That was a splendid rain which fell yesterday afternoon.

North Carolina hams retail for 15 cents a pound in this market.

Nor. barque Flied, Nielsen, sailed on the 6th inst. from Liverpool for this port.

The offerings in all of the churches in the city yesterday are said to have been very large.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 288 bales, and those of rosin 2,478 barrels.

Various fishing parties went out from the city to-day and the Sounds were fairly alive with visitors.

The question that puzzles pedestrians just now: The shady or the sunny side of the street? Which?

Mr. John Haar, Jr., is having the Mozart Saloon beautifully frescoed and is putting in some other improvements.

The seasons thus far have been splendid. It is safe to say that some vegetation has grown three inches within the past three days.

If we keep well and cheerful and the mind constantly active we never grow old. By and by we get to the end of the journey but we never grow old.

Be careful how you address your postal cards. It is said that 2,500 of these little missives reach the dead letter office every day for want of proper address.

Hon. A. M. Waddell, of this city, will deliver the annual address at the approaching commencement at the Monroe High School, Thursday, June 15th, next.

There is a large fire raging in the woods in Brunswick county, a short distance Southwest of the city. The heavy rain which fell yesterday afternoon did not seem to have any effect on it.

This warm weather is putting people in mind of the fact that summer is coming, and also recalls pleasant memories and equally pleasant anticipations of Smithville and the Sounds.

An abundant fruit crop this season is especially desirable and will find ready sale, as the canners are entirely out of stock. It will take an immense crop to supply them and ready consumers also.

Easter Day was celebrated yesterday, with the usual rejoicings with which it is formally recognized. The floral adornments in St. Thomas' Catholic Church and in the various Episcopal Churches four in number, and in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, were very handsome, and there were large congregations in every instance. In the Episcopal Churches the afternoon was devoted to the children who had their usual choral services on that occasion.

Capt. Denson.

The Chatham Record, alluding to the fact that Capt. C. B. Denson, of Pittsboro, has accepted an invitation to deliver the Memorial address in this city, says:

While we congratulate our talented townsman upon the compliment thus paid him, we also congratulate those who will have the opportunity of hearing one of the most eloquent orators and accomplished scholars in the State.

Alvin Joslin.

Mr. Chas. L. Davis will make his initial performance in this city this evening in his celebrated character of Alvin Joslin, a New England farmer. He will be greeted by a full house. The Burlington N. Y. Journal says:

The Academy of Music was filled last evening to witness Charles L. Davis and his company present his character comedy entitled "Alvin Joslin," as the representative of a New England farmer. It was promised that those in attendance should have 180 laughs in 180 minutes.
It was hardly the case, for the appearance of "Alvin Joslin" on the stage was the signal for the risibles of the audience to give way to laughter, which was continuous for more than three hours. Mr.
Davis' conception of his character is excellent, while his dialect could hardly be excelled.

Another Drug Store.

Dr. F. C. Miller has purchased the drug store on the corner of Fourth and Hanover streets recently run by Mr. J.
W. Conoley. Dr. Miller contemplates running both establishments. He carries a full line of drugs and medicines and his establishments will be in the hands of competent druggists. We wish him success. See advertisement in another column.

Dangerous Counterfeits.

Two new counterfeit coins that are proof to the ordinary tests are a silver dollar of 1878 and a $5 gold piece. The dollar is faultlessly executed, and the silver plating is so perfect that it will resist the application of acids until the surface is scratched. The gold coin is short in weight and does not have the true ring. Look out for them.

It takes over one hundred pairs of gloves to assuage the grief of the Brooklyn officials over the death of an alderman, whose life might have been saved by a single bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The New Comet.

The new comet will be visible to the naked eye in about two weeks, just after midnight, and will remain in sight until dawn. About 2 o'clock in the morning it will be seen about half way up the zenith, in the constellation of Lyra, and near Vega, the brightest morning star in that part of the sky. The comet is travelling about north-northeast, at the rate of about a million of miles a day.
It will approach within 80,000,000 miles of the earth. It is an unusually large comet, but it will be seen to its best advantage only in the Southern hemisphere.

potence, Sexual Debility. $1 at drug-

Dr. Talmage—Thursday, 20th inst.

A telegram was received from the Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage this morning stating that he would deliver his promised lecture in this city on Thursday evening the 20th inst. This is no doubt very gratifying to the public. Mr. Talmage is a fine lecturer and the public have in store a treat of the highest order of culture. The Library Association have labored assiduously in getting this gifted and silver-tongued orator to deliver a lecture here and their efforts will, be as they should be, tangibly appreciated by the public.

Opera House To-Morrow.

For the better accommodation of ladies and children, Col. F. E. Willis has consented to give one matinee and night performance in the Opera House, commencing to-morrow (Tuesday), from 2 to 6 o'clock, and at night from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The price of admission will be but 10 cents, for which you can see the giant fat baby, the second sight medium, Prof Willis' illusions, the Bohemian glass-blowers spinning and weaving the brittle glass threads into cloth, the troupe of performing rats and mice, and an old-fashion Punch and Judy show.
As an additional attraction, there will be a baby show. A beautiful premium will be given to the prettiest baby at the matinee in the afternoon. The Kentucky fat baby will not compete for the prize. He's a bouncer and quite pretty, but will not be entered against his Lilliputian friends in arms. All of our ladies and children should attend the matinee, as it will be the last exhibition of this troupe with its "bird man," trained rats and clever second sight medium, who also-gives several very fine optical illusions. Miss Heller, who is quite pretty, naive and intelligent and stands at the head of her profession, has never been equalled by any one who has given exhibitions in this city.
The show is well worth the price of admission, and is one well calculated to amuse the young and astonish the old.

The Free Press is the name of a very handsome weekly which has just gone into publication at Kinston, in this State, under the control of Mr. Joseph Daniels, an accomplished young journalist who has for a number of years past been one of the editors of the Wilson Advance.

Announcement.

On or about the 20th inst., the DAILY REVIEW will be published in the morning, instead of the afternoon, as heretofore.

This course has been taken at the earnest solicitation of many friends, and in the belief that success is attainable.
Full telegraphic reports of the news and of the markets, as furnished by the Associated Press, will be published in each issue, the Editorial department will be in careful and experienced hands, and especial care will be taken in preparing home markets as well as those received by telegraph. The local columns will receive the most careful attention and it will be the constant endeavor of the Publisher and the Editors to make every department of the paper as perfect as the means at their disposal will admit.

The name of the paper will in no way be changed, but it will appear in an entirely new dress throughout, the material having already been ordered. It has been thought best to reduce the price to $4 a year, $1 for three months, or 35 cents for one month, payment strictly at the end of each month. These very low rates will place the paper within the reach of every one.

Mr. Walker Meares will assume charge of the city subscription lists, and will, within the next few days, beginning with Monday next, call upon all of our citizens who are not now subscribers to the DAILY REVIEW.

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL.

The changes spoken of above, which are to go into effect on or about the 20th inst., will also affect the WILMINGTON JOURNAL, which will thereafter be reduced in price from $2 to $1 per annum, with a slight reduction in size, but with a decided improvement in other respects.
These new terms will be strictly cash.
If payment is delayed six months $1.50 a year will be charged and if not paid before the end of the year $2 will be charged.

Meat and Grief.

Daniel Oxendine has come to grief from a fondness for dry salted meat. On Saturday last he was caught in the act of stealing a piece of meat from the store of Mr. J. H. Strauss, on the corner of Chestnut and Water streets, and turned over to the police. Mr. Strauss has missed several articles from his store and had reason to suspect Oxendine as the thief. On Wednesday last the prisoner stopped in at the store and loitered around for some time, and as soon as he left Mr. Strauss discovered that a piece of meat weighing about 4 pounds had gone off with him. Saturday the man made his appearance in the store, and, being strongly suspected, he was closely watched, and was subsequently caught with a piece of meat. Oxendine says he is from South Carolina, but this statement is taken with several grains of allowance. He has been about here for the past month or so, and is thought to be from the Scuffletown district.

The Court wound up its business for the term this a. m., after disposing of several sci fa cases.

The Sunday School scholars of St. James' Church on yesterday presented to the Church a magnificent massive silver alms basin, with raised figures in gold in the centre representing the Wise Men with their offerings at the Manger in Bethlehem.

City Court.

The Mayor had an unusually large and interesting levee this morning.

Obediah Jenkins was arraigned for disorderly conduct and was fined $10 or 20 days. For lack of funds he was sent below.

Judy Hunter, colored, was found drunk and down, and was also disorderly; she was sent below for 10 days.

Scipio Hill again paid his respects and was charged with being drunk and down. He was fined $1 which he paid and departed.

Daniel Oxendine, charged with larceny. At his request his case was postponed until Thursday next.

This closed the levee.

Mr. Fred Barr, Mansfield, Ohio, writes as follows: After suffering with rheumatism for six months and applying a number of remedies without benefit, I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil from my druggist, Mr. C. W. Wagner, and am happy to state that after using one bottle, I can now dress myself, which I had not been able to do for some time.

Election of Vestrymen.

At the election of Vestrymen for St. James' Episcopal Church, held to-day, the following gentlemen were elected for the ensuing year: James Anderson, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, J. G. Burr, A. H. VanBokkellen, A. Martin, Jas. Dawson, J. L. Boatwright, Clayton Giles, R. E. Calder, J. G. Wright, W. L. DeRosset, Dr. W. G. Thomas.

All of the above are re-elections with the exception of Mr. Josh G. Wright, who was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Z. Latimer.

Ghost.

Prof Lee and his family give a very pleasant and interesting little entertainment on Market Street opposite the Masonic Hall. The haunted castle is shown to your view in a striking and life-like manner and the other spiritualistic manifestations are marvellous and ingenious. The price of admission is but ten cents and the entertainment is worth several times the price. See advertisement elsewhere.

To the Public.

THERE ARE TWO WAYS in which to supply your demands:—one to find a reliable merchant and patronize him whenever you have need; the other to go in search of so-called "bargains" offered by adventurers. In the one case you get your money's worth of honest Clothing; in the other you will be served with spurious Clothing, and only learn your loss when your purse is empty. For a number of years the "Men's Wear Depot" has supplied the wants of the people in this vicinity. The principles upon which this business was conceived and built up to its present dimensions are the same principles upon which it is conducted to-day, namely, fair dealing and giving of full value for amount received.

The connections that we have formed with manufacturers and large wholesale houses enable us to compete successfully with all other merchants both in variety and price. The Reason Why we want your patronage is because we can save you money; because we are established for your benefit; because we place high value on individual endorsement; because we offer you handsome lines of garments in imported and domestic fabrics to choose from; because we are authority on styles; because our goods are reliable; because we are ahead of every thing that constitutes a perfect Clothing business; because, in a word, we are the leading retail CLOTH-IER in this section.
