The State Conference of Congregational Churches will hold its annual meeting in Christ's Church, this city, commencing Thursday night and continuing during the week. The meetings will be public.

A colored man applied at the Station House last night! for lodging, but his action and conversation was so much ike a crazy man's, he was taken into rustody. His mental condition will be inquired into this morning.

The lawn party given last night at the rectory of St. Paul's church by the every way quite a success. The net reeipts were encouraging and the evening was spent in pleasant vis-a-vis by bese who attended it.

A Good Idea.

At the request of the merchants who lose their stores at 7 o'clock p. m. during the summer months, the Mayor has at that hour, commencing this evening. We give notice of the fact, fearing that some might think the ringing of the bell at that hour was for an alarm of

Martin's Scheme.

We publish, on the third page of this ssue, an article extracted from the Philadelphia, Press, relative to E. F. Martin and the road which he is trying "Little Workers" of that parish, was in to build along the coast. If Martin is correctly represented there he was doubtless talking for buncombe as well as for money. We would be glad to see him succeed in building the road but he musn't lay out too much on the color line when he begs for money.

The boy was next heard of at Hilton where he spent the day with a colored picnic party. Tuesday night a young white boy, answering to the description of the accused, was found asleep on the piazza of a residence near the City Hall and was carried to the Station House where he remained during the night. Officer Mintz telephoned Mr. Bailey and told him of the boy, but as the watch was not found on his person Mr. Bailey concluded to take no action in the matter, and the little rascal was roleased from custody. The boy said he was originally from Leesburg but had not lived with his parents in two years. of the watch at Hilton.

The Bingham School Disaster. The young gentlemen of this city who were students at Bingham School returned on Tuesday night. From them we learn that the fire was the result of carelessness, or rather thoughtlessness. and was discovered about 9 o'elock on Monday morning. The flies seemed to have been very annoying in the barracks and an attempt was made to smoke them out in one of the rooms in which was suspended from the ceiling a rope trapeze. The ropes were covered with Saturday last, was recovered yesterday. 1, to B. F. Swan, Red Ball, 1881 to 1882. flies, and a lighted newspaper was applied to burn them off. The flames were hurriedly carried by the loose shreds of the rope to the hole in the ceiling, where they must have seized fresh fuel and ignited the building between the ceiling and the roof. In two hours after the fire was discovered bursting Portland. She discharged her cargo through the roof all of the buildings of the school, sixteen in number, which were wood, were totally destroyed.
