IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.
SENATE.
WASHINGTON, February 15.—Mr. Jackson introduced a bill, presented by Mr. Morgan in the last Congress, for the relief of the Book Agents of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. It appropriates $155,000 in compensation for property connected with the publishing house of said Book Agents, at Nashville, which was taken and destroyed by the United States in 1864, or at any other time. A resolution offered by Mr. Call was referred to the committee on Foreign Relations. It directs the Secretary of State to open negotiations with Spain for remitting the tax on cattle imported into Cuba from the United States. The Senate, at 2 o'clock, took up and temporarily placed on the regular order the Anti-polygamy bill, and Mr. Call then addressed the Senate in support of the proposed amendment to the Pension Arrears bill, declaring in favor of pensions to survivors of Indian wars prior to 1840. He said that every argument in favor of granting and the continuance of pensions to soldiers of the last war, applied with equal force in behalf of the disabled of the Mexican and Indian wars. At 2:25 the Anti-polygamy bill was taken up with the amendments. The sections and amendments were agreed to up to the 5th section, which authorizes the President to grant amnesty to those classes of offenders guilty before the passage of the act of bigamy, polygamy or unlawful cohabitation, on such conditions as he shall think proper. The wholesale exercise of the pardoning power contemplated in this section was objected to as trenching upon the legislative prerogative, but after some discussion the section, as amended, and the remaining committee amendments, up to the 8th section, were adopted. Several members debated this section, and it was finally arranged that the measure should be proceeded with immediately after the morning business to-morrow, and debate upon it concluded at 5:30 p. m. Upon this understanding Mr. Edmunds, in charge of the bill, consented to an adjournment. Mr. Coke introduced a bill appropriating $100,000 for the improvements of Galveston harbor.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
The House resumed consideration of the Apportionment bill, and Mr. Herbert, of Ala., continued his speech in opposition to any increase in the membership of the House. It was said that large bodies had the advantage of being more difficult to corrupt, but he contended that more members would bring more schemes. Just in proportion as the membership was increased the members would lose their individuality and personal responsibility, and would rely upon committees. A corrupt man, instead of endeavoring to corrupt the House, would apply himself to the committees. The committee could not be large enough to put them beyond the reach of temptation. He favored a constitutional amendment limiting the number of Representatives. Debate on the Apportionment bill occupied the remainder of the day's session, after it was taken up, to the exclusion of all other business. An arrangement was finally agreed to whereby at the conclusion of one hour's debate to-morrow the previous question shall be considered as seconded and voting upon the various propositions begin. A vote will also be allowed upon the question as to whether old or new methods of apportionment shall be adopted.

MURDERED.
Yesterday evening, late, Sheriff Nowell received a telegram from Eugene T. Jones, Esq., a Justice of the Peace for New Light township, informing him of the murder of Mr. Eldridge Blake by a negro prisoner, Henry Jones. The murder was committed yesterday morning, near William Stell's four miles southeast of Wake X Roads. On the 31st of January last Henry Jones, the murderer, is said to have stolen an ox from one Burwell Freeman, brought it to this city, and sold it to a butcher here. The authorities of the township had been on the lookout for Jones, and yesterday he was arrested. Eldridge Blake and George Peebles were taking before a magistrate, him Mr. Eugene T. Jones, for trial. When the two deputies, with their prisoner, reached a large field near Stell's house, the prisoner declared he would not go a step further with them. Mr. Peebles then left Mr. Blake in charge of the negro, and went off to a house not a great distance off, to secure the help of the people. Returning presently with several of the neighbors, they were horrified to see Mr. Blake lying on the wet ground, stone dead, while there was no sign of the prisoner. Mr. Blake's shot gun, which was in his hands when he was left by Peebles, was missing, and it was also found on examination that a pistol had been taken from the dead man's pocket. The only supposition of the men who looked at the dead body was that Mr. Blake had been careless, perhaps, for a moment, when the negro, springing upon him, seized the gun, shot him, and then taking the pistol also, had fled. The murderer, Henry Jones, is a bright mulatto, about 5 feet 10 inches in height, weighs about 150 pounds, and has a very full face. He hails from Brinkleyville, Halifax county. The telegram to the Sheriff, in giving this personal description and information as to his home, says that he has probably fled in the direction of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, as his father lives 13 miles from Weldon, and near Ringwood.

Much excitement was caused last night by the news of the horrible crime against law and order. Sheriff Nowell telegraphed news of the murder and a description of the murderer to a number of points, to head him off. No information other than that above given, which came from several sources, but is thought to be trustworthy, was to be had last evening. Deserving Articles are always Appreciated. The exceptional cleanliness of Parker's Hair Balsam makes it popular. Gray hairs are impossible with its occasional use.

CAROLINA.
Farmer and Mechanic: Maj. Frank H. Cameron has resigned the Presidency of the North Carolina Life Insurance Company. —Mrs. Rufus Upchurch, residing a few miles from Raleigh, accidentally ignited her skirts at the fireplace, and was fatally burned before they could be extinguished. Laurinburg Enterprise Lookout for chicken thieves! The coop of Mr. James Sanford was robbed of half a dozen, or more, fine chickens on Monday night. —One night week before last the furniture store of Messrs. Harris & Sanford was robbed of a wash-stand, five chromo frames and a hat rack. —On Thursday evening last Revenue officer Ostar J. Spares, with two assistants, pounced upon a country wagon, stopping in the grove near our office, and seized the wagon, a horse and a mule and three-barrels of unstamped whiskey. The owners, or the men in charge of the team, made their escape. The revenue detectives appropriated the chattels for the benefit of the government.

Charlotte Observer: The engine, pump, and a part of the material for the stand pipe of the water works is expected daily. It is thought the material for the stand pipe will arrive in time to commence work before court meets. —It is understood that a proposition has been made by two prominent capitalists of the city to a certain gentleman who is familiar with the business of running a cotton factory that if he would take the management of such an enterprise they would invest a sufficient sum to erect another cotton factory in this city. —Those of our citizens who were accustomed to dealing in future contracts on cotton were decidedly on the bull side at the beginning of the cotton season, but since January they have changed front and have gone on the bear side recovering all losses, and are now realizing handsome profits. They are to-day closing out their contracts, taking in large profits.

Greensboro Patriot: The freight over the Richmond & Danville R. R. is simply immense, and unparalleled in the history of railroading in North Carolina. Sunday freights are inhibited by the company, and it is well worth a walk through the mud to the depot to see the miles of freight trains to be seen there every Sunday. Every foot of track is used, leaving barely passing room for the passenger trains. An old citizen remarked that there is more freight carried over the road in one week now than in a year's time 25 years ago. —The contracts beyond Waynesville have been let, A. B. Fortune having that between that place and the Balsam Mountains. Beyond the Balsam and down Scott's Creek, Fagg has the contract which embraces operations extending between 45 and 50 miles beyond Asheville.

News and Observer: Revivals are in progress in the Baptist and Presbyterian churches at Durham. There have been fifty-two conversions up to date in the former church. —The sad news was received here yesterday of the drowning of Mrs. Ransom Jones, a lady well known here, and who has many relatives in this county and city. For three weeks, it is said, her mind had appeared somewhat impaired, and it is said that she had before attempted to commit suicide in the same manner. Her home was near Cary. Yesterday morning she arose early and went away from the house. Not appearing soon, search was made, when her husband found on going to the mill pond that a Mr. Adams had just taken her body from the water. All attempts to restore life were unavailing. She is supposed to have jumped from a bridge into the pond and to have been in the water about half an hour when found. She was an estimable lady, and held in high esteem by her neighbors. She leaves two children.
