

THE DAILY REVIEW.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r
WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1882.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as Second-Class Matter.

President Taylor, of the Mormon Church, recently married his twenty-eighth wife, a buxom Massachusetts widow.

Young Conger, who was present when Editor Barton was shot, in Washington City, is evidently a very nervy young man.

Talking about the presidency lately, Senator David Davis said: "My ambition, that way is gone. I am too old, and would not accept a nomination if tendered."

Milwaukee is excited over the discovery that nearly all the prominent ministers in the city for the last twenty years have failed to comply with the numerous and complex regulations which the law requires them to observe in order to make marriages which they solemnize legal.

Guiteau has been selling his autographs in order, as he says, to raise money to buy a suit of clothes suitable to wear when he again enters society.

John Kelly, the "big Inguu" of the New York Tammany Society, has gone on a trip for his health to Florida.

Mrs. Minnie Hauck landed in New York in the beginning of last week, having come direct from Germany.

The Augusta Chronicle's Washington correspondent says Senator Hill suffered more from the latest operation performed upon his mouth than was anticipated.

Commenting upon the reason of mercantile failures in this section, the New York Times says: "Happily, this is a financial storm of limited area."

Congress is discussing the Apportionment Bill, and the Northern members, especially some of those from Pennsylvania, are doing their best to get the lion's share.

A Chicago paper tells of a man who was complaining that he had invested a rather large sum of money in Wall street and lost it all.

A man rushed breathlessly into a lawyer's office in St. Paul, and approaching the legal luminary, excitedly remarked: "A man has tied a coop to my horse's tail! Can I do anything?"

A clergyman lost his hat one evening, and was obliged to go home with a shabby one, which was left in the place of it.

The New York Sun says: The south permitted the Ryan-Sullivan prize fight, but it was a northern affair, as viewed by the Louisville Courier-Journal.

New Yorkers meditate a new line of steamers which are to make the trip to Europe in six days. This is pretty quick ocean traveling, but until a line is started that will beat a cable dispatch America's north, one of them representing the Empire State and the other the Bay State. Nearly all the money at stake came from the north, as did nearly all the roughs who constituted the spectators.

William May Weightman, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, died at his residence in Charleston, S. C., yesterday, the 15th inst., aged seventy-four years.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doubtless ranks first as a curative agent in all diseases of the procreative system, degeneration of the kidneys, irritation of the bladder, urinary calculi, &c.

There are 3,000 bodies buried in the potter's field in New York. The output of bullion from the Utah mines for 1881 was $10,000,000.

It is estimated that the sum of 500,000,000 marks ($125,000,000) would be required for the purchase of the German railways by the state, as intended.

The amount of work a man can do in a day has been estimated to be equal to a force which, if properly applied, would raise the weight of his own body one mile.

The average number of teachers in the fifty-four public schools of Brooklyn last year was 1,338, the average number of pupils 52,733, and the cost for each pupil $14.56.

That bloodthirsty monster Thibo, King of Burmah, was taken with the desire recently to see some modern plays and opera bouffe performed in the Indian language.

It is the Height of Folly to wait until you are in bed with disease you may not get over for months, when you can be cured during the early symptoms by Parker's Ginger Tonic.
