repeal the laws levying-First-The 2 cents stamp duty on bank checks.

Second-The payment of the tax of 1 per cent on bank circulation.

Third-The payment of the tax of one-half of one per cent. upon all deposits

Resolved, 2d, That our Senators and members of the House of Representatives be requested to vote for the bill to recharter the national banks, whose charters are about to expire.

Resolved, 3d, 'i hat the secretary be instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to our Senators and members of Congress, with the request that they use their influence and give their votes in favor of the repeal of these burdensome taxes upon the commerce of the country. On motion the Board of Managers was instructed to take some action looking to the abatement of the tax on manufac turers of this city and ask for a suitable Custom House and Post Office in this city. The Board then adjourned.

Mormon Emissarles,

A few days since a man came to Magnolia, in Duplin county, accompanied by Senior Waroen-DuB. Cutlar; Junior two ladies, one of whom he represented as his wife, and the other as his daughter. He gave his name as Mr. Gaylord Smith, of England, and introduced himself as desiring to lecture upon the "Crimes of the Government against the Indians." The people, being a little suspicious, refused to allow him to lecture in either of the churches, but he secured a hall and delivered his lecture on Saturday night last. We learn, from intelligent gentlemen who were present, that the entire discourse, instead of being devoted to the Indians, their wrongs and grievances, was in laudation and praise of Brigham Young and the prosperous and happy condition of the Mormons in Utah. It was the opinion generally those who heard him that of was an emissary of the Mormon Church, and that his object was to introduce the tenets of that faith and to pave the way for the dissemination of its doctrines. Mr. Smith (a convenient name) did not profess belief in Mormonism. On the contrary, we believe he expressed himself as of a different faith; but merce respectfully petition Congress to zens who are not now subscribers to the DAILY REVIEW.

> THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL. The changes spoken of above, which are to go into effect on or about the 20th inst., will also affect the WILMINGTON JOURNAL, which will thereafter be reduced in price from $2 to $1 per annum, with a slight reduction in size, but with a decieded improvement in other respects. Thesonew terms will be strictly cash-If payment is delayed six months $1.50 a year will be charged and if not paid before the end of the year $2 will be charged.
