THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1882. NO. 57

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but The name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor.
Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.

DR. J. C. JACOBS OIL
THE GREAT
GERMAN REMEDY.
FOR RHEUMATISM,
Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Soreness of the Chest, Croup, Quinsy, Sore Throat, Swell-ings and Sprains, Burns and Scalds, General Bodily
Pains,
Tooth, Ear and Headache, Frosted Foot and Ears, and all other Pains and Aches.

No Preparation on earth equals Dr. JACOBS OIL as a safe, sure, simple and cheap External Remedy. A first trial will convince the comparatively trifling value of 50 cents, and every one suffering with pain will have cheap and positive relief in its use.

HER CASE WAS AN INTERESTING STUDY.

LIT. B. O. N. C., Nov. 10, 1881.
Mrs. JOE PERSON.
Dear Madam:—I commenced last January to use your Bitters and Wash on our little daughter Annie, aged twelve years, for Scrofula, with a tendency to White Swelling, the physician said. At the time I commenced using your Remedy she was very much reduced in flesh, complexion sallow, appetite poor, with two much swollen, bones enlarged, with two frightful sores on her left leg near the ankle. After using the Remedy a week or two I could see a change, as I then thought, for the worse. The sores discharged copiously a yellow corruption, sometimes running in a stream to the floor in spite of the linens. But feeling encouraged by your letters I persevere and after using the Remedy a while longer her strength was greatly improved, her appetite good and complexion much improved.
Those symptoms encouraged me, but the flow of corruption continued for several months, and not until her general health was greatly improved did the sores begin to heal. First the swelling began to decrease below the knee, and continued gradually downward, and when it nearly reached the sores they began to heal. In the meantime the leg from the ankle half way to the knee became covered with running pimples, in fact the leg had become almost a solid sore. After this the sores healed rapidly. The worst one, on the in-step, healed entirely, the other to the size of a five cent piece, and it has remained in that condition ever since, which has been several months ago. For a month or more it has not discharged at all, and looks sometimes now as if it was entirely well. As a Blood Purifier and Tonic I think it superior to anything I ever tried.
If you could have seen my daughter when she commenced using your Remedy, and now, you would hardly believe her to be the same child. Last January nearly every one thought she would die. Then she was a living skeleton, now she is fat and rosy. Her case was an interesting study from the time she commenced your Remedy. I can most heartily and cheerfully recommend it to be what you claim for it. Wishing you every success with your undertaking, and with many thanks for the benefits we have received from your medicine, I am, very respectfully, MRS. R. J. ALLEN

which he is the executor.

There has been a very decided change in the weather to-day which would be more welcome but for the fact that it will endanger the vegetation which the recent warm weather has caused to put

Mr. C. Krahe, 59 Griffith street, Fort Wayne, Ind., writes the following: I was suffering with Rheumatism so badly that I was unable to work, and passed restless nights in vain endeavor to sleep.
I used a great many remedies without being relieved, and was despairing when told to try St. Jacobs Oil. By the use of one bottle I was entirely cured. I recommend St. Jacobs Oil to all afflicted with Rheumatism.

Personal.
Mr. J. C. White, the popular Superintendent of the Telephone service in this city, leaves to-night for Richmond on a leave of absence. During his absence Mr. Y. Prigge, his assistant, will have charge of the office here. Mr.
White attracts his majority to-morrow, and proposes to spend his birthday with his relatives and friends in his native city.

Collector of Customs.
Capt. E. J. Pennypacker was yesterday nominated by the President as Collector of Customs at this port, and will in all probability be confirmed by the Senate. The readers of the Review will remember that we stated some five or six weeks ago that Capt. Pennypacker would soon be appointed Collector at this port. We were posted and knew whereof we spoke and the result has proved the correctness of our assertion.

Purim.
The Hebrew festival of Purim began at sundown last Saturday. Although Jewish history gives authority for observing the feast for one or two days, modern usage makes it a season of feasting and gift-making for about a week. Occurring on the 14th of Adar, according to the Jewish calendar, it commemorates the deliverance of the Jews from the evil intentions of Haman, through Queen Esther and Mordecai. In the book of Esther, chapter ix, the origin of the word Purim is found to be from "Pur," the "lot" cast by Haman to destroy the Jews; in the same chapter Queen Esther commands them to keep the 13th and 14th days of Adar as "days of feasting and joy and of sending portions to one another and gifts to the poor." The occasion is always appropriately observed by our Jewish citizens.

Reducing Wages.

It is announced that the Western Union Telegraph Company has ordered a reduction in the salaries of receiving clerks and others occupying clerical positions in the service of the company.
The reduction took effect March 1st, and ranges from 10 to 15 per cent. It has also been ordered to reduce the force of clerks, and several removals will take place. It is claimed by the managers that since the consolidation the force of clerks on duty has been found to be larger than necessary, and that the discharges will not be numerous. Unofficially, however, it is said that the real cause of the reduction is the inability of the company to earn dividends upon its present large capital, and that the economic measures are only the beginning of sweeping and extensive changes.

honor, cowardice saves no man from Southern Historical Society Papers.

We have received the January and February number combined of the above named magazine and have given the contents a hasty perusal. The subjects treated are of interest and are instructive, as well as entertaining.— The table of contents consists of "The Battle of Chickamauga," "The True Story of Andersonville," "Sketch of Longstreet's Division," "Memoir of First Maryland Regiment;" "Lane's N. C.
Brigade" (the final report); "Operations of the Artillery in the Gettysburg Campaign;" "General Kirby Smith's Campaign in Kentucky;" "Poem written for the unveiling of Jackson's Statue at New Orleans," by Mary Ashley Townsend; "Letter from Gen. Early to Gen. Lee on Winchester and Fisher's Hill," "Reminiscences of the Army of Northern Virginia;" "Reminiscence of an official interview with Gen. Lee," together with editorial paragraphs and other matters of interest to every person who loved the "Lost Cause." The paper before us contains abundant material with which to correct the errors which Northern war historians are purposely or ignorantly and constantly making.

Hazel Kirke.

After witnessing the rendition of the above-named play at the Opera House last night, we are not surprised at the hold it has so long maintained on the New York stage. The story, as told in the play, is interesting and full of dramatic situations and incidents. The characters, with one or two exceptions, were faithfully impersonated. The acting of Miss Gilbert, as Hazel Kirke, Miss Salisbury, as Dolly Dutton, and Mrs. Salisbury, as Mercy Kirke, was exceptionally fine. Mr. Hagan, as Dun-ton Kirke, faithfully presented the character of a self-willed, stubborn old man.
Mr. Crompton, as Aaron Rodney, was excellent at times and at times he seemed not to be acting, but to be mechanically repeating an irksome task. The same may be said, though in a lesser degree, of Mr. Decker, as Lord Travers. Mr. De-vidson, as Pittacus Green, was excellent, and kept the audience in the best of humor, until the epilogue, for which his voice was not at all suited, and which to our view, was delivered with but little grace. The minor parts were good, and, taken as a whole, the acting was far above the average. The vocal quarterette in the third act, by Wilmington vocalists, was rendered smoothly and sweetly, and was a very agreeable feature in the entertainment. A Wilmington audience is critical and appreciative, and that the play was well performed was evidenced by the profound attention, interest and sympathy manifested throughout its entire rendition.

EDITOR REVIEW.—I read with no small amount of interest and appreciation, your editorial in last evening's Review, condemnatory of the retirement of Grant. I am heartily glad to see that you have come out so strongly against this deplorable iniquity, and I am equally sorry to learn that Senator Hanley was one of the Southern Senators who saw fit to cast his vote for Grant's retirement. Vance, true, noble, Democratic Vance, thank heaven! kept his honored name from so hurting a blemish, and neither did he vote in Executive Session for the confirmation of Stanley Matthews to the Supreme Court Bench.
Can Senator Ransom say as much?
Yours,
"VOX POPULI"
Orr, March 7th, '82.

Leged-mains.

The next entertainment booked for the Opera House is to be given by the celebrated magician, Prof. Zera Semon, on the evenings of the 13th, 14th and 15th insts., and a matinee on the afternoon of the 15th. To give additional interest to the entertainment, prizes of jewelry, fancy and dry goods will be distributed to the holders of lucky numbers, and every purchaser of a ticket will receive a number without additional charge.

The Carolina Central.

The Board of Directors of the Carolina Central R. R. met to-day and Col. John M. Robinson was chosen President to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Capt. Murchison. At the same time Mr. Livingston Minnis, of Baltimore, was chosen a director to fill the vacancy on the Board. There was no other business of general interest to the public transacted. The road is now fully in Col. Robinson's hands and under his control.

ing.

Man Drowned.

A white man by the name of R. Habner was drowned off the steamer D.
Murchison on her last trip up the river, which was on last Thursday night. It occurred about 7 o'clock in the evening when the boat was about 7 1/2 miles above the city. The man, who was a deck passenger, was lying on a pile of hay on the main deck which reached nearly to the flooring of the deck overhead, and he fell from this to the deck and from the deck to the river. The alarm was given immediately, and in almost less time than it takes to tell it Capt. Smith stopped the steamer and a boat was lowered A shriek was heard from him after he fell into the water, but no trace, other than his hat, was found of the missing man, although the shore on each side of the river was carefully searched.

The unfortunate man had been drinking when he went aboard the boat. He said that he was from Texas and wanted to go to Fayetteville to find work in the cotton factory there. No one at Fayetteville seemed to know him.

The Luck of a Denverite.

In the lively city of Denver, Col., resides one Sebastian Lehman, a wood worker, at No. 793 Larimer st. In a recent interview, published in the Denver News of the 19th ult., he describes himself as a native of Baden, aged fifty-four, a resident of Colorado over two years, and hence he is not a ticketfoot.
He also tells how he bought a ticket, No.
19,096, in the January drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery for $2 sent to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., and on January 10th he drew $10,000. It is a simple story, but seems to resemble many similar occurrences all over the country. The 142d Grand Monthly Drawing will take place under the sole management of Gen'l G. T. Beauregard and Jubal A. Early on March 14.
