The Banker's Baugh er-

The above samed society drama, of which Mr. Beason Howard is the author, was presented at the Opera House in this city last night by the New York Union Square Combination, and with most marked success. The acting was meritorious, the scenery beautiful, the dresses elegant, and a full house were delighted listeners to the performance We have heard but one sentiment relative to the play and its rendition from the many person who have spoken of them, and that has been in the highest praise of both. It will be repeated tonight; and undoubtedly an overflowing house will be eager to witness the perf. rmance of these first-class artists.

who played the part so much to our satisfaction, and the error was caused by sceing the name of Miss Hotchkiss cast for that character on the bills. We had Croom.

seen and admired the acting of Mrs. Davenport in a different character sev. eral years ago, and were surprised to see her name cast for an inferior part, which, together with the difference in 'make up," led us into the mistake. We now fally recall Mrs. Davenport's individuality and gladly correct the error.

Board of Aldermen.

Upon notification from the Mayor that it was necessary to appoint a Stan dard Keeper for the city, Mr. J. C. Millis was put in nomination by Alderman Huggins, and was thereupon elected for the term.

The Finance Committee reported unfavorably upon a petition from Mrs. Petteway, asking for a reduction of taxes. Alderman Chadbourn offered the following resolutions, which were adopt-

WHEREAS, The City Tax Collector, H. Savage, has advertised for sale all real estate on which the city tax for the year 1801 remains unpaid, sale to begin February 20, 1882 and served persona notices on all delinquents, therefore be it, Resolved, That the action of the Tax Collector is approved by this Board, and that the charge of 60 cents for notice and advertisement is also approved, and until the day of sale shall be paid over to the Treasurer to the credit of the expense of advertising.

Resolved, further, That upon the completion of the sale of real estate for the said taxes, any delinquent making application for redemption of, any real estate sold shall pay the taxes due, with 25 per cent. thereof penalty for redemption the time of redemption to extend to two years from March 1, 1882. and the penalty to pro rate in accord-ance with the time of redemption after said March 1, 1882.

Resolved further, That upon all property sold for the said taxes the fol lowing charges shall be made, viz: for probate certificate and seal,25 cents; reg. ister of deeds, 15 cents; notice and advertising 60 cents; execution, 50 cents; and forfeitures collected by him. Licenses to retail spiritous liquors were granted to M. Schloss and J. L.
