Death of Capt. Murchison.
It is with profound regret that we chronicle to-day the death of Captain David R. Murchison, for so many years past one of the most prominent citizens of Wilmington. The sad event occurred this morning, at 1 o'clock, at the residence of his brother, Col. Kenneth M.
Murchison, in New York City.
Capt Murchison had been desperately ill for several weeks past, of an affection of the brain, which finally resulted in congestion, of which he died. For years past he had been subject to very violent attacks of headache, and had in vain sought relief. These attacks were at times so severe that he would be for days forced to suspend all business occupations and seek perfect rest and retirement. He was a most indefatigable worker, and the severe mental strain to which his mind was subjected in his various important business pursuits was probably the indirect cause of his death.
Too late he had resolved to relinquish some of these cares and to seek recovery in perfect rest and retirement, but, alas, the insidious disease had obtained the mastery, and would not yield to any remedies known to skill and science. On the 14th of this month, just two weeks ago to-day, he left here for New York, accompanied by his wife and brother and physician, Dr. Wood, to be placed under the care of a celebrated specialist in that city.
It was the last hope for recovery and, as the result has proved, it was a futile one.
Capt. Murchison was born in Camberland county, where the village of Manchester now stands, and was about 46 years of age at the time of his death.
He was a student at the University of Virginia, whither he went to obtain a mathematical course. Leaving the University he went to New York where he was for a time bookkeeper for the firm of Banman & Murchison, of that city. He came to Wilmington in the Fall of 1858, as a partner in the firm of E. Murray & Co., in which position the opening of the war found him.
Capt. Murchison was a private in the old Wilmington Light Infantry and at the first call to arms accompanied his command to Fort Caswell on the memorable 16th of April, 1861. During the Summer of that year he, in company with the late Maj. R. B. McRae and Maj. Thos. H. McKoy, of this city, raised a company of troops of which Maj.
McRae became Captain, Captain Murchison First Lieutenant and Maj. Mc-Koy Second Lieutenant. This company was recruited here and was, perhaps, the strongest which ever left Wilmington for the front. It numbered 108 men, rank and file. It was thrown into the Seventh Regiment in which it became Company C, and which made for itself a most gallant and enviable record during the long and bloody war. Capt. Murchison was with his regiment in the fig-hats at Newbern, Hanover C. H., Seven Days' Fight Around Richmond, Fred-ricksburg No. 1, Cedar Run, Sharps-burg, Manassas No. 2, and others. He remained with the Seventh two years and left it to accept the position of Captain and A. Q. M. in the 54th N. C.
Regiment, which had been tendered him by his brother, Col. K. M. Murchison, the commander of that regiment.

At the close of the war Capt. Murchison returned to Wilmington and re-embarked in business. In the Fall of 1865 he withdrew from the firm of E.
Murray & Co. and associated himself with Col. Murchison and Messrs Jno. D. and Geo. W. Williams and the firm of Williams & Murchison was established here, with one house in Fayetteville and another in New York. The remarkable success of this firm is known of all men in this city and section. On the first of January of this year some changes were made in the business. The firm of Williams & Murchison was dissolved and those of Geo. W. Williams & Co., and D. R. Murchison & Co. were established here.
Capt. Murchison has been largely identified with the moneyed interests of Wilmington since the close of the war, individually as well as through his house.
He was the first President of the Produce Exchange, was at one time a Director of the Bank of New Hanover, and at the time of his death was President of the Carolina Central Railway and of the Wilmington Compress Company and of the Express Steamboat line. On the occasion of the death of the lamented Capt. Grainger he was appointed to the position left by him as a Receiver of the Carolina Central Railway, by Judge McKoy, of the Superior Court, and afterwards, he having purchased a controlling interest, the road was reorganized as the Carolina Central R. R., and Captain Murchison became its President, a position he has ever since filled.

On January 11th, 1872, Capt. Murchison was married to Miss Lucy, daughter of the late Joshua G. Wright, of this city, who survives him. He leaves but one child, a daughter, about two years of age. Mrs. Murchison, who has never left his bedside since he was first attacked, was with him at the last. The remains, we understand, will arrive here to-morrow night and the funeral will take place on Thursday.
The death of Capt. Murchison will be felt as a severe blow not only to his family and immediate circle of friends, but to our community at large. He was a man of most remarkable business capacity and of an enterprise to equal it. The interest of Wilmington was with him a desire paramount to almost all else. He would do all in his power to help forward those interests and nothing that would retard or hinder them. He was generous in his friendships, ardent in his affections and courteous and considerate in his intercourse with all. His was a busy life, filled to the brim with the cares which weighted him so heavily and yet he found time to unobtrusively scatter many seeds of kindness by the wayside, which shall bloom in their most perfect beauty above his untimely grave. As a brave soldier, a patriotic citizen and an upright and honest man, his memory will be enshrined in the hearts of those who knew him best and had therefore cause to esteem him most highly. Peaceful be his rest in Oakdale's quiet shades.

Fire in Pender.
We regret to learn that the dwelling house, dining room and smoke house of Sheriff A. O. Ward, in Columbia township, Pender county, were destroyed by fire on Sunday afternoon last. The fire was accidental, and ignited from a spark on the roof of the dwelling house. Nearly or quite 1,000 pounds of bacon was destroyed. Through the exertions of a couple of young men who were oppor-tunately present, many articles of furniture and household implements were saved which otherwise would have been burned. We are glad to learn that all the official papers and documents in Sheriff Ward's possession, belonging to the county, were saved. There was no insurance.

NEAR CASE WAS AN INTERESTING STORY.
LITTLETON, N. C., Nov. 10, 1881.
Mrs. JOE PEARSON:
Dear Madam:—I commenced last January to use your Bitters and Wash on our little daughter Annie, aged twelve years, for Scrofula, with a tendency to White Swelling, the physician said. At the time I commenced using your Remedy she was very much reduced in flesh, completely sallow, appetite poor, limbs very much swollen, bones enlarged, with two frightful sores on her left leg near the ankle. After using the Remedy a week or two I could see a change, as I then thought, for the worse. The sores discharged copiously a yellow corruption, sometimes running in a stream to the floor in spite of the linens. But feeling encouraged by your letters I persevered and after using the Remedy a while longer her strength was greatly improved, her appete lite good and complexion much improved.
Those symptoms encouraged me, but the flow of corruption continued for several months, and not until her general health was greatly improved did the sores begin to heal. First the swelling began to decrease below the knee, and continued gradually downward, and when it nearly reached the sores they began to heal. In the meantime the leg from the ankle half way to the knee became covered with running pimples, in fact the leg had become almost a solid sore. After this the sores healed rapidly. The worst one, on the inside, healed entirely, the other to the size of a five cent piece, and it has remained in that condition ever since, which has been several months ago. For a month or more it has not discharged at all, and looks sometimes now as if it was entirely well. As a Blood Purifier and Tonic I think it superior to anything I ever tried.
If you could have seen my daughter when she commenced using your Remedy, and now, you would hardly believe her to be the same child. Last January nearly every one thought she would die. Then she was a living skeleton, now she is fat and rosy. Her case was an interesting study from the time she commenced your Remedy. I can most heartily and cheerfully recommend it to be what you claim for it. Wishing you every success with your undertaking, and with many thanks for the benefits we have received from your medicine, I am, very respectfully, MRS. R. J. ALLEN.
The Remedy is for sale in Wilmington
