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Soreness of the Chest, Head, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Swelling and Sprains, Burns and Scalds, General Bodily Pains, Tooth, Ear and Headache, Frosted Feet and Ears, and all other Pains and Aches, which are cured by this medicine, are a sufficient proof of its efficacy.

Shakspeare's comment on Guiteau—
 "What! canst thou say all this and never blush?"
 When you marry you fondly expect to see the end of all your troubles, but you can't tell which end.

Do you really know what a weak and foolish thing you carry in your hat whenever you go out to walk?
 If your reputation is the only inheritance you have to leave your children, the sooner it is mended the better.

The steamship Gulf Stream, Ingram, from New York, arrived at her wharf in this city at 12 o'clock this noon.

If Guiteau is insane, and if he got his insanity from his father, it is probably the only thing he ever came by honestly.

The men who have "a great mind" to be honest generally succeed. It is the man of small mind who yields to temptation.

The reason why New Year's resolves are so often forgotten is because many who turn the new leaf forget to gum it down.

A fashion journal says that "plump girls are no longer popular." Correct! It's the slim girl with a plump fort neck that now takes the cake.

The steamship Regulator, Capt. Doane, left her wharf in this city at 10:30 o'clock this forenoon, for New York, carrying a large cargo.

Norwegian barque Norge, Henrickeesen, cleared at this port to-day for Hamburg, with 4,000 barrels rosin, shipped by Messrs. J. R. Blossom & Eynas.

Many a fast young man when told that his course of life will shorten his days consoles himself with the thought that it does at any rate lengthen his nights.

When a scandal is circulated concerning you, false of course, it is like daubing your coat with fuller's earth, for when it is rubbed off the coat is all the cleaner for it.

No matter how religious you may be, thirty minutes with a jumping toothache will cause you to use language which shows that there is plenty of room for improvement.

We return thanks to the Marshals for an invitation to attend the 47th Anniversary of the Euzelian and Philomathean Societies of Wake Forest College on Friday, February 17th.

We were glad to meet this morning with our good friend, Capt. Aionzo Garrason, formerly the popular commander of the steamer D. Murchison, but now an enterprising merchant of Fayetteville.

According to the Signal office bulletin, it was 11 degrees colder here this morning than it was yesterday morning. At 7 A. M. to-day the thermometer at the Signal Station registered 30 degrees. At New York, at the same hour, it was 1 degree above zero and at Bismarck, the coldest point registered, it was 5 degrees below zero.

Magistrate's Court.
 A commission de lunatico inquirendo, consisting of two magistrates and a physician, was held this morning in the case of James Anderson, colored, a well-known drayman, aged about 50 years. As the result of their investigation he was ordered sent to the county insane asylum.

"A crown will not cure the headache, nor a golden slipper the gout." Very true; but a crowned head when it aches doesn't have to keep right on devising ways and means to procure bread and butter, nor does a gold-shod foot when it twinges have to support the weight of a toiling body. And yet both the crowned heads and the steady workers; the gold shod feet and the weary toilers enjoy the same inestimable blessing of curing lody pains and aches, beginning with rheumatism, by using St. Jacobs Oil which costs but fifty cents a bottle, Ex-Gov. Salomon, now of San Francisco, was cured of severe rheumatic pains by the use of St. Jacobs Oil.

Our Little Ones.
 The February number of this very handsome publication for the little folks is at hand. As usual it is excellent, with pretty little things, poetry and prose suited to the comprehension of the juveniles and with handsome illustrations. Published by the Russell Publishing Company, 149 Tremont street, Boston, at $1.50 a year.

Our Opinion.
 "How to Treat Small Pox" is the title of an article in one of our exchanges. We didn't read the article because we don't want to treat it. How to get rid of treating it is what we want to know. We wouldn't advise any of our friends to attempt to treat small pox. If they are anxious to treat anybody let them try some worthy object—us, for instance. Small pox don't know how to appreciate a treat, but we do. Try us with a box of cigars to commence with, and see if we are not lively subjects to treat. Let small pox alone, by all means.

An Octogenarian.
 Mr. George R. French, senior member of the well-known house of Geo. R. French & Sons, reached the great age of eighty years to-day, and will celebrate his eightieth birthday by a reception at his residence from 6 to 9 o'clock this evening.

The number is few indeed that reach to such a great age and retain their mental and physical powers so well. He has our hearty congratulations upon this memorable occasion, united with the hope that there are many days of tranquil peace yet in store for him.

A man is wiser for his learning and the sooner he learns that the only proper way to cure a Cough or Cold, is to use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrap, the better he is off.

Blasphemy.
 There is a pen peddler going around the city who pretends to be deaf and dumb and who, when he sells a pen, presents at the same time a printed sheet which is headed, "The Bible; The Word of God; Immortality; and Eternal Life." We have a copy before us now, handed us by a friend, and we have no hesitation in saying that it is one of the most blasphemous things we have ever read. We call the attention of the authorities to this fact, and would suggest, if there be any law by which action may be taken, that the wretch who utters this thing be sent at once beyond the limits of the city.

 You are sick; well, there is just one remedy that will cure you beyond possibility of doubt. If it's Liver or Kidney trouble, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Debility, Wells' Health Renewer is your hope. $1. Druggists. Depot Jas. C. Munds.

The Magnolia Burglary.
 The reports received by letter to-day from Magnolia go to show that the burglars who entered the store of Messrs. Newbury & Southerland, on the night of the 22nd inst., mention of which was made in the Review yesterday, made very thorough work and escaped with a large lot of booty. The safe, as we stated, was blown open and about $150 or $200 in currency and $400 or $500 in silver were taken, and all the notes, deeds, mortgages, receipts and insurance policies belonging to the firm, together with deeds and other valuable papers belonging to Capt. J. M. Hartzell and Mr. D. D. Southerland. They also took a gold watch, several silver watches, a ring, and in fact almost every thing the safe contained. The woods in the vicinity were searched yesterday in the hope that the scamps might have thrown away the papers, but no trace of them was found. The safe was ruined, as the door was blown open. People living in the neighborhood heard the explosion, which took place at about 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

This loss falls very heavily upon the firm, and especially upon Mr. Newbury, who has heretofore had the misfortune to be twice burned out. He is a drying, go-ahead, energetic business man, but it is not cheering to work for years to attain success and then have the results of years of toil snatched away in a single night. While the loss of the money and other valuables may be in time replaced, the loss of the papers will fall with greater severity, as they are documentary evidences of transactions, which cannot be replaced.

Coffee drinkers should read the advertisement in another column headed Good Coffee.

The street hands are now engaged in making improvements upon Chestnut, between Second and Third streets, which bid fair to make that thoroughfare as good as any in the city, and permanently rid it of the mud and water which has heretofore stood there after every rain.

Fresh, the American.
 Our theatre going public have good reason to presume that there will be no cutting of the play at the Opera House on Monday evening next, at which time Mr. John T. Raymond will appear as "Fresh, the American," in a play with that title. His Company appears in Charleston, S. C., on the 28th inst., and will, of course, come from there to this city, working their way North. As there is no Northern-bound train from here after 6:25 o'clock p. m., until 6:40 o'clock on the following morning, there would be no sort of excuse for not giving the play in its entirety.

Railroad Meeting at Point Caswell.
 According to advertisement, a very large crowd of people from the surrounding country met at this place and at 12 o'clock the meeting was called together. On motion Mr. Owen Alderman, Sr., was called to the Chair and E. A. Hawes, Jr., was requested to act as Secretary. The Chairman, after making a very forcible speech, called on Capt. R. P. Paddison to more fully explain the object of the meeting, and to tell what the people of Sampson county and Wilmington were doing to help the great local enterprise which bids fair to be of so much benefit to the people along the line from Clinton to Point Caswell, and also to the merchants of Wilmington, which he did to the satisfaction of all present.

Stirring speeches were made by Dr. Jas. F. Simpson and Mr. H. B. Frayzer which had a good effect on all present, after which the subscription books were opened and Dr. J. F. Simpson came forward and headed the list with one thousand dollars, which was followed up by others until nearly five thousand dollars were subscribed. (And now, Mr. Editor, let me right here say that if your city will make a liberal subscription, the road will be a success.) It was the general opinion of those present that at the next meeting the sum of ten thousand dollars would be raised.

The Secretary was requested to send a copy of the proceedings to the REVIEW and Star and request the publication. On motion the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.
 E. A. HAWES, Secretary.
